

SATURDAY!

Bargain Day!

Come in and be convinced.

- Is up again and we have been advised to
- so pass it on to you, Saturday, 100 lb. sack $9.95
- bricks of loaf cheese, per lb. 30c
- con Backs, nicely smoked, per lb. 20c
- oked Side Meat, by the piece, per lb. 20c
- White Wonder Soap, 100 bar box, per box $3.00
- erro Dairy Feed, 80 lb. sack, per sack $1.25
- ill Run 80-lb. sack, per sack $1.25

Poultry Feed of All Kinds.

Scratch Feed, Egg Mash, Little Chix Feed, White Seed Oats, all kinds of grass seed.

Forget the Featherflake Flour. We are now working on the car, and no complaints, but many praises.

Peoples Supply Co.

THE BEST FOR LESS

PAINT! $1.75 PER GALLON!

High Grade White Enamel Only 50c a pint

Aluminum paint, stovepipe enamel, metal polish, and Ocedar Furniture Polish.

Leather Faced Gloves 15c

Our stock of ranges is exhausted until March 22.

POWELL FURNITURE CO.

238 N. Jackson

TERNITY HOME

Winchester St. Phone 490
Mrs. D. Cornwell privileged to have their own doctor.

FOR COUNTY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of county school superintendent subject to the will of the republican voters at the May primaries. (Paid Adv.)

O. C. BROWN.

CANDIDATE FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

I hereby announce myself a republican candidate for superintendent of schools of Douglas county, at the May primaries. Mrs. Edith S. Ackert, Myrtle Creek, Oregon. (Paid adv.)

CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

I hereby announce myself as a republican candidate at the May primaries for the office of County Commissioner. Harry B. Eckelston, Drain, Oregon. (Pd. Adv.)

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

M. H. PLYER—Chiropratic Physician. 114 W. Lane St.

FREE CATALOG

Sash, Doors Millwork

Hundreds of beautiful designs direct from the manufacturer at money-saving prices. Send for your copy today.

ROYAL LUMBER CO.

2219 First Street, Seattle

ean, Hot, Dry steam is applied every garment press. No "living thing" can be expected to survive this sterilizing process.

Imperial

TRY OUR WAY
277 Our Auto Will Call

The Revelations of a Paid Companion

By JANE PHELPS

Author of "My Husband and I," "A Wife's Story," etc.

LAUREL DENOUNCES MOLLIE AND JIM

Chapter LVII.

After Jim had consented to go abroad Laurel seemed happier than I ever had seen her. She began to look a little less nervous, was gay, even when Mollie was about, although she watched her closely.

Just at dusk I left the house to wander about the lawn. It was a glorious night, the last of May, so warm I needed no wrap. As I stepped out on the veranda I saw Laurel leaning against the railing.

"I'm going to stroll about a bit. Don't you want to come?" I asked. "Without a word she joined me. Something in her manner made me ask:

"Anything gone wrong, Laurel?" "Have you seen Jim and Mollie since dinner?"

"No, but they're around somewhere."

Her manner was now accounted for, she had allowed herself to be jealous again.

We roamed idly about on one side of the house, then turned toward the back, where a path led down to the water. As we neared the summer house I heard voices. Laurel grasped my arm, motioning me to keep still. Before I had time to think or move, her grasp on my arm tightened. I heard Jim say:

"I am going to miss you terribly, Mollie. You have been an awfully good little pal."

"I shall miss you too, Jim."

They came out of the summer house, and stood in the opening. Jim took her into his arms just as the moon came up and shone upon them. He kissed her several times, and she kissed him in return while Laurel and I stood unable to move without being seen or heard.

Suddenly her grasp on my arm relaxed, and she ran ahead of me, facing them.

"I have caught you at last, you shameless creature!" she screamed at Mollie.

"Taking my husband away from me. Aren't there single men enough in the world that you have to take Jim? I knew what was going on. I knew. Rita said it wasn't so—but I knew!"

"Laurel—quiet dear, the servants will hear," I cautioned while both Jim and Mollie appeared to be shocked into silence.

"What do I care? Soon all the world will know the shameless thing you are, the false thing Jim is."

Suddenly Mollie came to life. She rushed upon Laurel, grabbed her, and the words tumbling over each other, she said:

"You're crazy, Laurel, raving crazy! I haven't taken Jim. Don't want to take him! Why, he's married!" as if that ended it.

"A lot of difference that makes to you. I saw you kissing him and he—"

"Do be still, Laurel!"

Mollie now shook her, telling Jim, who was about to interiere, to keep away.

"I kissed him, yes. He's my cousin, isn't he? Perhaps I have flirted with him, he's so awfully goodlooking and a good sport, but as for wanting him—why I've no such desire. I wouldn't have him if he were free, and I don't think he would want me."

