KIWANIANS MEET.
With Vice-President Fullerton presiding the Roseburg Kiwanis Club held a fine noonday session today. A message of congratulations was dispatched to Hon. O. P. Coshaw, former president of the club, who yesterday took oath of office as justice of the state supreme court. Tom Ness and Bert Bates gave short talks at today's meeting and B. W. Cooney, county agent discussed the problems of the farmer. Mr. Cooney's talk was one of the best heard at the local club and his plea for unity and cooperation between the rural and city sections was received by the Kiwanians with a great deal of interest. The Kiwanis quartette entertained the meeting with a fine number and the program committee was commended for the fine brand of entertainment which they have been "dishing out."

Mrs. Miller Returns.
Mrs. S. N. Miller who has been spending the past ten days in Ashland visiting with her mother, Mrs. Mary Stennett, returned to her home in this city this afternoon.

Visiting Brother.
J. A. McAllister and wife, of Lincoln, Nebraska, arrived here last night, and will spend a few days visiting with Mr. McAllister's brother, C. W. McAllister. They have been on a tour of the south, through Texas and California, and are now on the way to their home in Nebraska.

VICTIM OF FOUL PLAY
BEND, Ore., Jan. 15.—Frank Mowar, formerly of Bend, is in a hospital here today suffering from lacerations of the throat and infection, and his condition was reported serious. He was found yesterday in Metolius, and weak and unable to talk, and was brought here. A gash several inches wide across his throat was said by physicians to have been inflicted several days ago. It is not known whether he was the victim of foul play.

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED
(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Selection of a committee of five to take charge of the Coolidge campaign in California was announced here today by William M. Butler, Mr. Coolidge's manager.

"SPOTTERS" RAPPED BY PORTLAND JUDGE

PORTLAND, Jan. 15.—A bitter denunciation of the system of "agents provocateurs," by which police inform and seek to entrap working girls by immoral proposals in order to prosecute them as immoral characters was delivered by Municipal Judge Ekwall yesterday in dismissing cases brought against Henry Olson, for hire-car driver, and Grace Tully and Lucille Gower.
