

ACTS ENJOY STATE FAIR

That Murderers and Rubbed Shoulders With Elite

DED THE DANCE

iving Time for Atrones Had Charge of Exhibits and Were ing a Fine Time

Capital Journal in Saturday published the following story:

Warden Johnson Smith of state penitentiary expects to see one ex-convict included in an event and not likely to be seen by the state ex-prosecutor of their disapproval.

erally speaking, few of the who have entered the fair during the week have been the unbillied attraction—the of from a dozen to 15 con- sidering at least three murder- life sentences, parading in civilian clothes, ming- the crowds, and even dan- cing in the pavilion.

ly the convicts were on the attendants at the two retained by the peniten- tary for the sale of jewelry and sets manufactured by the in each of these booths two were on duty most of the unless these men worked ex- short shifts finding occu- the remaining 10 or 12 who the grounds daily must have been of the warden.

The Murderers Included.

among those who served of their sentences in enjoy- ing the fair, rubbing shoulders crowd and otherwise doing their crimes were Lee of an aged couple in county, who was debarred in suit, brown hat, white gold watch chain; George of cutting a Port- land throat, and Fred Tron- who reached his sweetheart in case she refused to marry and temperamentally they type of criminal as John act who yesterday morn- ing beat his landlady to death with a hammer and butcher so seriously beat her 9- about the head with a that he had to be sent to Carl, who had served 15 the McNeill's island prison for a blooded murder of a fellow killed the woman yesterday who had not quieted noises as to which Carl objected.

Atrocious Crimes.

committed his murder in in Portland and was sent to serve a life sentence in 1914. Once Keller was state parole of off escaped, but was cap- following day as he was across the Burnside bridge by Keller.

crime was one of the most in the annals of crime in Oregon and his trial stirred in that part of the the bulletin point. Old times the prison recalls that Dale who only saved from lynch- ing by repeated assurances of of that he would be made to pay his crime.

be was grading the fair to a smartly cut suit of the with no mark to identifi- a convict and unaccompani- guard.

about the week the convicts "serving their time." Two have been seen dancing with in the pavilion, and others seen in all parts of the all unattended. One of them today acting as an escort and for a small child, supposed of one of the prison officials, grounds.

Walsh, known in the prison "Eye Dick" was taking in the Saturday and was in attendance show as late as 8:30 of the evening. Dressed in show with nothing to distin- guish as a convict, Walsh appear- enjoying the show immense-

WIMBERLY RESIGNS

Carl E. Wimberly, who last Saturday received his commission as district attorney for Douglas county, today tendered his resignation as city attorney of Roseburg. The resignation will go before the city council tonight and his successor will probably be named at tonight's meeting.

ly. He is a two time loser at the pen and has a long criminal record. Several years ago he was arrested here for stealing an automobile at the fair grounds and served a term in the county jail. Later he was arrested with a companion for hiring an automobile in Portland and assaulting and tying the driver and stealing his car enroute to Seattle. For this crime Walsh was sent up for 7 years. Released on a parole Walsh went to southern Oregon and was sent back a year later on another charge.

Custodian of Deer.

"Doc" E. J. Poots, whose duties as trustee appears to be those of official custodian for the prison's pet deer, is another who has been helping swell the fair crowds. "Doc" is serving a term for criminal assault and three re- poses in the warden's office a warrant calling for his detention to answer a charge in the Salem justice court when his time is up.

J. J. Johnson, Jacksonville bank wrecker; A. Schmading, serving 5 years and editing the prison paper, and J. J. Walker, against whom indictments charging participation in the wrecking of the Lafayette bank were dismissed when he was sentenced to serve 6 years on an arson charge, are others for whom civilian clothes oc- cupations have been found on the fair grounds this week.

A NEW NECKTIE

A silk knit tie of heavy thread. Tie is one inch wide, beautiful color combinations. Newest thing out. 50c each at Carr's.

HOWARD'S SHOE STORE IS IN NEW LOCATION

The Goodyear Shoe Repair Shop, operated by W. S. Howard, has been moved from its location on Jackson street to the store room in the rear of Kidder's shoe store. Mr. Howard was forced to move when the building which he formerly occupied was purchased by O. J. Lindsey, and he is moving and setting up his machinery as rapidly as possible. He expects to be completely moved and ready for work in his new location tomorrow.

