ROSEBURG, OREGON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1924.

LAST ZONE MEETING AT ELKTON SATURDAY

Mrs. D. C. Brown, Miss Helen Cowgill and W. C. Carpenter are continuing their work in the survey of county schools which has been in progress for some time in the effort to organize agricultural clubs throughout this section. Miss Cowgill is from the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural College and has spent some time here assisting in the work which is under way. Mr. Carpenter is at the head of the county club work and is also making an effort to increase its membership. These three officials are to participate in the zone meeting which is to be held at Elkton tomorrow. The meeting is the last of the second series of conferences which have been conducted in the county and the program will be similar to those already held. Speakers from the University of Oregon and many county school officers are to take part in the program. The meeting will continue all day, the afternoon being devoted to the patrons of the district.

DEBATE TONIGHT AT HIGH SCHOOL

The first inter-district debate of the high school will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium when the Roseburg affirmative team will meet the Myrtle Creek negative team. The negative team of Roseburg will go to Drain where it will meet the affirmative team of that city. The question which will be debated by both teams is: Resolved, that a graduate income tax is a desirable feature of a state system of taxation. The affirmative team which will debate Myrtle Creek in this city is composed of Hall Seely and Robert Starrett, while the negative team which will go to Drain is composed of Paul Geddes and Harvey Roser. Both teams have been working hard for the past several weeks preparing for the debate tonight. They have been under the supervision of George K. Malone who is an able coach and an interesting debate is expected.

SAVE ON SHOES—Serviceable school shoes now $1.95 at the ROSEBURG BOOTERIE.

This is a Studebaker year.

PIONEER OF COOS COUNTY PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Charles S. Hilborn, Known to Many Roseburg, People, and One of the Oldest Residents of Southwestern Oregon is Dead.

Word was received in this city today of the death of Mrs. C. H. Hilborn, a pioneer resident of Coos County, who passed away yesterday at the age of 87 years. The deceased was well known to many people of Douglas county having visited here on several occasions. For the past few years she has been in failing health, but was bedfast only a few days when death came to her.

Speaking of this fine old woman who had made her home on Coos Bay for the past 70 years, the Coos Bay Times has the following to say:

Mrs. Chas. S. Hilborn, one of the oldest and most highly respected pioneers of Coos County, died last night at her home at Millicoma due to her advanced years. She was 87 last October, and had been a resident of Coos county for more than 60 years. Her niece, Mrs. Blanche Bates Clough, has been staying with her for the past year and was with her at the end. Mr. Hilborn died 12 years ago. Mrs. Hilborn's maiden name was Emma Alice Dyer and she was born at Baltimore, Md. She was married to Chas. S. Hilborn near Port Orford February 19, 1859. Mr. Hilborn was born in Maine in 1820 and came to Port Orford in 1856.

Resided Here 58 Years. The couple moved to Marshfield in 1866 and settled near the mouth of Coos river at what was termed Millicoma and on the ranch they made their home for over half a century. No children were ever born to them.

Both were of the rugged, hearty, whole-souled pioneer type and preserved many mementoes of early days. For years they kept two chairs and a platter that Aaron Dyer had when he opened the "Rough and Ready Hotel"

FOUR BURNED TO DEATH

(Associated Press Leased Wire) UNIONVILLE, Mich., Feb. 1. —A man, his wife and two children were burned to death in their farm home today when a five gallon can of kerosene being used to start a kitchen fire exploded. The dead are: Edward Bowles, 38; his wife, who was partly paralyzed, a boy of 5 and a girl of 2.

In Port Orford in 1853. Mrs. Hilborn's brother, Judge C. M. Dyer, was for years a leading citizen of Coos and Curry counties. Her sister Theresa, was a clever writer, publishing many poems under the name of Minnie Myrtle.

Aided Pioneer Colony. Chas. Hilborn with an ex pilot of the Baltimore Hermann colony from Port Orford to the upper Coquille where they settled.

Mrs. Hilborn was one of the kindly women, a gentle smile and kindly greeting winning her friends of all with whom she came in contact. Not only this but she was ever ready to extend a helping hand. Up until a year or so ago, she prided herself on her physical activity and spurned suggestions that she ought to take "it easy."

B. W. Bates, editor of the Roseburg News-Review is a nephew of Mrs. Hilborn.

She was a member of the Eastern Star. The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock from the Wilson chapel, Dr. T. H. Temple officiating. The Eastern Star will also conduct services there. Private services for the family will be held later at the I. O. O. F. cemetery, where interment will be alongside her husband.

CHICKEN TAMALES SALE

ONE HALF OF ONE PER CENT AFFECTION
 I love my neighbor as myself, He is a vulgar fellow, His only thought is filthy pelf, His surly soul is yellow, He lies and steals and cheats, In many a crafty, cunning way, His fellowmen he beats, But, I am not the kind of guy On whom to waste affection; An ordinary cuss am I; Not in my own direction, I am amatory elf, Myself I often bore, I love my neighbor as myself, And not a darn bit more.

When one devours a modern book it doesn't necessarily indicate a taste for good literature.

Are you a cougher? Then you ought to do your practicing at home instead of the church or theatre.

To the weary eyes of ye ed. free verse looks like tombstone inscriptions but means less.

Every man should be willing to take a few kicks without regarding himself as a football of Fate.

Then there are those wiser ones who believe it is better to keep still and be thought a fool than to speak out and remove all doubts.

So long as credit remains as cheap as it is now few people will put up with the inconveniences of poverty.
