case involving the title to lands. During his absence considerable work has accumulated and Mr. Canaday is being kept very busy at his new duties. The new register is an attorney at law and has taken an active part in the professional and civic life in Medford, and is one of the best known men of that city. His wife is expected to arrive here in a few days, and they will take apartments temporarily, as he has found it impossible to secure a suitable home at the present time. Later they expect to move their household goods to Roseburg. Mr. and Mrs. Canon are planning on returning to Medford as soon as he can settle up his affairs here. They own a very fine ranch near Medford and expect to improve that property, although they will make their home in Medford where they expect to construct a new residence soon.

ROSEBURG LOSES TO EUGENE H. S.

Most Thrilling Game Ever Witnessed Ends in a Score of 32-27.

TIED THREE TIMES

Nerve-Wracking Contest Witnessed by Crowd of Rooters Visitors Shot Baskets From Center of Floor.

With the basketball fans throwing their derbies skyward one moment and slumped down in their seats the next, the Roseburg high school and Eugene high school basketball teams last night played one of the most thrilling contests ever witnessed in this city and although the score of 32 to 27 spelled defeat for the locals, it cannot be said that the visitors sacked the game without first having earned it.

At the end of the game the score stood 18 to 18. The referee called for five more minutes of playing and at the end of the five minutes the score stood 19 to 19, each side being successful in converting a foul during the time. The referee again signalled for another five minutes of playing and the teams tore in again. Roseburg converted a foul, as did Eugene, the score standing 20 to 20. The locals then staged a rally and shot a basket. With five seconds left to play and the game practically tied up for the Orange and Black, a Eugene forward wriggled loose from his guards, raced to the center of the floor and threw a "ringer." The time whistle shrieked and the score was again tied, 22 to 22. By this time the fans were almost as exhausted as the players. Referee Coosman whistled for another five minutes, but the look on his face showed that he also was feeling the effects of the strenuous contest. Determined to run up the score and carry away a victory, the Roseburg boys staged a real rally. Bill Burr shot a foul and followed it shortly with a field basket and Irwin also dropped one in.

But the rally was not one-sided. Taking the hint that it took two baskets to win the game, the Eugene forwards started dropping them in from the center of the ball. They shot five baskets in almost as many seconds. It was disheartening and the stands were in the depths of despair when the final whistle was sounded and the visitors adjudged the victors. Bill Burr, Roseburg's star forward, had no horseshoe hanging around his neck last night. He made six straight misses for the basket before he succeeded in locating the hoop. Time after time he threw for the goal but the ball twitched a moment on the edge of the hoop and fell back amidst the groans of the rooters. Phil Singleton, although guarded closely, played a good game. Rusty Irwin as center could have been better last night but in spite of the tough luck was on his toes all of the time. Perrin and Jost, guards held their men down fine during the first part of the game, but when the boys from Eugene started outpacing them from center, their efforts at guarding were of no avail. The visitors deserved the victory last night. They played a beautiful game on the local floor and had just as much bad luck as the locals. The high school gymnasium was packed to capacity and many were unable to obtain admittance. The rooster section of the school was a peppy one and the many new yells and songs enlivened the evening.

The preliminary game played by the third string Roseburg players and the Sutherland team ended in an overwhelming victory for Roseburg. The defeat of the Roseburg boys in this first game does not affect their conference standing. The state is divided into districts and Roseburg is in the Southern Oregon district while Eugene is in the Willamette Valley division. If Roseburg defeats all other teams in the Southern Oregon district it will have the right to represent the section at the state conference regardless of the defeat administered by the Eugene team.

FORMER ROSEBURG WOMAN DIES

Word was received here this morning of the sudden death at Fenn, Idaho, of Mrs. H. D. Chicane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Thompson, of this city. Relatives had been apprised of her illness only yesterday morning, and the news of her death came as a great shock. Mrs. Chicane left Roseburg about 15 years ago, but has visited here on a number of occasions, and has many old friends here. She was born August 3, 1876,

ISLAND TROOPS KILL FANATICS

Eighty Members of Religious Society Killed When They Murdered Nineteen.

FIGHTING WAS FURIOUS

Fanatics Attacked Constabulary Troops Who Returned Fire and Brought Down Large Number.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
MANILA, Jan. 12.—Eighty members of the Colorem, a religious society, were killed at Bucas Island last week in a clash in which a number of constabulary soldiers were slain, official advices from Surigao disclosed today.