HAIR BRUSHES, 35c

An aluminum faced brush, finished in white, pink or blue enamel, also black or mahogany. A good value brush for only 35c. Carr's—where you save.

LUNCHEON FOR STATE PRESIDENT

A luncheon will be held at the South Methodist church Tuesday at 12:30 in honor of Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, State Federation president. The Roseburg Woman's club is sponsoring the luncheon which will be for members only. In the afternoon a business and social meeting will be held at the Presbyterian church, starting at 2:30, to which the club members may invite guests by paying the fee of 25 cents for each guest. A good program has been arranged for the afternoon, and a luncheon will be served.

AZALIA SCHOOL STANDARDIZED

The patrons of the Azalia school, had a very enjoyable meeting last Thursday, when the school was standardized, the event being made the occasion of an all day picnic and entertainment. A program was held, the school children giving some interesting musical and literary selections, while various school officers and patrons made short talks. County School Superintendent O. C. Brown, made an address, and presented the certificate of standardization. The school has qualified in all points demanded of standard schools by the state and the patrons are justly proud of their fine record. Miss Edith Booth, the teacher of the school, has been a great help to the officers of the district and it is largely through her efforts that the school has reached its high place. A basket dinner was held at noon, and the program continued in the afternoon.

Buy Heaters NOW!

Don't wait until the chilly days come. Have your heater set up and ready. Choose from the many different styles—wood and combination heaters for any home.

Unusually good line of Androns and Fireplace Sets, Brass, Silver and Black Finishes

Prices range from $5.00 to $30.00

ADGLEY & ZIGLER HARDWARE CO.

PHONE 25

GRAIN DEALERS BATTLE TRADE "EXPERIMENTS"

Quinn Dislikes Co-operative Fruit Marketing Plan as Applied to Grain

ASSAILS CLASS FEELING Says Farmers Are Driven Into Combinations That Do Not Know Grain Problems

(International News Service.)

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 1.—Charles Quinn, secretary-treasurer of the grain dealers' national association, the largest body of its kind in the world, told 1,500 business men assembled in convention today that the time had come for "the helpless public to revolt against political and economic experiments."

Bitterly assailing radical leaders for class agitation which he said was forcing lawmaking bodies to bow to the will of minorities, Quinn declared the entire nation was feeling the ill effects of such agitation.

Topping thrones have let loose a flood of schemes for remaking the world," he said. "And this world of abnormal times, a world that abandons music for jazz, art for cubism and the church for the movie, will try anything."

Agrarian unrest is a part of the general disturbance, he declared, adding that congress, which devoted its last two sessions to helping the farmer, is preparing for another flood of "farm aid measures."

Quinn denounced the activities of farm organizers who would apply the rules of cooperative fruit marketing to grain marketing, quoting authorities to show the fallacy of such methods. He asserted that the ill-advised farm leaders sought to destroy the middleman and replace him with "a system far more wasteful."

"After driving farmers into these so-called cooperative companies," he said, "the leaders would bind them for ten years to deliver their products, not to the highest bidder, but to visionaries who know nothing of merchandising grain. To strengthen their position they would impose a fine of $500 on anyone who would dare to tell the farmers that they had made a mistake. The price to be paid producers was of minor importance. It was simply to be the market price 'after all expenses of merchandising' were deducted."

"This is indeed an age of turbulent thinking," he declared, adding that the unsound policies of the farm leaders could but in time bring ruin to agriculture.

HOTEL ARRIVALS

Hotel Umpqua

Portland arrivals: J. D. Wertz, W. S. Rockhill, S. S. Hruszaga, D. L. Crawford, F. L. Shafer, Wm. W. Stevens, John Davidson, W. M. Price, T. O. Cartolan and family, D. O. Cartolan, Mrs. E. L. Wolff, Miss Ruth Wolff, R. C. Morris, George J. Ekro, O. L. Lassler and wife, W. J. and Mrs. Vincent, L. L. Snodgrass, H. E. Dean, A. D. Canary, Clarence Canary, George Simpson, L. H. Minor, R. H. Chaplor.

Miscellaneous: R. W. Hawley and family, San Francisco; R. Launen, Jr., Stockholm; F. L. Barnett, San Francisco; George A. Mansfield, Medford; J. L. Williams and wife, Bandon; J. L. Fensier and wife, Pasadena; W. A. Sheldon, A. Loeff and wife, Long Beach; L. M. Dankworth, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Hlalt, Miss Edith E. Hlalt, Miss E. E. Prentyman, Phoenix; Arthur A. Carlson.

