Minstrel Reserved Seat Tickets Will Be On Sale at Antlers Wednesday.

EXPECT BIG CROWDS

Two Nights of Show, December 17 and 18, Will Probably Not Be Enough to Care For Crowds.

Get your dollar ready, folks—the eat sale for the big Elks Purple and White Minstrels opens Wednesday nd by the night of the show, Decem-er 15th, Streetler ber 17th, "standing room only" will be at a premium. The reserved seats will be on sale at the Antiers box of-fice for both nights performances and it is advised that out-of-town folks who are desirons of securing good-seats, should send in their money to the Antiers and have their seats rethe Antiers and have their seats reserved, specifying which night they wish to attend.

The animal Christmas Charity show of the Elks is the big event of the year and last year's Ministrels was such a fine auccess that it was decided to stage another this year.

Bigger and better than ever is the verdict of those who have watched the rehearants for the show. The entire cast and orchestra of ten pieces, tolaling over fifty people, practiced long and bard yesterday afternoon but the results were marvelous. The best singses in the valloy, the funniest comedians obtainable and the prettiest girls in Roseburg will participate, which insure two hours of real happy entertainment.

The lower floor and balcony are reserved and will sell for $1. The sub-

The lower floor and balcony are re-served and will sell for $1. The gal-lery will not be reserved but will be thrown open on the right of the show thrown ones on the night of the show for 50 cents a seet, on the "first come, first served" style.

A new singer and end-man is being introduced to the Roseburg public for this show. It is Den Sibley, a processional singer, who is featuring the com-about blue rong, "OH, Mana." Sibley will also sing "Midnight Rose" in the "Night in Gay Parce" afterpart. He has a rich voice and in a great addition to the minstrel east. Mike Devancy, nother end-man, who "knocked 'em dead" hast year with the song hit, "Strawberries" is varbling "He May He Your Good Man Friday but He's Mine on Saturday Night." This number is a late one and has a swing that will make you pail son, Arizona, where they will spend the winter. ing "Banana, the Girl with the Yellow Skin." This comedy oriental number is destined to be whiatled in Rose-burg for some weeks to come as Okey puts the punch in it that makes it a real hit. "Kinky" Baney, another end-man, puts real technique into his handling of the tambourine and "Hod" Roadman, the other fun-maker for the show shakes a pair of wicked bones. Hod is featuring that late song success, "No. No. Nora" and he certainly understands his stuff. Woody Stephenson, who is right at Woody Stephenson, who is right at home amidst the burnt cork, is "Runnin' Wild" for that's the name of his song number. A real down-south, and Woody sings it like a reg-sured you're going to get more'n a dollar's worth.

Miss Chara Patrick arrived in this city Saturday evening from Willamina and will spend several days visiting with Miss Agnes Pitchford.
