

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

By BEULAH JEWETT

All contributions to this page, society, women's clubs, and personals, should be telephoned to the society editor by Friday of each week. Telephone No. 135.

Announcement Party for Engaged Girl

To announce the engagement of Miss Elise Robinson to Dr. Martin Ketter of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Mrs. William Bell was hostess on Monday evening to a coterie of Miss Robinson's most intimate friends. Bowls of narcissus, jonquils and ferns were arranged on pedestals about the rooms where the guests were seated. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. C. S. Heinline, little Grace Dubar, a charming bride in white satin and wedding veil, descended the stairs, carrying a large golden ring supporting a bouquet of pink sweet peas and mignonette from which fell a shower of tiny envelopes suspended by narrow pink ribbons. The little bride passed among the guests, distributing the envelopes each of which contained a fortune or lucky piece in the shape of a thimble, ring, button, dime, heart and wish bone.

Luncheon was served in the dining room at a table attractive with clusters of pink sweet peas and mignonette, and lit with pink candles. Small white boxes at each plate, carrying a golden ring resting in the petals of a pink rose, from which suspended two hearts one with the guest's name and the other with the names of Miss Robinson and Dr. Ketter. Covers were placed for Miss Robinson, Miss Bess Wharton, Miss Jane Wharton, Miss Ruth Davis, Miss Marjorie Brown, Miss Flo Adams, Miss Evelyn Quine, Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. John Enzer, Mrs. Paul Dubar, Mrs. Loren Miller, Mrs. Chas. Ruch, Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. Charles Brand, Mrs. Arthur Knauus, and Mrs. Bell.

The announcement of the engagement is an interesting one to Miss Robinson's many friends here. She has been connected with the Heinline Conservatory as a teaching teacher for the past three years, is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college and a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. Dr. Ketter is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and is practicing dentistry at Philadelphia. He is a member of Phi Delta Tau. The wedding will be an event of early summer at Philadelphia where they will reside.

Club Makes Merry at George Washington Dance

Gentlemen, matrons and maids of the Roseburg Country Club danced the night away Friday at a George Washington party at the club house, laying aside all thoughts of a sober workaday world and giving themselves over to an evening of gaiety and amusement. The lobby of the club house, with its sloping roof, many French windows, and huge, friendly fire place, is an attractive one at any time, and every detail of its cozy cheer was enhanced by the cleverly arranged patriotic theme.

The central motif was a large picture of George Washington suspended above the mantel, in which a red and blue valance was hung about the entire room. Each corner of the lobby was marked off by a decorative arrangement in red, white and blue, and a buffet luncheon was served at a table gay with a border of hatchets and flags. Frank Clemens and Ivan Pickens were responsible for the attractive affair. The Umpqua Five orchestra played.

St. Patrick's Ball on March Seventeenth

The announcement of the annual St. Patrick's ball for March seventeenth is an interesting one to many besides the "wearers of the green" for the event is one eagerly anticipated by dancers. The ball will be a departure this year in that the Ladies Auxiliaries of the Big 4 railroad organizations will have complete charge. This is the first time that the Big 4 have allowed the ladies to have a part in the staging of the annual frolic, and they plan many interesting innovations.

Woman's Club Has Interesting Meeting

An unusually interesting meeting of the Roseburg Women's Club was an event of Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Good. Mrs. William Bell, who has recently returned from a meeting of the Ladies of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs at Portland, gave an inspirational report of the work of the clubs in Oregon. Little Miss Effie both Abraham gave moving readings, and Mrs. Fred Strong led the ladies in Community Singing. Mrs. S. D. Evans led a discussion on the new world Peace Plan which was continued later at the refreshment tables. Mesdames Jost, Good, Dunlap, Judd and Neal were in charge of the day.

Silver Tea of Mission Society Is Successful

The Silver Tea given by the Missionary Society of the Methodist Church South, on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. A. Dillard was a delightful affair and drew the full attendance of the society. Mrs. Stewart O'Dell presided, and conducted a short devotional service before introducing the speakers. Mrs. D. M. Johns, district secretary of the Portland district, gave an inspiring talk, followed by short talks by Mrs. J. B. Needham and Mrs. M. P. Taylor. Miss Lois Cobb, and little Maxine Smith finished the program with readings. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Guy Cordon Hostess Today

One of the most attractive luncheons of the week had Mrs. Guy Cordon as hostess today. Violet and flowering almond centered the dainty table about which were seated Mesdames George Wharton, R. L. Whipple, Carl Winberly, Charles McElhinny, J. B. Wharton, Roy Helms, George Johnson, Kenneth Quinn, Roy Catching, Glen Winberly, Harold Nichols, Ned Dixon. Tables for bridge were made up for the afternoon.