ENGLAND CONCERNED OVER STATISTICS ON FALLING BIRTH RATE

(By Associated Press.)

LEEDS, Eng., Oct. 1.—England's empty cradles continue to form a subject of animated comment among the newspapers, doctors and sociologists. Not a few British officials express misgivings over the future of the race if the present rate of decline in births continues.

Dr. J. Johnstone Jarvis, medical officer of health for Leeds, in his report for 1922, refers in some striking passages to the subject of birth control. Commenting upon the fall of the birth rate in Leeds from 21.8 to 19.8 per 1000, he says: "How people can, in these circumstances, talk of birth control and the necessity for the reduction of the birth rate, passes comprehension. To talk of the risks of overpopulation with Europe depleted by war, revolution, famine, and disease, and other conditions calling out for settlers to occupy their land and develop their industries, is childish folly."

"This Malthusian myth of overpopulation was exploded long ago, so one thought, but it has been resurrected, and is again being made to do service in this anti-social campaign to reduce the birth rate. No one objects to the restriction of the unfit, but to interfere with the birth rate of the fit—and this seriously is what is intended—is to invite disaster. Let there be no mistake about it, if the British Empire fails, it will not be for lack of money, as so many seem to fear, but for lack of men, and because his sons and daughters have been influenced by the teachings of a few seekers after notoriety and have allowed selfish interests to come between them and their duty."

"The state also has a duty in the matter, namely, to ensure that every parent has an income to enable him to maintain himself and his family

BUILD WITH STONE-TILE

It gives you a permanent building that is fire and weather-proof, costs practically the same as frame construction. Its soft grey tone and pleasing texture is especially attractive.

Made of enduring concrete, Stone-Tile brick is economical in first cost and reduces upkeep expenses to a minimum.

Get Stone-Tile estimates before you build.

Made in your city

Denn-Gerretsen Co.

Fuel and Building Material

231 No. Main St.

Phone 128 Roseburg, Oregon

STONE-TILE

PERMANENT CONSTRUCTION

CRUSADE FOR INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY IS PROCLAIMED

(Continued from page one)

ordinate the activities of labor banks throughout the country. It pointed out that the twenty-three labor banks now in business or about to start are organized on different plans and that it would be impossible to bring them together in a unit. The central bank project is, therefore, "not only impractical, but undesirable," the council said.

Non-Partisan Campaign.

Pointing to the fact that "through the activities of the A. F. of L. Non-Partisan campaign committee twenty-three candidates for United States senator who had been loyal to labor and the people were elected, and eleven reactionary senators defeated, and the 170 house members were elected, either because the A. F. of L. supported them or opposed their rivals," the council advocated that the convention provide more funds for similar activities in the 1924 campaign so that "a most thorough campaign can be inaugurated and carried to a successful conclusion."

Kansas Industrial Court.

"Kansas once again is heading toward freedom" as the result of the supreme court's decision "dismembering" the industrial court, the council said. In view of the decision "the only purpose now being served by the remnants of ex-Governor Allen's law is to provide jobs for his political appointees on this court and to squander the money of the taxpayers of Kansas," Governor Davis was commended for his efforts to abrogate the law entirely.

Open Shop.

The so-called "American plan" or open shop was condemned as an effort to put workers into slavery, and the council declared that "the successful strikes of nearly 2,000,000 wage-earners in the United States are responsible for the prosperity this country is enjoying, since these strikes were adjusted by collective bargaining."

Ku Klux Klan.

The Klan was condemned on the ground that "it is destructive of that freedom and devotion to the principles of liberty which we regard as the first essentials in democratic civilization. We believe that no trade unionist can consistently participate in the activities of the Ku Klux Klan or any similar organization, and we unhesitatingly denounce its efforts to supplant ordered government, to promote religious intolerance, racial antagonisms and bigotry."

Fascist Movement.

The effort to organize fascist groups in the United States was denounced as "a token of hostility to our democratic institutions." Foreign-born workers were urged to "refrain from joining the fascist or any similar movement."

Railroads and the Courts.

An exhaustive review of the shopmen's strike and the Wilkerson injunction was made. The council declared the injunction "marked a new advance of the courts of equity in their usurpation of power to control industrial controversies," which may provide "a tyrannical precedent in other cases."

