

DOSE PIGS ARE YOU FATTENING?

A farmer owned some pigs, and his neighbor just across the road owned some pigs. About half the time when he came down the road with a basket of corn he fed his neighbor's pigs instead of his own.

"They have to live," said he, "and my neighbor doesn't raise any. Maybe I'll get a day's work hauling them to town when they are fat. Anyway, I like the way they grunt, they always act like they are glad to see me. And then my pigs are co-operative pigs, and they expect them to live without corn. I'm kinda sore at them. The man who sold them to me said they would root me up a fine meal all by themselves. They have turned up some pretty fair pigs, but they don't root where I think they ought to. Anyway, as before, I like the way these other pigs grunt and I think they are faster than these co-operative pigs."

DON'T FATTEN YOUR NEIGHBOR'S PIGS!

Where more trade means lower prices to you, not bigger to someone else.

A shipment of doubletree, leadbars, singletrees and handles. First class stuff at a decent price.

"Let's Make it a Million."

ARM BUREAU COOPERATIVE EXCHANGE

ROSEBURG AND OAKLAND

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Republican voters of Douglas county, Oregon: I hereby announce my candidacy for Republican nomination for County Assessor of Douglas County, Oregon, subject to the wishes of Republican voters at the primary election in May. Respectfully, W. G. Rochester. (Pd. Adv.)

INTERESTING MEETING AT SALVATION ARMY HALL

A very interesting meeting was conducted at the Salvation Army hall last night by the visiting officers from the Eugene corps, Adjutant and Mrs. Jesse Roe, who came to assist in the revival meetings now in progress at the army barracks.

Quite a large crowd greeted the visitors upon their arrival at the meeting, and enjoyed every minute of the time, according to Ensign Stack, who had extended the invitation to the Eugene officers to come over. In the course of his talk the adjutant made reference to the time he was stationed in Salem and was private chaplain to Neil Hart, condemned murderer, who gave to the adjutant as his last message to the young men, "Do not trifle with sin, for it will wreck your lives as it has done mine."

Mrs. Roe captured the hearts of the audience with her sweet singing, accompanying herself on the guitar.

SAVE ON SHOES—Do you shoes sizes up to 5½ now $1.95, at the ROSEBURG BOOTERIE.

Leave For Nevada—Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hebard left last evening for Reno, Nevada, where they will spend the next two weeks visiting with Mrs. Hebard's sister, Mrs. R. L. Robinson. Mrs. Robinson was formerly a resident of this city.

Frank Croucher of Olalia was in town yesterday for a few hours looking after business interests.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 25 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, V. M. Johnson, 161 North Union Ave., Portland, Ore., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

Returns From Portland—William Dolan who spent the past few days in Portland attending to business and visiting with friends returned to his home in this city this morning.

JOHN E. FLURRY

Insurance Agency

Rooms 1 and 2
Roseburg Bank Bldg.
Phone 183 Roseburg, Ore.

CLEANING SERVICE

Seasons change. That you discarded can be made to look almost new and give you splendid service. Our service please you.

Imperial

TRY OUR WAY
Our Auto Will Call

The Revelations of a Paid Companion

By JANE PHELPS

Author of "My Husband and I," "A Wife's Story," etc.

A DELIGHTFUL JOURNEY WITH A HAPPY ENDING

Chapter X.

At the station all was bustle and confusion. But Barton Ellwood quietly and efficiently soon had us located in our compartment. He helped the porter arrange our luggage, gave orders that were instantly obeyed, and drew praise from his aunt.

"You are certainly a help when one travels, Barton," she said as he finished.

"I am glad to be of service, even if only occasionally," he replied laughing, then disappeared only to return in a moment with a basket of fruit, and half a dozen magazines.

"Aunt never reads on the train, and I don't know your taste in literature, Miss Hall," he remarked to me, "but perhaps you can find something there to interest you."

"I am sure I shall, in every one of them, and thank you." It was the first time I had spoken naturally to him, without embarrassment.

The train was moving, and with a quick "au revoir," Aunt Kate, a "good-bye and good luck, Miss Hall," to me, he hurried from the compartment.

"Barton's a dear—at times," his aunt said cryptically. I made no reply, and she settled back in her seat, while I, following her example, took off my hat and made myself comfortable.

I made no remark regarding the compartment although, as may be imagined, it was all new and strange to me. I had occupied an upper berth on my trip to California nearly three years before, had felt cramped and miserable in my strange surroundings. But it was not part of my plan to show ignorance—unless it were necessary.

