The Buick has large drums which can be bolted to the rear wheels, and with a block and tackle can pull itself out of any kind of difficulties. Each car carries two large waterbarrels, as much of the trip must be made over desert where oftimes water cannot be reached for a distance of 750 mlies. Each car will carry forty gallons of gasoline.

It is expected that the trip will require about two months, and the cars are scheduled to return to Roseburg May 2.

The party carries letters from Secretary of State Hughes, from the Oregon Senators, Governor Pierce, Secretary of State Kozer, Mayor Baker and others.

The cars left Portland Saturday morning following a great public ceremonial and celebration. Six motor policeman accompanied the party as far as Oregon City. At Salem another ceremony was observed when Governor Pierce's letters were presented.