The Railroad Labor Board and the Esch-Cummings act were roundly condemned and their abrogation urged.

Minimum Wage Law.

Nullification of the District of Columbia minimum wage law for women, not alone for their own protection, but also for the protection of men wage earners, the council said.

Congress.

In a comprehensive review of the work of the Sixty-seventh Congress the council declared it "will find an unenviable place in history. Reaction and incompetence, backed apparently and by no other thought than personal and partisan political advantage, made it impotent to remedy any of the evils troubling the people of our country."

One of the greatest dangers to the country, the report said, is legislation by "lame ducks," or defeated members of congress.

USED FORD BARGAINS!

1—1923 Ford Coupe
1—Ford Bug, underslung $60.00
1—Ford Truck with body $175.00
1—Ford Touring, 1918, $100.00
1—Ford Touring, 1914, $60.00
1—Ford Touring, 1921
2—Ford Touring, 1920
1—1920 Buick 6 Roadster
1—1920 Maxwell Touring

C. A. Lockwood Motor Co.

Roseburg, Oregon

CRUSADE FOR INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY IS PROCLAIMED

(Continued from page one)

ordinate the activities of labor banks throughout the country. It pointed out that the twenty-three labor banks now in business or about to start are organized on different plans and that it would be impossible to bring them together in a unit. The central bank project is, therefore, "not only impractical, but undesirable," the council said.

Non-Partisan Campaign.

Pointing to the fact that "through the activities of the A. F. of L. Non-Partisan campaign committee twenty-three candidates for United States senator who had been loyal to labor and the people were elected, and eleven reactionary senators defeated, and the 170 house members were elected, either because the A. F. of L. supported them or opposed their rivals," the council advocated that the convention provide more funds for similar activities in the 1924 campaign so that "a most thorough campaign can be inaugurated and carried to a successful conclusion."

Kansas Industrial Court.

"Kansas once again is heading toward freedom" as the result of the supreme court's decision "dismembering" the industrial court, the council said. In view of the decision "the only purpose now being served by the remnants of ex-Governor Allen's law is to provide jobs for his political appointees on this court and to squander the money of the taxpayers of Kansas," Governor Davis was commended for his efforts to abrogate the law entirely.

Open Shop.

The so-called "American plan" or open shop was condemned as an effort to put workers into slavery, and the council declared that "the successful strikes of nearly 2,000,000 wage-earners in the United States are responsible for the prosperity this country is enjoying, since these strikes were adjusted by collective bargaining."

Ku Klux Klan.

The Klan was condemned on the ground that "it is destructive of that freedom and devotion to the principles of liberty which we regard as the first essentials in democratic civilization. We believe that no trade unionist can consistently participate in the activities of the Ku Klux Klan or any similar organization, and we unhesitatingly denounce its efforts to supplant ordered government, to promote religious intolerance, racial antagonisms and bigotry."

Fascist Movement.

The effort to organize fascist groups in the United States was denounced as "a token of hostility to our democratic institutions." Foreign-born workers were urged to "refrain from joining the fascist or any similar movement."

Railroads and the Courts.

An exhaustive review of the shopmen's strike and the Wilkerson injunction was made. The council declared the injunction "marked a new advance of the courts of equity in their usurpation of power to control industrial controversies," which may provide "a tyrannical precedent in other cases."

The Railroad Labor Board and the Esch-Cummings act were roundly condemned and their abrogation urged.

Minimum Wage Law.

Nullification of the District of Columbia minimum wage law for women, not alone for their own protection, but also for the protection of men wage earners, the council said.

Congress.

In a comprehensive review of the work of the Sixty-seventh Congress the council declared it "will find an unenviable place in history. Reaction and incompetence, backed apparently and by no other thought than personal and partisan political advantage, made it impotent to remedy any of the evils troubling the people of our country."

One of the greatest dangers to the country, the report said, is legislation by "lame ducks," or defeated members of congress.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

by MRS. ELLSBURY

(Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a girl 13 years old, am a freshman in high school. I was always popular in grade school and sought after, but in high school no one ever notices me. How can I attract the upper classmen's attention?