"He's all right as a relative, but as a husband, well, I've selected the man I shall marry, and it isn't Jim. Now stop crying and be sensible!"

She took Laurel in her arms.

"What's a kiss? Just a puff of wind. Here, Jim, come take this silly, little wife of yours into the house."

"Remember, Laurel," her voice now serious. "You have no reason to be jealous of me. I may have been silly, but who isn't at times? But if you think me in love with Jim, or he with me, you're terribly mistaken. I'm sorry if my thoughtlessness has hurt you—very sorry, Laurel. Here, Jim, take her, and make your peace."

She almost lifted Laurel from the ground as she thrust her into Jim's arms.

"What a goose Laurel is," Mollie said as they disappeared in the dusk. Laurel weeping softly on Jim's shoulder.

"And to think that she really believed I would do such a thing, a married man. Why I look upon Jim almost as I do on Guy. I never meant a thing, nor did I mean to hurt Laurel. I'll have to make it up to her in some way if I can. Poor little, colorless Laurel!"

Jim and Laurel left a week later, and before they went all that had caused Laurel's unhappiness was cleared away, and she and Mollie parted good friends. But I know it had been done in Mollie's in consequential way. She would knowingly not hurt a kitten, and had told Laurel so, and been forgiven.

I wondered if I would have been so generous, if I would have forgiven her.

Tomorrow:—Rita Determines to Leave.

CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

I hereby announce myself to the republican voters of Douglas county at the primary election in May, as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner. Mc. W. Daugherty, Youcaia, Ore. (Paid Adv.)

CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

I hereby announce myself a republican candidate for sheriff of Douglas county, at the May primaries. Frank M. Hopkins, Canyonville, Oregon. (Pd. Adv.)

NOTICE

A meeting will be held at Coles Valley school house, March 30, at 8:30 p. m. for the purpose of considering improvements for Coles Valley cemetery.

Arundel, piano tuner. Phone 189-L.

This is a Studebaker year.

Resurrection plants, 50c each at the Fern.

Moore Music Studio—116 S. Jackson St.

Garden tools at right prices. Powell's.

Watkins products, 120 W. Lane street. Orders delivered. Phone 177.

Hereafter I will pay no bills made by anyone other than myself. March 12, 1924. N. L. COON.

Orders taken for broccoli plants, grown from imported seed, $4 per thousand, 10,000 up, $3.75. Fred Schmidt, Dillard, Ore.

Try the Magnetic treatment, and get well. Has cured where all other methods have failed. Magnetic Baths, 299 Perkins Bldg.

Lloyd will take you cheaper on long trips; no trip less than 50 cents. Lloyd's Taxi, phone 44, 175 Sheridan.

LOCAL NEWS

Houser At Tiller—

Forest Ranger O. C. Houser is spending the week at Tiller, attending to grazing matters.

Florence Man Here—

Carl Bergman, Florence banker, spent yesterday in Roseburg attending to business matters.

Marriage License Issued—

A marriage license was issued Thursday to Arthur Patrick and Fayne Ohlesen, of this city.

Here for Few Days—

W. L. H. Osborne of Glde arrived in this city Wednesday evening to spend the next two or three days transacting business matters.

Mr. Tupling in Town—

H. Tupling of Portland, representative to the Samson Tire company, is spending several days in this city in the interests of the company.

From U. of O.—

Fred Lockwood, who is attending the University of Oregon at Eugene, is spending the week end in this city visiting with friends and relatives.

Studebaker Man Here—

W. A. Pettengill of Portland, representative of the Studebaker corporation of America, spent Wednesday in this city attending to business interests.

On Legal Business—

O. S. Brown of Gledale, an attorney, is spending several days in Roseburg attending to legal matters. Mr. Brown is registered at the Hotel Umpqua.

Miss Reymers Home—

Miss Ferne Reymers is spending the week end in Roseburg with her parents and friends. Miss Reymers is attending the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis.

Returns Home—

Mrs. M. S. Ryan, who spent a short time in this city visiting with friends returned to her home in Hiddle this morning. Mrs. Ryan also attended the senior play Wednesday.

Eugene Man Here—

R. J. McHale, of Eugene, representative of Schillings & Co, arrived in Roseburg Wednesday afternoon to spend the next few days here attending to business matters.

Leave for Salem—

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shields last Wednesday evening for Salem where they will spend the next two or three days visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

Here From Portland—

H. M. Word of Portland, representative of the Savage Tire and Rubber company, arrived in this city Wednesday evening to spend a few days attending to business interests.

At the Umpqua—

J. H. O'Neill of Portland, traveling passenger agent for the Union Pacific system, is registered at the Hotel Umpqua. Mr. O'Neill will spend a few days here looking after business interests.