My thoughts went back to that other journey, to my father and mother, to the little town with its unpaved streets, its small, inconvenient houses, the love I had known in my girlhood. Right there I decided to forget what had happened in Los Angeles, to make vacant the interim when I left home and met Mrs. Ellwood. I would forget Aunt Agatha, all I had suffered.

ed, her broken promise, Jim Reed, all I should be as if they, and all the years I had spent in Los Angeles had never been. I would remember only my happy, young girlhood, my home with father and mother.

The trip was one long drawn out happiness to me. Mrs. Ellwood was considerate, demanded little service, I read, or sat in the observation car watching the scenery as we flew past cities, towns, and villages, or in the open country where all was so new and interesting to me. I listened to the comments of the travelers, learning how to express myself, to act as one accustomed to travel.

But with all these distractions not for scarcely a moment during the journey did one thought leave me: would Mrs. Ellwood keep me?

I longed, as we drew near our journey's end, to ask her, but lacked the courage. On our last day—we were to arrive in the late afternoon, she said:

"I have found you very dear, very careful, Rita. Would you like to try out living with me a while? I have said little about myself, but the doctor says I shall become more of an invalid as time passes. My eyes are gradually failing, and I shall need young eyes to take their place." She spoke cheerfully as was her habit, yet there seemed a new sadness in her face.

"I should try very hard to please you," I replied, my heart pounding with joy.

"I know—yes, I believe you would. You will like my gay Mollie; she is a bit thoughtless at times, but oh, so lovable!"

"I am sure I shall. She belongs to you."

Mrs. Ellwood laughed happily.

"That's very flattering to me, Rita," she said, then leaned back in her seat, closing her eyes.

I wished she had said something about her son, Guy, and her husband, that I knew more about the family I was to enter; but nothing could dampen my joy. I was to live with them, have a home at last.

Tomorrow: I Am Kindly Received by the Family.

is the only nation not recognizing England, and suggesting the advisability of altering the present status.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—A federal counter attack against Morelia, capital of Michoacan, will be started before Monday, according to reports from Ira Pua to quoting information received from military headquarters at the Jalisco front.

It is reported from Olaya that Oregon has left there for the purpose of escorting Sonora Obregon part of the way northward to Hermosillo, where her father, General Tapia, is reported ill.

New Taxi Service—Ashley Tabor has purchased a third interest in Taxi Stand Phone 55, located at the Grand Hotel Barber Shop and wishes to announce that he is now operating closed car in conjunction with the above taxi stand. Country trips a specialty.

The final practice of the American Legion drum corps before leaving with the caravan tonight, was held at the army last night and the boys are all ready for their premier appearance. The drums were subjected to some mighty severe punishment last night and the boys allowed no Julia to mark the rehearsal.

The caravan leaves from the army promptly at six o'clock and a large number have signified their intention of going. The trip to Cottage Grove will occupy two hours. Traffic Officer Thumber will head the troupe.

The Cottage Grove show and dance "Days of '49" promises to be a lively affair and the Roseburg gang will do their bit to inject some real pep.

One double tree and single tree wood at Wharton Bros.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—via For Worth Star-Telegram—John Brown, secretary of the International federation of Trade Unions of Amsterdam, announced last night he had called the new British Labor ministry in connection with British recognition of the Soviet government, declaring that Great Britain is the only nation which has not recognized Mexico, while Mexico

ed, her broken promise, Jim Reed, all I should be as if they, and all the years I had spent in Los Angeles had never been. I would remember only my happy, young girlhood, my home with father and mother.

The trip was one long drawn out happiness to me. Mrs. Ellwood was considerate, demanded little service, I read, or sat in the observation car watching the scenery as we flew past cities, towns, and villages, or in the open country where all was so new and interesting to me. I listened to the comments of the travelers, learning how to express myself, to act as one accustomed to travel.

But with all these distractions not for scarcely a moment during the journey did one thought leave me: would Mrs. Ellwood keep me?

I longed, as we drew near our journey's end, to ask her, but lacked the courage. On our last day—we were to arrive in the late afternoon, she said:

"I have found you very dear, very careful, Rita. Would you like to try out living with me a while? I have said little about myself, but the doctor says I shall become more of an invalid as time passes. My eyes are gradually failing, and I shall need young eyes to take their place." She spoke cheerfully as was her habit, yet there seemed a new sadness in her face.

"I should try very hard to please you," I replied, my heart pounding with joy.

"I know—yes, I believe you would. You will like my gay Mollie; she is a bit thoughtless at times, but oh, so lovable!"

"I am sure I shall. She belongs to you."

Mrs. Ellwood laughed happily.