CUTIE—You can best attract attention by being just your own sweet self, and not worrying about upper class men or any others. By all means don't run after them. You will be an upper class member yourself in plenty of time, and then you will want to be popular with the boys in your own class, so content yourself with the Freshman boys now. Do not think too much about upper classmen, or any other boys my dear, and give more time to your studies.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a freshman in high school, and accompanied by my mother, always go to the Saturday night dances at the Armory. None of the popular high school boys ever ask me to dance, why is this? There are a few high school boys in the freshman class who ask me to dance, but none of the upper class boys come near me. I would like to dance with the popular boys but I cannot see why they never ask me. Please tell me how to get in their bunch, and be popular among them.

D.—There are no rules that I can give you that will insure your being popular. Just be natural and sweet, and have a good time with your own friends, and do not worry about the upper class boys. The answer to "Cutie" in the preceding question will apply to you also.

Returned Home Today

Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Miss Vera Mackay, returned this morning from Salem, where she attended to business for the past few days. Miss Mackay attended the "Cherrian" banquet, which was held at the Marion Hotel.

Roofing at Wharton Bros.

American fence at carload prices. Get our special price by the mile. Wharton Bros.

Why not belong to the News-Review's happy family of readers? Sign up and be the 4126th one to get tonight's paper.

Camels Induced to Smoke.

In Morocco, where the natives are training wild camels, they make them docile by inducing them to smoke tobacco—a cigar, loosely rolled, and placed in the end of a three-cornered piece of wood through which a hole has been drilled, says the Irish Tobacco Trade Journal. "As soon as the camel begins to draw he becomes docile and quickly grasps the art of inhaling the smoke and emitting it through his nostrils. One defect of the training is that Mr. Camel is apt ever after to insist on smoking at work."

Silenced.

A newly-married couple were entertaining their friends, and amongst the guests was one whose continued rudeness made him objectionable to the rest of the company. His conduct, although almost unbearable, was tolerated for some time, until at supper he held up on his fork a piece of white meat which had been served to him, and in a vein of extended humor remarked, "Is this pig?"

"To which end of the fork do you refer?" asked a quiet-looking man sitting at the other end of the table.

In comfort and health. If it fails to do this, it fails in that on which most depends our national health and welfare.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

by MRS. ELLSBURY

(Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a girl 13 years old, am a freshman in high school. I was always popular in grade school and sought after, but in high school no one ever notices me. How can I attract the upper classmen's attention?

CUTIE—You can best attract attention by being just your own sweet self, and not worrying about upper class men or any others. By all means don't run after them. You will be an upper class member yourself in plenty of time, and then you will want to be popular with the boys in your own class, so content yourself with the Freshman boys now. Do not think too much about upper classmen, or any other boys my dear, and give more time to your studies.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a freshman in high school, and accompanied by my mother, always go to the Saturday night dances at the Armory. None of the popular high school boys ever ask me to dance, why is this? There are a few high school boys in the freshman class who ask me to dance, but none of the upper class boys come near me. I would like to dance with the popular boys but I cannot see why they never ask me. Please tell me how to get in their bunch, and be popular among them.

D.—There are no rules that I can give you that will insure your being popular. Just be natural and sweet, and have a good time with your own friends, and do not worry about the upper class boys. The answer to "Cutie" in the preceding question will apply to you also.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT.

U. S. Weather Bureau, local office, Roseburg, Oregon, 24 hours ending 5 a. m.

Precipitation in Ins. and Hundredths

Highest temperature yesterday...	83
Lowest temperature last night...	50
Precipitation last 24 hours...	0
Total precip. since first of month...	0
Normal precip. for this month...	2.61
Total precip. from Sept. 1, 1923 to date...	1.63
Aver. precip. from Sept. 1, 1877...	1.11
Total excess from Sept. 1, 1923 to date...	.52
Aver. precip. for 46 wet seasons, (Sept. to May, inclusive)...	31.48

Fair tonight and Tuesday.

WILLIAM BELL, Observer.

CRUSADE FOR INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY IS PROCLAIMED

(Continued from page one)

ordinate the activities of labor banks throughout the country. It pointed out that the twenty-three labor banks now in business or about to start are organized on different plans and that it would be impossible to bring them together in a unit. The central bank project is, therefore, "not only impractical, but undesirable," the council said.

Non-Partisan Campaign.

Pointing to the fact that "through the activities of the A. F. of L. Non-Partisan campaign committee twenty-three candidates for United States senator who had been loyal to labor and the people were elected, and eleven reactionary senators defeated, and the 170 house members were elected, either because the A. F. of L. supported them or opposed their rivals," the council advocated that the convention provide more funds for similar activities in the 1924 campaign so that "a most thorough campaign can be inaugurated and carried to a successful conclusion."