Mr. Gray at Umpqua—

W. P. Gray of Portland, representative of the Goodrich Rubber company, arrived in Roseburg yesterday afternoon to spend a few days here attending to business. Mr. Gray is registered at the Hotel Umpqua.

Returns from California—

Miss Luella Brown returned to her home in this city Thursday evening from Sacramento, Cal., where she has been visiting for the past several weeks with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Keys. She also visited in Oakland and San Francisco.

Standard Oil Man Here—

W. L. Muncy of Portland, district sales manager of the Standard Oil company, arrived in this city Wednesday evening to spend the next few days looking after the interests of the company. Mr. Muncy is registered at the Hotel Umpqua.

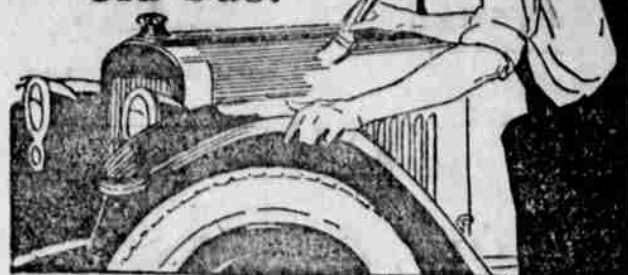

Here On Business—

C. H. Hamilton of San Francisco, manager of the lubricating department of the Standard Oil company, arrived in this city last evening to spend the next few days here in the interests of the company. Mr. Hamilton is registered at the Hotel Umpqua.

Showing Special Model Dodge—

J. O. Newland, local representative of Dodge Bros., is showing a special model Dodge put out by his company. The new machine is a handsome model, and comes complete with bumper and extra tire. Special leather trimmings are used which adds to the beauty and comfort of the car. The new balloon tires are used on this model giving the machine a low base appearance.

Put a new uniform on the "old bus!"

Is the hood sporting a weather-worn dull finish? Are the fenders decorated with rust spots and scraped places? Are the wheels the color of ground-in mud? Then it is time for a spick and span new uniform of

ACME QUALITY MOTOR CAR FINISH

Easy to apply. Full directions on every can. Puts your car up only for a day or two. We carry a full line of colors. We have some attractive color combinations to suggest. And the Acme label tells you the "quality" is right.

We also carry Acme Quality Hood and Fender Enamel, Auto Polish, Top Dressing and Engine Enamel

PIONEER DRUG STORE

Lloyd L. Crocker

Roseburg, Oregon

Frank Richmond, clerk in the local forest service office, and Forest Supervisor Carl B. Neal, went to Cottage Grove last night to attend the Chamber of Commerce meeting, and discuss matters pertaining to changes to be made in the Cottage Grove water supply as a result of timber sales on the national forest.

Mrs. T. R. Garrison was in town yesterday for a few hours shopping and attending to other matters. Mrs. Garrison is a resident of Oakland.

Win Her With Candy!

Box and Bulk Candy of all kinds— Always Ready for Your Order.

Ice Cream and Sodas a Specialty

Meet your friends at our big Fountain. Try Our Lunches

PALACE OF SWEETS

BROCCOLI SEED

Why Experiment?

All experienced growers are using acclimated St. Valentine Strain, grown under Oregon climatic conditions.

$25.00 PER POUND

Orders Taken for Broccoli Plants

Dr. C. H. Bailey

ROSEBURG, OREGON

PRINTZESS COATS

New Spring and Summer Styles.

Prices on this line of Beautiful, Stylish Coats are Very Moderate. We are also showing an attractive line of White Goods in way of Waists and Middies Come in and Slip on one of those Printzess Coats

I. ABRAHAM

THE SILK STORE

That's No Merry Jest.

By WINNER

WATCH

FOR

"TUBBY"

AND HIS DOIN'S IN THE DAILY NEWS-REVIEW

YOU OUGHTA SEE THE SWELL BOOK MY POP BOUGHT YESTERDAY. IT HAS ABOUT A MILLYUN PICTURES IN IT—I GUESS

I BETCHA MY UNCLE GOT A DICTIONARY THAT'S GOT MORE PICTURES IN IT THAN THAT

IT'S GOT PICTURES OF EVERYTHING THERE IS, I GUESS, AND YOU CAN FIND ANY WORD YOU EVER HEARD IN IT

I WOULDN'T HAVE A DICTIONARY FOR ANYTHING—I WOULDN'T TAKE IT IF IT WAS THE LAST BOOK IN THE WORLD, THEY'RE NO GOOD!

LIKE FUN THEY AIN'T NO GOOD! THEY TELL YOU HOW TO SPELL ANY WORD YOU WANT, THAT'S GOOD, AIN'T IT?

THEY DO NOT! YOU GOTTA KNOW HOW TO SPELL THE WORD FIRST, YOURSELF, OR YOU COULDN'T FIND IT—SO WHAT'S THE GOOD OF THAT?

Copyright by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.