SCHOOL AT KLAMATH FALLS IS UNSAFE

KLAMATH FALLS, Dec. 20.—That the Klamath county high school is unsafe for use was the content of a report on the building by Fire Chief Keith Ambrose at the council meeting last night. Ambrose's report stated that the floors are saturated with oil, that the fire escape system is inadequate, that wood over the furnace door is unprotected, that boiler for steam heat has not been tested since 1916, that many cord circuits for electricity exist, and that the furnace is leaking oil. In the discussion following the report it was brought out that the building swayed in the wind.

To County Court.
The report of the fire chief will be turned over to the county court with recommendations to alleviate the condition said to exist.

ALUMNI IN TRIM

The alumni team which is to play the high school first team tonight in the annual basketball game between the stars of former years and the team representing the school is all lined up and the boys have practiced together a number of times already. Whipple and Fields, well-known stars of the '21 class are in the best of trim, having been practicing since Armistice at college. The other players are also showing some real speed and get together for team work the other night. A good, fast game is expected the fans who have seen the stars in the games a couple of years ago and who are watching the present team. The game opens at 7:50.