Kansas Industrial Court.

"Kansas once again is heading toward freedom" as the result of the supreme court's decision "dismembering" the industrial court, the council said. In view of the decision "the only purpose now being served by the remnants of ex-Governor Allen's law is to provide jobs for his political appointees on this court and to squander the money of the taxpayers of Kansas," Governor Davis was commended for his efforts to abrogate the law entirely.

Open Shop.

The so-called "American plan" or open shop was condemned as an effort to put workers into slavery, and the council declared that "the successful strikes of nearly 2,000,000 wage-earners in the United States are responsible for the prosperity this country is enjoying, since these strikes were adjusted by collective bargaining."

Ku Klux Klan.

The Klan was condemned on the ground that "it is destructive of that freedom and devotion to the principles of liberty which we regard as the first essentials in democratic civilization. We believe that no trade unionist can consistently participate in the activities of the Ku Klux Klan or any similar organization, and we unhesitatingly denounce its efforts to supplant ordered government, to promote religious intolerance, racial antagonisms and bigotry."

Fascist Movement.

The effort to organize fascist groups in the United States was denounced as "a token of hostility to our democratic institutions." Foreign-born workers were urged to "refrain from joining the fascist or any similar movement."

Railroads and the Courts.

An exhaustive review of the shopmen's strike and the Wilkerson injunction was made. The council declared the injunction "marked a new advance of the courts of equity in their usurpation of power to control industrial controversies," which may provide "a tyrannical precedent in other cases."

The Railroad Labor Board and the Esch-Cummings act were roundly condemned and their abrogation urged.

Minimum Wage Law.

Nullification of the District of Columbia minimum wage law for women, not alone for their own protection, but also for the protection of men wage earners, the council said.

Congress.

In a comprehensive review of the work of the Sixty-seventh Congress the council declared it "will find an unenviable place in history. Reaction and incompetence, backed apparently and by no other thought than personal and partisan political advantage, made it impotent to remedy any of the evils troubling the people of our country."

One of the greatest dangers to the country, the report said, is legislation by "lame ducks," or defeated members of congress.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

by MRS. ELLSBURY

(Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a girl 13 years old, am a freshman in high school. I was always popular in grade school and sought after, but in high school no one ever notices me. How can I attract the upper classmen's attention?

CUTIE—You can best attract attention by being just your own sweet self, and not worrying about upper class men or any others. By all means don't run after them. You will be an upper class member yourself in plenty of time, and then you will want to be popular with the boys in your own class, so content yourself with the Freshman boys now. Do not think too much about upper classmen, or any other boys my dear, and give more time to your studies.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a freshman in high school, and accompanied by my mother, always go to the Saturday night dances at the Armory. None of the popular high school boys ever ask me to dance, why is this? There are a few high school boys in the freshman class who ask me to dance, but none of the upper class boys come near me. I would like to dance with the popular boys but I cannot see why they never ask me. Please tell me how to get in their bunch, and be popular among them.

D.—There are no rules that I can give you that will insure your being popular. Just be natural and sweet, and have a good time with your own friends, and do not worry about the upper class boys. The answer to "Cutie" in the preceding question will apply to you also.

Returned Home Today

Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Miss Vera Mackay, returned this morning from Salem, where she attended to business for the past few days. Miss Mackay attended the "Cherrian" banquet, which was held at the Marion Hotel.

Roofing at Wharton Bros.

American fence at carload prices. Get our special price by the mile. Wharton Bros.

Why not belong to the News-Review's happy family of readers? Sign up and be the 4126th one to get tonight's paper.

Camels Induced to Smoke.

In Morocco, where the natives are training wild camels, they make them docile by inducing them to smoke tobacco—a cigar, loosely rolled, and placed in the end of a three-cornered piece of wood through which a hole has been drilled, says the Irish Tobacco Trade Journal. "As soon as the camel begins to draw he becomes docile and quickly grasps the art of inhaling the smoke and emitting it through his nostrils. One defect of the training is that Mr. Camel is apt ever after to insist on smoking at work."

Silenced.

A newly-married couple were entertaining their friends, and amongst the guests was one whose continued rudeness made him objectionable to the rest of the company. His conduct, although almost unbearable, was tolerated for some time, until at supper he held up on his fork a piece of white meat which had been served to him, and in a vein of extended humor remarked, "Is this pig?"

