TAX REDUCTION

A nationally known firm of certified public accountants, analyzing Secretary Mellon's tax reduction plan, finds that the man of small means who earns $2,000 to $6,000 a year would have his taxes cut 41.61 per cent; the man with $6,000 to $10,000 a year would save 23.37 per cent, the man with $10,000 to $50,000 would save 11.61 per cent and the man over $50,000 would have an average saving of 2.59 per cent. In the case of the man with an income of $1,000,000 or more, the saving would be reduced to less than one-fourth of 1 per cent. This is the direct saving on personal incomes. Roger Babson estimates that the indirect saving, from reduced cost of living, would average 2 per cent of the taxpayer's income. The firm of accountants above referred to, combining its figures with Mr. Babson's, concludes that the direct and indirect saving for over 75 per cent of all taxpayers, those with incomes not over $3,000, would amount to about $100 a year apiece. If these figures are accurate, and they probably are, there seems good reason for considering the tax plan a very democratic proposal, made far more in the interest of the poor than the rich.

Less than two weeks until Christmas. We're almost over the buying early period but you still have plenty of time to remember your friends and family.

Roseburg stores are brimful of fine offerings for the holiday trade.

DUMBELL DORA THINKS

The Mann Act is a male quartette.

On a farm in South Georgia is posted this sign:

"Trespasser will be persecuted to the full extent of 2 mean mongrel dogs which ain't next been ovari-ly tossed with strangers and I dubbel bareit shotgun which ain't loaded with no soft pillers. Dam, if I ain't tired of this hot raisin' on my property."

Every effort is being made to pull the old cluster light posts out of the cement before Xmas.

A daniel congratulated ye ed. on a squib which appeared in this great colyum of moral uplift yestiddy and ye nearly passed, these being the kindest words that have reached our ears since the first issue of this department.

Owin' to the fact that Dumbell Dora is runnin' out of thoughts, the conductor of his colyum hereby appeals to the great common masses for more ideas. We're frank to admit that our supply of Dora thinks is about exhausted. That's why we're askin' you to throw out the life-line and save poor little Dora from bein' relegated to the garbage can.

Prepare yourselves for a shock. The weather is moderating and if it keeps on like this we'll all be able to take our regular bath Saturday night.

Boy: "I suppose you dance?"
Girl: "Yes, I love to."
Boy: "Well, then let's love."

Rhoda: "I asked Kitty what she was going to wear at the dance."
Rosalie: "What did she say?"
Rhoda: "Oh, nothing much."

The Elluks Minstrels have made arrangements with local grocery stores to curtail the sale of vegetables and hen fruit on next Monday and Tuesday.

The chamber of commerce banqueted last night, many of the older fellows havin' a heckuva time kiddin' the waitresses.
