STUDEBAKER BEATS ALL FORMER RECORDS

Nineteen twenty-three was a banner year for the automobile industry in both production and sales of cars. Coming after the year 1922, which showed a remarkable improvement over the "off year" 1921, the increase in automobile business during 1923 is even more impressive.

Studebaker's record in making 1923 its banner year with the sale of more than 145,162 cars follows a series of phenomenal sales records. Each year for the past six years Studebaker sales have greatly exceeded those of the previous year.

Students of statistics will recall the story that 1921 told. In that year the sales have greatly exceeded those of per cent greater than in 1920, while the total number of cars sold of all other makes except Fords was 40 per cent less than in 1920.

Stated otherwise, Studebaker's ratio of sales in 1921 was 129 and the total of other makes except Fords was 60, as compared with 1920.

In 1922, therefore, Studebaker had the showing of a record year to surpass and plans were laid for a production of 100,000 cars, as compared with 66,643 in 1921. Even with this large increase in production, at no time was Studebaker able to supply the demand for its cars. 110,269 cars were produced and sold during 1922, an increase of 65 per cent over 1921 which up to that time was the greatest year in the history of Studebaker.

The increasing demand for Studebaker cars continued in 1923. By the end of August, the 1922 record was exceeded, and by December 31 Studebaker sales had passed 145,162—making 1923 the greatest year, by far, in Studebaker history.

CHARGED WITH BIGAMY

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
MEDFORD, Feb. 13.—Mark Calvin Winkle, 23, a resident of the Eagle Point district, is held in the county jail pending an investigation of alleged bigamous conditions prevailing in the romances of the young man. The investigation was instituted by his mother-in-law. Accord to Sheriff C. E. Terrill, the records at Bend, Oregon show Winkle was married in 1921 to Audrey Sabin of that city, and a year later to Mildred Atwell, whose relatives live on the Crater Lake highway, just outside Medford. Assistant District Attorney Winfield R. Gaylord says Winkle admits both marriages, but declares that the first one was annulled, but has no legal papers to show it. The authorities maintain no divorce was secured as far as they can find out.

Until the matter is adjusted Winkle will languish in jail.

Carter's Tire Shop

Friends and Customers, it has been some time since I wrote you a story. However, I have seen a number in my day dreams as they passed by. I will say to you that I have been reading up on a new religion. New to Nick, but as old as the history of man. Later I will write you some stories along this line. Watch for the trips Nick and Eva take when Nick was Adam and Eva was Eve.

Now, boys, I am talking to you who owe me. I want to tell you there has been two wolves with their noses pointed at my shop. One is named Portland, the other Frisco. Frisco is a savage old creature. Once he snarled and showed his teeth at me. I did not pay much attention to him. Next time he snapped at me, and if I had not gotten out of his way he would have bitten my leg off. What old Frisco wants is money, and he is as harmless as a babe.

Now, if you love me as you love yourself, you who owe me, come in and pay. You who do not owe me, bring your tire work here and I will do you a good job. Pa my word, I will, and it will also help me to keep the wolf away.