"To which end of the fork do you refer?" asked a quiet-looking man sitting at the other end of the table.

In comfort and health. If it fails to do this, it fails in that on which most depends our national health and welfare.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

by MRS. ELLSBURY

(Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a girl 13 years old, am a freshman in high school. I was always popular in grade school and sought after, but in high school no one ever notices me. How can I attract the upper classmen's attention?

CUTIE—You can best attract attention by being just your own sweet self, and not worrying about upper class men or any others. By all means don't run after them. You will be an upper class member yourself in plenty of time, and then you will want to be popular with the boys in your own class, so content yourself with the Freshman boys now. Do not think too much about upper classmen, or any other boys my dear, and give more time to your studies.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a freshman in high school, and accompanied by my mother, always go to the Saturday night dances at the Armory. None of the popular high school boys ever ask me to dance, why is this? There are a few high school boys in the freshman class who ask me to dance, but none of the upper class boys come near me. I would like to dance with the popular boys but I cannot see why they never ask me. Please tell me how to get in their bunch, and be popular among them.

D.—There are no rules that I can give you that will insure your being popular. Just be natural and sweet, and have a good time with your own friends, and do not worry about the upper class boys. The answer to "Cutie" in the preceding question will apply to you also.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT.

U. S. Weather Bureau, local office, Roseburg, Oregon, 24 hours ending 5 a. m.

Precipitation in Ins. and Hundredths

Highest temperature yesterday...	83
Lowest temperature last night...	50
Precipitation last 24 hours...	0
Total precip. since first of month...	0
Normal precip. for this month...	2.61
Total precip. from Sept. 1, 1923 to date...	1.63
Aver. precip. from Sept. 1, 1877...	1.11
Total excess from Sept. 1, 1923 to date...	.52
Aver. precip. for 46 wet seasons, (Sept. to May, inclusive)...	31.48

Fair tonight and Tuesday.

WILLIAM BELL, Observer.

CRUSADE FOR INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY IS PROCLAIMED

(Continued from page one)

ordinate the activities of labor banks throughout the country. It pointed out that the twenty-three labor banks now in business or about to start are organized on different plans and that it would be impossible to bring them together in a unit. The central bank project is, therefore, "not only impractical, but undesirable," the council said.

Non-Partisan Campaign.

Pointing to the fact that "through the activities of the A. F. of L. Non-Partisan campaign committee twenty-three candidates for United States senator who had been loyal to labor and the people were elected, and eleven reactionary senators defeated, and the 170 house members were elected, either because the A. F. of L. supported them or opposed their rivals," the council advocated that the convention provide more funds for similar activities in the 1924 campaign so that "a most thorough campaign can be inaugurated and carried to a successful conclusion."

Kansas Industrial Court.

"Kansas once again is heading toward freedom" as the result of the supreme court's decision "dismembering" the industrial court, the council said. In view of the decision "the only purpose now being served by the remnants of ex-Governor Allen's law is to provide jobs for his political appointees on this court and to squander the money of the taxpayers of Kansas," Governor Davis was commended for his efforts to abrogate the law entirely.

Open Shop.

The so-called "American plan" or open shop was condemned as an effort to put workers into slavery, and the council declared that "the successful strikes of nearly 2,000,000 wage-earners in the United States are responsible for the prosperity this country is enjoying, since these strikes were adjusted by collective bargaining."

Ku Klux Klan.

The Klan was condemned on the ground that "it is destructive of that freedom and devotion to the principles of liberty which we regard as the first essentials in democratic civilization. We believe that no trade unionist can consistently participate in the activities of the Ku Klux Klan or any similar organization, and we unhesitatingly denounce its efforts to supplant ordered government, to promote religious intolerance, racial antagonisms and bigotry."

Fascist Movement.

The effort to organize fascist groups in the United States was denounced as "a token of hostility to our democratic institutions." Foreign-born workers were urged to "refrain from joining the fascist or any similar movement."

Railroads and the Courts.

An exhaustive review of the shopmen's strike and the Wilkerson injunction was made. The council declared the injunction "marked a new advance of the courts of equity in their usurpation of power to control industrial controversies," which may provide "a tyrannical precedent in other cases."

The Railroad Labor Board and the Esch-Cummings act were roundly condemned and their abrogation urged.