Mrs. Waddell Is Luncheon Hostess

George Washington's birthday anniversary was again the motif on Thursday when Mrs. H. C. Waddell entertained the Thursday Luncheon club. The luncheon table was centered with a cluster of jonquils with patriotic suggestions for place cards and favors. After luncheon bridge and mah jongg diverted the guests. Bidden were Mrs. Genevieve Dillman, of Los Angeles, Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mrs. L. B. Skinner, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. George Bradburn, Mrs. Harry Winston, Mrs. Harold Nichols, Mrs. Fred Winston, Mrs. George Bacher, Miss Katherine Devore.

Musicales Have Been Changed to Monday

Counter attractions on the next two Saturday evenings have caused the Heinline Conservatory Saturday Musicales to be changed to Monday, and an entertaining program has been prepared for Monday, the twenty fifth by the young and adult students at the Conservatory. The piano numbers on the program will be given by Avis Negley, Elizabeth Abraham, Maxine Hines, Russell Langhead, Harriett Groves, Irvin Reuman, Thylla Shields, Elizabeth Williams, Bernice Hamilton, Leta Gloy Hatfield. Vocal numbers will be given by Mrs. William Hines and Warren Burt; violin by Hazel Caldwell; Mary Agnes Meagher and Chas. Little; reading, Lois Cobb; trombone solo, Norman Hess; orchestra. The musicales are open to the public.

Bridge Is Diversion at Burt Home

One of the delightful affairs of the week had Mrs. W. G. Burt as hostess on Friday evening when she invited a group of friends to her home for bridge. Seated about the small tables were Mrs. M. S. Allan, Mrs. J. C. Fensler, Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. T. E. Singleton, Mrs. H. F. Ogden, Mrs. W. R. Conlee, Mrs. C. G. Reymers, Mrs. H. C. Waddell, Miss Lucetta Smith, Miss Frances Potter, Miss Katherine Devore. A dainty luncheon followed the cards.

Mrs. E. B. Stewart honored her home guest Mrs. Robert Bassett of Washington, with an informal evening on Monday. Several intimate friends were invited to meet Mrs. Bassett, and to play bridge. Yellow jonquils were a pretty floral motif.

Mothers and Daughters Night at P. T. A.

An unusual entertainment was arranged by the High School Parent Teachers Association for Tuesday evening, honoring Mothers and Daughters Night. A short business meeting preceded the program which was opened by two numbers by the Girls Glee Club, "Swing Swing" and "The Angel Chorus." Mrs. G. W. Bradford read a very interesting paper on "100 Per Cent Mothers," followed by an appropriate reading by Mrs. C. E. Rusho. A mother's chorus sang several P. T. A. songs, and the daughters served dainty refreshments.

Wilbur Girl Honored With Shower

Miss Mae Ritzman, a popular bride elect of Wilbur, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower on February 14th, for which Mrs. Clyde Henninger, and Mrs. Stanley Short of Wilbur were joint hostesses at the home of Mrs. Henninger. The engagement of Miss Ritzman to Kenneth Gilkeson of Roseburg, has been announced. Clusters of violets and pussywillows gave a spring like fragrance to the rooms, and the Valentine suggestion was also in evidence. About forty of Miss Ritzman's friends gathered in her honor. Out of town guests were Mrs. F. Forti, Mrs. E. L. Henninger, and Ruthella Henninger of Oakland, and Pauline Bridges of Roseburg.

Reception for Engaged Couple

An informal reception and shower complimenting Miss Jeanette Gibbs and Harold Beacock who have announced their engagement, was a feature of Wednesday evening, at the E. B. Woods home on Parrott st. The reception followed the close of the Christian church services, and was sponsored by a number of the young people of the congregation. The rooms were attractively decorated, an interesting note being a miniature wedding party of dressed dolls. Gathered at the "wood home" were Miss Gibbs and Mr. Beacock, Miss Inez Calhoun, Miss Myrtle Wilson, Miss Leota Barker, Miss Elsie Hudson, Miss Kathryn Powell, Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Hilton, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Woods, Rev. John T. Stivers, C. H. Altheide, Vernon Orr, Royd Brunton, Adrian Bloom, Donald and Glenn Radabaugh.