"That's very flattering to me, Rita," she said, then leaned back in her seat, closing her eyes.

I wished she had said something about her son, Guy, and her husband, that I knew more about the family I was to enter; but nothing could dampen my joy. I was to live with them, have a home at last.

Tomorrow: I Am Kindly Received by the Family.

is the only nation not recognizing England, and suggesting the advisability of altering the present status.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—A federal counter attack against Morelia, capital of Michoacan, will be started before Monday, according to reports from Ira Pua to quoting information received from military headquarters at the Jalisco front.

It is reported from Olaya that Oregon has left there for the purpose of escorting Sonora Obregon part of the way northward to Hermosillo, where her father, General Tapia, is reported ill.

New Taxi Service—Ashley Tabor has purchased a third interest in Taxi Stand Phone 55, located at the Grand Hotel Barber Shop and wishes to announce that he is now operating closed car in conjunction with the above taxi stand. Country trips a specialty.

The final practice of the American Legion drum corps before leaving with the caravan tonight, was held at the army last night and the boys are all ready for their premier appearance. The drums were subjected to some mighty severe punishment last night and the boys allowed no Julia to mark the rehearsal.

The caravan leaves from the army promptly at six o'clock and a large number have signified their intention of going. The trip to Cottage Grove will occupy two hours. Traffic Officer Thumber will head the troupe.

The Cottage Grove show and dance "Days of '49" promises to be a lively affair and the Roseburg gang will do their bit to inject some real pep.

One double tree and single tree wood at Wharton Bros.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—via For Worth Star-Telegram—John Brown, secretary of the International federation of Trade Unions of Amsterdam, announced last night he had called the new British Labor ministry in connection with British recognition of the Soviet government, declaring that Great Britain is the only nation which has not recognized Mexico, while Mexico

ed, her broken promise, Jim Reed, all I should be as if they, and all the years I had spent in Los Angeles had never been. I would remember only my happy, young girlhood, my home with father and mother.

The trip was one long drawn out happiness to me. Mrs. Ellwood was considerate, demanded little service, I read, or sat in the observation car watching the scenery as we flew past cities, towns, and villages, or in the open country where all was so new and interesting to me. I listened to the comments of the travelers, learning how to express myself, to act as one accustomed to travel.

But with all these distractions not for scarcely a moment during the journey did one thought leave me: would Mrs. Ellwood keep me?

I longed, as we drew near our journey's end, to ask her, but lacked the courage. On our last day—we were to arrive in the late afternoon, she said:

"I have found you very dear, very careful, Rita. Would you like to try out living with me a while? I have said little about myself, but the doctor says I shall become more of an invalid as time passes. My eyes are gradually failing, and I shall need young eyes to take their place." She spoke cheerfully as was her habit, yet there seemed a new sadness in her face.

"I should try very hard to please you," I replied, my heart pounding with joy.

"I know—yes, I believe you would. You will like my gay Mollie; she is a bit thoughtless at times, but oh, so lovable!"

"I am sure I shall. She belongs to you."

Mrs. Ellwood laughed happily.

"That's very flattering to me, Rita," she said, then leaned back in her seat, closing her eyes.

I wished she had said something about her son, Guy, and her husband, that I knew more about the family I was to enter; but nothing could dampen my joy. I was to live with them, have a home at last.

Tomorrow: I Am Kindly Received by the Family.

is the only nation not recognizing England, and suggesting the advisability of altering the present status.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—A federal counter attack against Morelia, capital of Michoacan, will be started before Monday, according to reports from Ira Pua to quoting information received from military headquarters at the Jalisco front.

It is reported from Olaya that Oregon has left there for the purpose of escorting Sonora Obregon part of the way northward to Hermosillo, where her father, General Tapia, is reported ill.

New Taxi Service—Ashley Tabor has purchased a third interest in Taxi Stand Phone 55, located at the Grand Hotel Barber Shop and wishes to announce that he is now operating closed car in conjunction with the above taxi stand. Country trips a specialty.

The final practice of the American Legion drum corps before leaving with the caravan tonight, was held at the army last night and the boys are all ready for their premier appearance. The drums were subjected to some mighty severe punishment last night and the boys allowed no Julia to mark the rehearsal.

The caravan leaves from the army promptly at six o'clock and a large number have signified their intention of going. The trip to Cottage Grove will occupy two hours. Traffic Officer Thumber will head the troupe.

The Cottage Grove show and dance "Days of '49" promises to be a lively affair and the Roseburg gang will do their bit to inject some real pep.