Minimum Wage Law.

Nullification of the District of Columbia minimum wage law for women, not alone for their own protection, but also for the protection of men wage earners, the council said.

Congress.

In a comprehensive review of the work of the Sixty-seventh Congress the council declared it "will find an unenviable place in history. Reaction and incompetence, backed apparently and by no other thought than personal and partisan political advantage, made it impotent to remedy any of the evils troubling the people of our country."

One of the greatest dangers to the country, the report said, is legislation by "lame ducks," or defeated members of congress.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

by MRS. ELLSBURY

(Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a girl 13 years old, am a freshman in high school. I was always popular in grade school and sought after, but in high school no one ever notices me. How can I attract the upper classmen's attention?

CUTIE—You can best attract attention by being just your own sweet self, and not worrying about upper class men or any others. By all means don't run after them. You will be an upper class member yourself in plenty of time, and then you will want to be popular with the boys in your own class, so content yourself with the Freshman boys now. Do not think too much about upper classmen, or any other boys my dear, and give more time to your studies.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a freshman in high school, and accompanied by my mother, always go to the Saturday night dances at the Armory. None of the popular high school boys ever ask me to dance, why is this? There are a few high school boys in the freshman class who ask me to dance, but none of the upper class boys come near me. I would like to dance with the popular boys but I cannot see why they never ask me. Please tell me how to get in their bunch, and be popular among them.

D.—There are no rules that I can give you that will insure your being popular. Just be natural and sweet, and have a good time with your own friends, and do not worry about the upper class boys. The answer to "Cutie" in the preceding question will apply to you also.

Returned Home Today

Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Miss Vera Mackay, returned this morning from Salem, where she attended to business for the past few days. Miss Mackay attended the "Cherrian" banquet, which was held at the Marion Hotel.

Roofing at Wharton Bros.

American fence at carload prices. Get our special price by the mile. Wharton Bros.

Why not belong to the News-Review's happy family of readers? Sign up and be the 4126th one to get tonight's paper.

Camels Induced to Smoke.

In Morocco, where the natives are training wild camels, they make them docile by inducing them to smoke tobacco—a cigar, loosely rolled, and placed in the end of a three-cornered piece of wood through which a hole has been drilled, says the Irish Tobacco Trade Journal. "As soon as the camel begins to draw he becomes docile and quickly grasps the art of inhaling the smoke and emitting it through his nostrils. One defect of the training is that Mr. Camel is apt ever after to insist on smoking at work."

Silenced.

A newly-married couple were entertaining their friends, and amongst the guests was one whose continued rudeness made him objectionable to the rest of the company. His conduct, although almost unbearable, was tolerated for some time, until at supper he held up on his fork a piece of white meat which had been served to him, and in a vein of extended humor remarked, "Is this pig?"

"To which end of the fork do you refer?" asked a quiet-looking man sitting at the other end of the table.

In comfort and health. If it fails to do this, it fails in that on which most depends our national health and welfare.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

by MRS. ELLSBURY

(Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a girl 13 years old, am a freshman in high school. I was always popular in grade school and sought after, but in high school no one ever notices me. How can I attract the upper classmen's attention?

CUTIE—You can best attract attention by being just your own sweet self, and not worrying about upper class men or any others. By all means don't run after them. You will be an upper class member yourself in plenty of time, and then you will want to be popular with the boys in your own class, so content yourself with the Freshman boys now. Do not think too much about upper classmen, or any other boys my dear, and give more time to your studies.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury:—I am a freshman in high school, and accompanied by my mother, always go to the Saturday night dances at the Armory. None of the popular high school boys ever ask me to dance, why is this? There are a few high school boys in the freshman class who ask me to dance, but none of the upper class boys come near me. I would like to dance with the popular boys but I cannot see why they never ask me. Please tell me how to get in their bunch, and be popular among them.

D.—There are no rules that I can give you that will insure your being popular. Just be natural and sweet, and have a good time with your own friends, and do not worry about the upper class boys. The answer to "Cutie" in the preceding question will apply to you also.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT.

U. S. Weather Bureau, local office, Roseburg, Oregon, 24 hours ending 5 a. m.

Precipitation in Ins. and Hundredths

Highest temperature yesterday...	83
Lowest temperature last night...	50
Precipitation last 24 hours...	0
Total precip. since first of month...	0
Normal precip. for this month...	2