PENDLETON BOY WINS A DECISION

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
PENDLETON, Jan. 15.—Harry Harris of Pendleton won a technical decision over Bud Stengle of Portland in a card staged here last night when the referee stopped the fight in the fourth round to save Stengle from further punishment. In the third Stengle hit Harris low and the referee refused to award the fight to Harris charging that the foul had been framed. The fighters were forced to continue and Harris had it easy thereafter with the poorly conditioned Stengle. Kid Noreen of Pendleton secured a decision over Kid Sharp of La Grande in the semi-windup.

C'mon, you big shay-shakers. At the Barn Dance at Sutherland, Fri. nite, Jan. 18.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

VENIZELLOS NOT TO RECALL KING

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
ATHENS, Jan. 15.—Premier Venizelos today told foreign newspaper correspondents that he did not intend to recall King George before the plebiscite which is to determine the future government of Greece.

"I strongly disapprove the sending away of the King, which I regard as a slap in the face of the Greek people," he asserted. "I am not a dictator or a revolutionist; I am a conciliator."

"I have decided on a plebiscite as the best method for giving the people an opportunity to decide between a monarchy or a republic. The plebiscite will be under my personal direction, for nobody else could carry out a referendum today in the present state of affairs."

One of the conditions under which he agreed to return to Greece, Premier Venizelos said, was that the officer's league, which caused the banishment of the King, be dissolved.

"I am delaying the plebiscite two or three months," he continued, "for the purpose of making certain that the league is disbanded and that its members return to their military duties."

It is his wish that after the referendum the national assembly shall dissolve and the country hold new elections in which the royalist opposition, unrepresented in the present government, may participate.

Venizelos has telegraphed Ismet Pasha, Turkish premier, assuring him that he will always be happy to cooperate in the faithful execution of the Lausanne Treaty re-establishing neighborly relations between the two countries and strengthening peace. Ismet's reply reciprocated M. Venizelos' sentiments.