One double tree and single tree wood at Wharton Bros.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—via For Worth Star-Telegram—John Brown, secretary of the International federation of Trade Unions of Amsterdam, announced last night he had called the new British Labor ministry in connection with British recognition of the Soviet government, declaring that Great Britain is the only nation which has not recognized Mexico, while Mexico

ed, her broken promise, Jim Reed, all I should be as if they, and all the years I had spent in Los Angeles had never been. I would remember only my happy, young girlhood, my home with father and mother.

The trip was one long drawn out happiness to me. Mrs. Ellwood was considerate, demanded little service, I read, or sat in the observation car watching the scenery as we flew past cities, towns, and villages, or in the open country where all was so new and interesting to me. I listened to the comments of the travelers, learning how to express myself, to act as one accustomed to travel.

But with all these distractions not for scarcely a moment during the journey did one thought leave me: would Mrs. Ellwood keep me?

I longed, as we drew near our journey's end, to ask her, but lacked the courage. On our last day—we were to arrive in the late afternoon, she said:

"I have found you very dear, very careful, Rita. Would you like to try out living with me a while? I have said little about myself, but the doctor says I shall become more of an invalid as time passes. My eyes are gradually failing, and I shall need young eyes to take their place." She spoke cheerfully as was her habit, yet there seemed a new sadness in her face.

"I should try very hard to please you," I replied, my heart pounding with joy.

"I know—yes, I believe you would. You will like my gay Mollie; she is a bit thoughtless at times, but oh, so lovable!"

"I am sure I shall. She belongs to you."

Mrs. Ellwood laughed happily.

"That's very flattering to me, Rita," she said, then leaned back in her seat, closing her eyes.

I wished she had said something about her son, Guy, and her husband, that I knew more about the family I was to enter; but nothing could dampen my joy. I was to live with them, have a home at last.

Tomorrow: I Am Kindly Received by the Family.

is the only nation not recognizing England, and suggesting the advisability of altering the present status.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—A federal counter attack against Morelia, capital of Michoacan, will be started before Monday, according to reports from Ira Pua to quoting information received from military headquarters at the Jalisco front.

It is reported from Olaya that Oregon has left there for the purpose of escorting Sonora Obregon part of the way northward to Hermosillo, where her father, General Tapia, is reported ill.

New Taxi Service—Ashley Tabor has purchased a third interest in Taxi Stand Phone 55, located at the Grand Hotel Barber Shop and wishes to announce that he is now operating closed car in conjunction with the above taxi stand. Country trips a specialty.

The final practice of the American Legion drum corps before leaving with the caravan tonight, was held at the army last night and the boys are all ready for their premier appearance. The drums were subjected to some mighty severe punishment last night and the boys allowed no Julia to mark the rehearsal.

The caravan leaves from the army promptly at six o'clock and a large number have signified their intention of going. The trip to Cottage Grove will occupy two hours. Traffic Officer Thumber will head the troupe.

The Cottage Grove show and dance "Days of '49" promises to be a lively affair and the Roseburg gang will do their bit to inject some real pep.

One double tree and single tree wood at Wharton Bros.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—via For Worth Star-Telegram—John Brown, secretary of the International federation of Trade Unions of Amsterdam, announced last night he had called the new British Labor ministry in connection with British recognition of the Soviet government, declaring that Great Britain is the only nation which has not recognized Mexico, while Mexico

ed, her broken promise, Jim Reed, all I should be as if they, and all the years I had spent in Los Angeles had never been. I would remember only my happy, young girlhood, my home with father and mother.

The trip was one long drawn out happiness to me. Mrs. Ellwood was considerate, demanded little service, I read, or sat in the observation car watching the scenery as we flew past cities, towns, and villages, or in the open country where all was so new and interesting to me. I listened to the comments of the travelers, learning how to express myself, to act as one accustomed to travel.

But with all these distractions not for scarcely a moment during the journey did one thought leave me: would Mrs. Ellwood keep me?

I longed, as we drew near our journey's end, to ask her, but lacked the courage. On our last day—we were to arrive in the late afternoon, she said:

"I have found you very dear, very careful, Rita. Would you like to try out living with me a while? I have said little about myself, but the doctor says I shall become more of an invalid as time passes. My eyes are gradually failing, and I shall need young eyes to take their place." She spoke cheerfully as was her habit, yet there seemed a new sadness in her face.

"I should try very hard to please you," I replied, my heart pounding with joy.

"I know—yes, I believe you would. You will like my gay Mollie; she is a bit thoughtless at times, but oh, so lovable!"

"I am sure I shall. She belongs to you."

