BLAZE CAUSES GUESTS TO FLEE (Associated Press Leased Wire.) PORTLAND, Jan. 21.—Fifty occupants of rooms at the Sargent Hotel, 271 1/2 Grand Avenue, on the east side, were forced to flee, scantily clad, from a fire which swept the building early today. The fire caused damage estimated at $10,000. Police charged the fire originated in the room of Adolph Antonson, a teamster, who had been picked up earlier in the morning by a patrolman who knew him and put to bed in his room. The policeman took a cigarette from Antonson, but according to the officers the man lit another one, and the fire was declared to have been caused by this cigarette. Antonson was later placed under arrest on a charge of drunkenness.