Entertainment Varies Lilac Circle Meeting

An entertaining program varied the usual meeting of Lilac Circle No. 49 on Monday evening. A short meeting was followed by numbers by: Martin Sharrard, two piano selections; Maxine Smith, reading, "Just Like a Man"; Thylla Althaus, instrumental selection; Earl and Virginia Oakley, duet; Ardath Taylor, instrumental number; Helen Wetherell, reading, "Belinda Has Been a Shopping"; Marvel Wilson, instrumental selection. A cafeteria luncheon, suggestive of George Washington's Birthday, consisting of cherry ice cream, and cookies in the form of small hatchets as served after the program.

Mrs. Bates Entertains Friday Bridge Club

The Friday Bridge Club met this week for a pleasant afternoon with Mrs. B. W. Bates, who arranged her rooms with clusters of bright yellow daffodils and other spring blooms. Mrs. J. F. Dillard was an additional guest. Mrs. V. M. Peterson won high score at cards. A dainty luncheon was served at four to Mrs. Irvin Brunn, Mrs. Louis Melvin, Mrs. A. J. Hochradel, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Fred Schwartz, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. V. M. Peterson and Mrs. J. F. Dillard.

Pythian Sisters Meet with Mrs. C. M. Jones

The Pythian Sisters met socially on Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. C. M. Jones. A feature of the informal afternoon was the presentation of a membership pin to Mrs. Dessie Tilton, and a Pythian Sisters ring to Mrs. Belle Walker, both of these ladies being past chiefs of the order. The rooms of the Jones home were arranged with spring flowers, and dainty refreshments were served.

The Elks dance announced for February 27 will be a happening of interest next week. F. F. Jones is in charge of the affair which will be informal. Card games will be arranged in the ladies rooms.

Old Fashioned Dance at Gazley Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Worthington of Gazley were hosts on Saturday evening to a large number of their friends inviting them to the school house, which had been cleared for dancing, and decorated attractively with evergreens, spring blooms, and Valentine suggestions. Nearly 100 guests gathered at the hall for an old fashioned good time, dancing the quadrilles and minuets of their mother's day as well as the modern dance steps. Messrs. McLain and Bigelow played for the dances. A delicious supper was served at midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Drake and two daughters, were called here for the illness and death of Mrs. Drake's sister Mrs. M. M. Miller, left Thursday evening by automobile for Portland. They were accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Hadley who will visit in Portland for a short time.

Misses Baldwin Entertain Northside 500 Club

Miss Margaret and Miss Mae Baldwin invited the members of the Northside 500 club to their home on Tuesday evening, using a color motif of yellow for the attractive rooms. Seated about the card tables were Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brunn, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Winberly, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElhinny, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wright, Miss Ava Jane Darby. Prizes at cards fell to Mrs. McElhinny, and Mr. Whipple, and low to Mrs. Wright and Mr. Brunn.

Bridge and Mah Jongg at Green Home

Bridge and mah jongg enlivened the hours for a number of Mrs. M. B. Green's friends on Thursday, who motored out to her home for a pleasant afternoon. The card rooms were brightened with clusters of hyacinths and jonquils, and the dainty luncheon was served at small tables arranged with the George Washington motif, by Mrs. Green, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Chapman. Enjoying Mrs. Green's charming hospitality were: Mesdames George Bolter, A. F. Sether, E. B. Stewart, Natalie Baum, A. A. Wilder, Roy Bellows, Nathan Fullerton, W. F. Chapman, I. G. Broadway, Harry Stapleton, George Johnson, H. A. Winston, George Bacher, L. B. Skinner, George Bradburn, Edward Skinner, Genevieve Dillman of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Love Entertains Monday Bridge Club

The Monday Bridge Club met for play this week with Mrs. J. I. Love, Mrs. Wm. Bell winning honors at cards. A dainty luncheon was served to the card players late in the afternoon. Present were Mrs. V. M. Peterson, Mrs. Lloyd Crocker, Mrs. Ben Ziegler, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. John Enger, Mrs. Fred Kellington, Mrs. C. W. Gilbert, Mrs. B. W. Bates, Mrs. Irvin Brunn.