The advices also disclosed that while 19 constabulary soldiers in all were killed, the original report that 13, including two officers, had lost their lives in this particular clash was correct, the six others having been slain in another encounter the preceding day.

Surigao, the post of the Philippine constabulary nearest the scene of the clash, was the headquarters of the constabulary, of whose patrol only four escaped after the second encounter. It is on the coast of Mindanao. The patrol went to Bucas Island, only a few miles distant, in a constabulary launch. No report of the first encounter has been received here beyond the bare fact that it occurred and that six constabulary were killed, but a full account of the second arrived today.

The launch, the advices said, ran close to the shore of the island and dropped anchor, where about 500 of the colorem members were hiding in the bushes. The men, at the orders of Captain Valentin S. Juan and Lieutenant Juan Villero, fired a volley at the houses ashore, assuming that some of the colorems were hiding in them. Nobody appeared.

Soon, however, one colorem appeared from a coconut grove. He carried a rifle, which he aimed at the constabulary. They fired at him but missed. The constabulary then landed, dividing into two parties commanded respectively by the two officers.

Advancing by squads toward the houses, the constabulary threatened the colorems with shots fired into the air, meanwhile shouting to them to surrender. After the third shot, one colorem sprang into view crying: "Your guns are no good! You are our certain victims! Come out, comrades!"

The constabulary shot and killed this man. Five others who appeared also were shot down instantly. Then a large number, estimated at several hundred colorems, rushed out of the bushes and attacked the constabulary with firearms and bolos. The soldiers were overwhelmed and, after 13 of them had been killed, the remainder escaped to the launch and headed for Surigao.

FRISCH TO BE GIANT CAPTAIN

Highest Paid Ball Player Succeeds Bancroft Who Goes to Braves.

IS WONDERFUL PLAYER

McGraw Says He Would Not Trade Frisch for Hornsby and 1923 Record Shows He Is Consistent.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Frank Frisch boasts the highest salary ever paid to a ball player of the Giants. Not only that but manager McGraw had told him that he is to be the Giant's captain this year to succeed Dave Bancroft, who went to the Boston Braves.

Frisch, often called the "Fordham Flash" hopped across the Harlem river in one leap from the Fordham college ball field right into stardom in the historic Polo Grounds, and when McGraw signed Frisch to a $15,000 contract yesterday, he pronounced him the greatest star in baseball.

Frisch receives more money than did Christy Mathewson when that pitcher was the shining star of the New York club. In the off season Frisch adds to the family exchequer by watching the linen market in his father's business.

Frank Frisch, brilliant second baseman of the New York Giants has ranked as one of the outstanding performers of present day baseball in all around play. Though some students may not rate the "Fordham Flash" as quite the equal of Babe Ruth or Rogers Hornsby, there is little doubt that these three top the modern list, replacing the old triumvirate of Eddie Collins, Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb.

John McGraw, manager of the Giants, rates Frisch the greatest player of the day. He asserted he would not exchange his infield star for Hornsby "even up."

A comparison of the rivals for all around honors show that Hornsby is a better hitter than Frisch, but cannot equal him in second base play, or in speed and cunning on the paths. Frisch, too, is just as good at third as he is at the keystone bag. Ruth is more formidable on offense than either of the two National Leaguers but is not as valuable as either in defense. He does not compare with Frisch as a base runner, although he is better on the paths than Hornsby.

Frisch's temperament, keen intelligence, and the fact that he always takes good care of himself are important factors in his favor. His 1923 world's series play was the most spectacular individual work of that colorful event.

Close inspection of Frisch's record last season strengthens his claims to greatness. He made more base hits than any other man in his league, and only his team mate, Young, led him in runs scored. He made 22 triples, ten doubles and twelve home runs. He is a consistent batter and an uncanny bunter.

Frisch, on his record so far, has demonstrated his right to make a quartet of that famous trio of second sackers—Eddie Collins, Nap Lajoie and Johnny Evers.

Frisch counts Ruether and Vaneo, Brooklyn flingers, as the deadliest pitchers he has faced. "Frank will be a rich man some day," said McGraw, "for he invests his money well and has good business sense."