Mrs. Ellwood laughed happily.

"That's very flattering to me, Rita," she said, then leaned back in her seat, closing her eyes.

I wished she had said something about her son, Guy, and her husband, that I knew more about the family I was to enter; but nothing could dampen my joy. I was to live with them, have a home at last.

Tomorrow: I Am Kindly Received by the Family.

is the only nation not recognizing England, and suggesting the advisability of altering the present status.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—A federal counter attack against Morelia, capital of Michoacan, will be started before Monday, according to reports from Ira Pua to quoting information received from military headquarters at the Jalisco front.

It is reported from Olaya that Oregon has left there for the purpose of escorting Sonora Obregon part of the way northward to Hermosillo, where her father, General Tapia, is reported ill.

New Taxi Service—Ashley Tabor has purchased a third interest in Taxi Stand Phone 55, located at the Grand Hotel Barber Shop and wishes to announce that he is now operating closed car in conjunction with the above taxi stand. Country trips a specialty.

The final practice of the American Legion drum corps before leaving with the caravan tonight, was held at the army last night and the boys are all ready for their premier appearance. The drums were subjected to some mighty severe punishment last night and the boys allowed no Julia to mark the rehearsal.

The caravan leaves from the army promptly at six o'clock and a large number have signified their intention of going. The trip to Cottage Grove will occupy two hours. Traffic Officer Thumber will head the troupe.

The Cottage Grove show and dance "Days of '49" promises to be a lively affair and the Roseburg gang will do their bit to inject some real pep.

One double tree and single tree wood at Wharton Bros.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—via For Worth Star-Telegram—John Brown, secretary of the International federation of Trade Unions of Amsterdam, announced last night he had called the new British Labor ministry in connection with British recognition of the Soviet government, declaring that Great Britain is the only nation which has not recognized Mexico, while Mexico

ed, her broken promise, Jim Reed, all I should be as if they, and all the years I had spent in Los Angeles had never been. I would remember only my happy, young girlhood, my home with father and mother.

The trip was one long drawn out happiness to me. Mrs. Ellwood was considerate, demanded little service, I read, or sat in the observation car watching the scenery as we flew past cities, towns, and villages, or in the open country where all was so new and interesting to me. I listened to the comments of the travelers, learning how to express myself, to act as one accustomed to travel.

But with all these distractions not for scarcely a moment during the journey did one thought leave me: would Mrs. Ellwood keep me?

I longed, as we drew near our journey's end, to ask her, but lacked the courage. On our last day—we were to arrive in the late afternoon, she said:

"I have found you very dear, very careful, Rita. Would you like to try out living with me a while? I have said little about myself, but the doctor says I shall become more of an invalid as time passes. My eyes are gradually failing, and I shall need young eyes to take their place." She spoke cheerfully as was her habit, yet there seemed a new sadness in her face.

"I should try very hard to please you," I replied, my heart pounding with joy.

"I know—yes, I believe you would. You will like my gay Mollie; she is a bit thoughtless at times, but oh, so lovable!"

"I am sure I shall. She belongs to you."

Mrs. Ellwood laughed happily.

"That's very flattering to me, Rita," she said, then leaned back in her seat, closing her eyes.

I wished she had said something about her son, Guy, and her husband, that I knew more about the family I was to enter; but nothing could dampen my joy. I was to live with them, have a home at last.

Tomorrow: I Am Kindly Received by the Family.

is the only nation not recognizing England, and suggesting the advisability of altering the present status.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(By Radio)—A federal counter attack against Morelia, capital of Michoacan, will be started before Monday, according to reports from Ira Pua to quoting information received from military headquarters at the Jalisco front.

It is reported from Olaya that Oregon has left there for the purpose of escorting Sonora Obregon part of the way northward to Hermosillo, where her father, General Tapia, is reported ill.

New Taxi Service—Ashley Tabor has purchased a third interest in Taxi Stand Phone 55, located at the Grand Hotel Barber Shop and wishes to announce that he is now operating closed car in conjunction with the above taxi stand. Country trips a specialty.

The final practice of the American Legion drum corps before leaving with the caravan tonight, was held at the army last night and the boys are all ready for their premier appearance. The drums were subjected to some mighty severe punishment last night and the boys allowed no Julia to mark the rehearsal.

The caravan leaves from the army promptly at six o'clock and a large number have signified their intention of going. The trip to Cottage Grove will occupy two hours. Traffic Officer Thumber will head the troupe.

The Cottage Grove show and dance "Days of '49" promises to be a lively affair and the Roseburg gang will do their bit to inject some real pep.

One