AUTOIST DRIVES TO SAFETY, THEN DIES

Feels Heart Attack Coming, So Pilots Car to Curb to Avert Accident.

(International News Service.) CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Although the hands of Frank Alton lie stilled in death, it wasn't but a short time ago that these hands gave a demonstration of careful driving that Chicago motorists have classified as a remarkable feat.

Alton was driving north on South Michigan avenue early one morning and at a time when that thoroughfare was jammed with traffic, when death tipped him on the shoulder. He had had heart disease for several years and he realized what was happening.

Despite his falling strength, Alton managed to realize instinctively that if he lost control of his machine accidents probably would result.

The streets were slippery and rain was falling. Mastering his strength he guided the car to the curb and out of the danger zone. He was able to stop the engine and then toppled over the steering wheel, dead.

Alton's car had been halted in a non-parking zone and policemen who went to investigate found him dead.

BANDIT GUN WAS BOUGHT IN ALBANY

ALBANY, Oct. 31.—One of the guns used in murdering one or more of the victims of the Southern Pacific train robbery of October 11, in the Skitvay mountains was purchased early in 1922 at the Hauser Brothers' gun store, Albany. This fact was established today by railway officials who visited here.

According to Lloyd Hauser, now in charge of the store, the pistol, a .45 Colt automatic, was sold probably early in 1922 or late in 1921. Newly, as manager of the store, and prior to the advent of Pete Whitney, who was drowned last summer.

The store records show that the gun's purchaser gave the name of William Elliott, 596 Third street, Eugene, Oregon. Mr. Hauser, when he

DAYS OF DIZZINESS

There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, languor, back-ache; Sometime rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney ills. Endorsed in Roseburg by grateful friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor: P. Hite, 833 Short St., Roseburg, says: "My kidneys troubled me for a long time and I was almost down with my back. I could hardly get out of bed mornings and when I stooped, dizzy spells came over me and black spots floated before my eyes. My kidneys acted irregularly and I was in a bad fix when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, but they soon had me on my feet, and two boxes rid me of the aches and pains and made my back well and strong." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hite had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

WOULD CUT FRENCH OFF BILLS OF FARE

Chicago Restaurant Owners About to Rescind Those Who Talk English.

By ROLAND KREBS. (International News Service Staff Correspondent.) CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The man who, in an expensive restaurant, wants pork chops, orders what the menu calls "Pieds de Cochon St. Genevieve" and gets "pigs' feet," is about to be reached.

The American Caterers' Association has before it the recommendation of Carl G. Roessler, owner of Chicago's Atlantic hotel, that French be removed from dining room bills of fare. He is an old-time cook.

Mr. Roessler's proposal was endorsed by Representative Fred A. Britten, from Illinois, founder of the organization.

"The French used on the bills of fare is nothing more than 'kitchen French' anyway," Roessler said. "A cook merely uses French phrases because, if he did not, his colleagues would belittle his culinary ability. The primary use of French phrases for dishes is to 'put on'."

"It is to save embarrassment for guests and waiters alike that dishes should be in plain English. A guest asks a waiter what a certain dish is. The waiter doesn't know. Only the chef knows, because he puts it down in kitchen French."

"Why puzzle a diner with 'oeufs a la Rochambeau' for common poached eggs with white cream gravy? Who knows that poitrine de poulet a la Yucellus means breast of chicken with truffle gravy? Isn't it silly to call ham and eggs 'oeufs au jambon'?" The answer is "Yes."

WEDDED PAIR KEPT SILENT SIX YEARS

Words Finally Exchanged in Desertion Proceedings, but Husband Loses.

(International News Service.) LONDON, Oct. 31.—A silence between a married couple of nearly six years was broken when they spoke to each other during desertion proceedings at Marylebone police court here.

The husband was summoned for desertion, and his wife, in her testimony, declared that though they had occupied the same living rooms her husband doggedly maintained silence after a "tiff" they had had nearly six years ago. "If he wanted anything he would write on a piece of paper for it. We have sat in the parlor for two and three hours at a stretch, and two and three hours at a stretch, and declared."

The offending husband tried to cross-examine his wife, but as her answers were confined to "Yes" and "No" the magistrate gave up in despair and ordered the husband to contribute $2 weekly to his wife's maintenance.

BODY IS FOUND WASHED ON BEACH

MARSHFIELD, Oct. 31.—A body which washed ashore at the mouth of Ten Mile creek yesterday was brought in today by Coroner F. E. Wilson and identified by means of a ring as Elmer Carlson, one of the victims of the Hope wreck two weeks ago.

The ring set with an oval moss-agate setting was almost the only means of identification but it was distinctive enough for three friends of the dead man to swear that it was his.

Otto Edlund, Nels Adanson and Fritz Magnusson were the three witnesses to his identity. The body was almost too far gone for recognition. All the flesh was gone from the head.

The body was discovered by the Ingersoll brothers who were fishing at the mouth of the creek. They took care of it and brought it up to the train. They plan to patrol the beach there on horseback at low tide for a few days in hope of finding bodies of the others.

Peter Herpel of Reedsport, brother-in-law of Charles D. Schnell, one of the other victims, came in today to see if the body might be that of Schnell. Men were patrolling beaches near the Umpqua, he said. Captain Jensen of the coast guard also plans to send out a patrol tomorrow.

