J. H. BECKLEY DIES

Former Resident of Elkton Com-munity Dies of Heart Failure at Klamath Falls Saturday. $ 5,480.00

J. H. Beckley, one of the leading $ 3,600.00 cattlemen of Southern Oregon, and a former resident of Elkton, died very suddenly late Saturday afternoon, while driving his automobile near his home at Klamath Falls. Mr. Beck-ley has been suffering from heart $ 1,734.66 trouble for several years, and on Saturday while out driving, came across a car off the road and in trouble. He stopped to give assistance and over-exerted himself. He got back into his own machine and started up a steep grade, when he suddenly collapsed over the steering wheel, the car going $ 2,589.50 over the bank and crashing into a tree. His wife and her mother, who were walking near the car while it was going by the steep grade, saw the accident but by the time they reached the car he was dead.

He was 49 years of age, a native of Douglas county. His father was Henry Beckley, one of the early pioneers of Douglas county and a former state senator. He was married in 1906 to Christine Barth, of Port-

George Chamberlain, but did not like the law so moved to Klamath county and went into the cattle business, working a 900 acre ranch. He was one of the most influential cattlemen interest from banks of southern Oregon, and was sent to Washington at one time to represent the industry in this state in an in-vestigation being made by a congres-sional committee.

He is survived by seven brothers Beach: Charles L. of Dixonville; P. Auto License
W. of Roseburg: Clyde and Orville of Elkton; and J. Will, of Yoncalla. Also two sisters, Mrs. O. Mattoon of Portland; and Mrs. Maggie Pinkston, now at Long Beach, Calif.