A special meeting of the Pythian Sisters was held on Thursday afternoon to compliment Mrs. Florence Rand of Hood River, Grand Chief of the order. The regular lodge work was gone through for Mrs. Rand's inspection, and the ladies given an opportunity of becoming acquainted with her following the business meeting.

Friends Gather for Bridge on Thursday

One of the largest affairs of the week occurred on Thursday when Mrs. Jack Wharton invited her friends to the Jack Wharton home for bridge. Jonquils and pussywillows and other spring flowers were used about the rooms. The card tables were arranged for the occasion by Mrs. Wharton, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Brunn and Mrs. Whipple. Bidden to the affair were Mrs. Irvin Brunn, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Winberly, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElhinny, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wright, Miss Ava Jane Darby, Prizes at cards fell to Mrs. McElhinny, and Mr. Whipple, and low to Mrs. Wright and Mr. Brunn.

Bellview Club Meets on Valentine's Day

Mrs. W. Pearce and Mrs. Hughes were joint hostesses of the Bellview Club on Valentine's day February 14, at the home of Mrs. Pearce. The afternoon was devoted to discussion and planning of the club for the next few weeks for a dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. Pearce and Mrs. Hughes were the hostesses. Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Reid will be joint hostesses next meeting, March 12, at the home of Mrs. Weaver.

Each Evening of Auto Show Interesting

Each evening's entertainment of the Auto Show, February 22, March 1, has been planned for ladies who will attend the program on each evening. It will be an interesting one for all and gentlemen. Of particular interest on the first evening of the fashion show, when a bridge, while soft hand, had sixteen of the most dainty young ladies who will appear in the spring and summer fashions. Fisher's store, shows that the girls will act as models. Marion Porter, Mary Jones, Whittling, Lillian Campbell, Jewett, Vivian Orrell, Lee, Iris Rice, Edith McBeim, Josephine McBeim, Chester Endrip, Mrs. E. J. Stanford, Mrs. J. E. Adillo, Euse Hildebrand.

On the second night of the County Concert Band has been in charge of the program which include members from the local talent in Roseburg and third night, George McElhinny of Portland, will lead. So from the Heinline Conservatory dance a stately minuet, a line, Dorothy McDonald, Mrs. Clark, Georgina Warren, Small, Helen Russell and Baum.

Lawn Project Claims Interest of P. T. A.

The next few weeks will see completion of a project of the School Parent Teachers Association for many months. The school building was the subject which has now been completed and paid for, and its completion is a delight to those who have been working for it. The project was a large order for shrubs which will be arranged in landscape gardening at the school building. Organizations who have been asked to contribute the $7.50 each, including the Women's Club, Kiwanis Club, Kiwanis, Rotary, the four high classes and A. C. Cress. The project is a solid bank of evergreens, and the outside extension of the building will be bordered by the cement walks, having a variety of lawn shrubs, ornamental, evergreen, deciduous, Oregon arbutus and veronica.

A committee from the Parent Teachers Association, Mrs. J. C. Foster, Mrs. J. C. Foster, Mrs. J. C. Foster, and Mrs. M. E. Ham, are in charge of the work. Complimenting Mrs. J. C. Foster, who is a guest here, Mrs. H. McKee, who is a guest here, Friday afternoon, giving friends in for cards and a Patrick. Yellow jonquils centered an attractive affair.

Club Spends Pleasant Afternoon With Seniors

An enjoyable afternoon was spent by the members of the Northside 500 club and Mrs. R. E. Barnes, who was the hostess, at a social gathering at the home of Mrs. R. E. Barnes. A bowl of narcissus and other spring flowers were used about the rooms. The card tables were arranged for the occasion by Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Brunn and Mrs. Whipple. Bidden to the affair were Mrs. Irvin Brunn, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Winberly, Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElhinny, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wright, Miss Ava Jane Darby. Prizes at cards fell to Mrs. McElhinny, and Mr. Whipple, and low to Mrs. Wright and Mr. Brunn.

Notable Scenes in "The Covered Wagon"

COMING TO THE ANTLERS THEATRE, FEBRUARY 27 AND 28

NO. 1—WHERE THE TRAIL DIVIDES. NO. 2—ERNEST TORRENCE AS THE OLD PLAINSMAN. NO. 3—JED WINGATE. BANJO PLAYING PIONEER KID. NO. 4—JIM BRIDGER AND BILL JACKSON. NO. 5—LOIS WILSON AS MOLLIE WINGATE.

(Continued on Page 5)