The funeral of Elmer Carlson will probably be held tomorrow afternoon from the Wilson Undertaking parlors.

How's Your Stomach? Any Distress?

Salem, Ore.—"I wish I could tell how thankful I feel for having heard of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, for they have brought me so much relief since I have been using them. For years I have had the worst kind of stomach trouble; after eating I would have a feeling of nausea, a sourness, and a sort of suffocation with heartburn. Things were very miserable for me. I had to eat to keep alive and yet I knew every time I ate this awful condition would return. I have tried all kinds of things that I thought would help and often have gone without food in the hope that things would be better. I am now feeling the greatest freedom from pain in my stomach and bowels that I have felt in years and I give the Pleasant Pellets credit for it."—Mrs. I. E. will be issued by Charles L. McNary, Oregon's senior United States senator on the eve of his departure for Washington, D. C. This statement will be prepared the latter part of this week, when the senator has a few hours to spare at Salem, and will be released for publication, if plans are not changed next Tuesday morning—the day of the special election on the state income tax.

Senator McNary arrived in Portland yesterday for a conference with people from Burns, Ore., regarding the Silvers river irrigation project. At noon he will speak at a club luncheon and this afternoon he returns to Salem.

"Although I have not yet started to dictate my statement," said the senator last night, "I have turned the matter over in my mind and know what I intend saying."

JUDGING CONTEST TO BE INTERESTING

According to W. S. Carpenter, county club agent, there will not be a slow minute for the stock judging teams that will enter the contests at Pacific International Livestock show in Portland the coming week.

Arrangements have been made whereby a judging team from this county consisting of Herbert Pinkney, Joe Allia and Oliver Reicheart, members of the Days Creek Pig club will make the trip to Portland.

A large showing of livestock will be made by club members, there being a total of over 450 animals, including 300 head of hogs, 70 head of beef cattle, 30 head of dairy cattle, 35 or 40 head of sheep and a few head each of Angora goats and colts. About 100 head altogether, coming from Washington and Idaho, and the remainder coming from Oregon. There will be at least 25 judging teams, 19 of them from Oregon.

The boys who have been selected to make this trip are looking forward to a good time from the start until they return, and those who will have charge of this part of the show are putting forth every effort for their entertainment.

RIDDLE TO HOLD ZONE MEETING

The last zone meeting of the first series of conferences which are being held over the county, is to be held at Riddle on Saturday of this week. According to County Superintendent O. C. Brown these meetings are a real success and are getting the teachers together for many good ideas on school work. It is found that by assembling and discussing the various questions which confront the school teacher many problems are solved which otherwise would cause considerable trouble to the individual schools.

The meeting Saturday is to include a representation from the Glendale, Riddle, Canyonville, Days Creek and Tiller districts and a program for the entire day has been worked out. The grade and high school teachers will be placed in different divisions, as the problems confronting them are different. H. C. Seymour of the Oregon Agricultural College will be one of the speakers and it is expected that the attendance will be one hundred per cent.

FREE CHOW WILL BE SERVED TO VETS

The Knights of Pythias hall has been secured by the Armistice Day celebration committee for the scene of the big free chow at noon for World War vets. The hall will be arranged with tables and chairs capable of seating several hundred ex-service men and when "soupie" is sounded at high noon it is expected that slummers from all sections of Douglas county will be in line with a shining mess-knife.

Ed Post, chairman of the chow committee, has arranged a menu surpassing the finest spread ever featured out in the army days and this feature of the day's program should attract

Drink Water to Help Wash Out Kidney Poison

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active. Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithin, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate changed kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithin-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and back-ache. No all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

"JIGGS BILL" IS BOON TO HUBBY BEATEN BY WIFE

(International News Service.) BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 31.—The "Jiggs bill," recently passed by the Alabama legislature, and which provides that a man can obtain a divorce on the grounds of cruelty if his life is threatened by his wife, now is undergoing its first test. The "tester" happens to be a negro, Green Rutledge, who has filed suit for divorce against his wife, Annie Rutledge.

Green charges he has been the victim of dishpans, dishes, well-aimed rolling pins and even axes. "She's been pickin' on me for five years because I couldn't give her all the luxuries of life," Green said, "and when she gets mad de nearest weapon is de handiest."

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

by MRS. ELLSBURY (Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: I have been told that the correct thing to say when being introduced was "I am very glad to know you." What if the other person says it first, then what do you say? VINNIA: Merely say, "Thank you," or "How do you do."

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: I am deeply in love with one of the boys in our set who doesn't seem to pay any more attention to me than he does to any of the rest of the girls. He goes with them all, including me now and then, but doesn't think of any of them seriously. How can I best attract his interest and attention. He seems to like the girls in the crowd who are the liveliest and are little and have bobbed hair. I am tall and my hair is long, but I have a good time and am not too quiet. Is there any hope for me? WORRIED.

WORRIED: Don't ever try to imitate the girls you think he likes. At best you would be a poor imitation, when as yourself you have originality and individuality. Be yourself. Be as charming and sweet and attractive as you can be, dress to suit your type, not like the small bobbed haired girls do, and if it is meant to be, he will be attracted to you.
