questioning was delayed until later.
Senator Wheeler, prosecutor of the inquiry, then called to the stand J. E. Dyche now an Oklahoma City prohibition agent, and formerly warden of the Atlanta prison, who testified about narcotic prosecutions. Among other things, he said, he had "kept after" Heber Votaw, superintendent of prisons in the justice department for nearly a year trying to get him to send agents to stop drug trafficking. Votaw is a brother-in-law of the late President Harding. The aircraft records sent to the committee were those taken by the air service officers from Thomas F. Lane, who testified yesterday that he had been dismissed as legal advisor to the air service chief after refusing to "stay away" from the investigating committee. Secretary Weeks asked that in view of the important evidence involved hearing on prosecutions now pending the documents be kept in confidence.

M. S. Daugherty, whose books will be examined when the committee goes to Ohio, has failed to respond to a committee subpoena, and contempt proceedings against him are under advisement. His bank, the Midland National of Washington Court-house, permitted an examiner sent by the committee to begin an inquiry into its records and then required him to suspend his work because of the wide latitude given him by the committee.
The bank also has refused to send its records here for examination.
The questioning of Dyche, who recently testified before the oil committee, marked a departure of the investigation into an entirely new new field. He described in detail the failure of the justice department to curb the drug traffic, particularly at the Atlanta prison.

The witness said there were numerous violators of the drug law at the prison when he went there, and many convicts became addicts after their conviction. There was evidence that some of the guards took in the narcotics he said.

After he had urged Votaw for a year to do something, he declared W. J. Burns finally sent three "under cover" men. Four prison guards finally were indicted but none of them convicted.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Secretary Weeks compiled today with the request of the senate Daugherty committee for certain papers bearing on aircraft cases, but the personal appearance of the secretary for questioning was postponed until a later date.

The records which Mr. Weeks forwarded to Chairman Brookhart were those taken from Thomas F.
Lane, former advisor to the chief of the air service, when Lane was dropped from the service. The committee sought to get the papers yesterday from Captain W. F. Volandt who took them from Lane's desk, but Volandt replied that a personal summons addressed to the secretary himself would be necessary.

Committee members announced the secretary would be asked to take the witness stand today but a letter sent to Mr. Weeks by Chairman Brookhart contained no such request. It was said he would appear after the committee's present line of inquiry into charges of aircraft frauds had been completed.

In pursuance of this branch of its investigation, the committee again had both Volandt and Lane before it today and called other witnesses having a knowledge of the government's wartime aircraft program and the steps that have been taken since the armistice toward financial settlements.

Forwarding the papers to the committee, Secretary Weeks sent this letter to Chairman Brookhart:
"My dear Senator—I have received your letter of April 3 requesting that I send certain official records desired in a memorandum accompanying your letter and am accordingly sending the same by Captain W. F. Volandt, assistant chief, finance section, air service, who is familiar with these records and can assist you in referring to their contents."

"I hardly need to suggest that inasmuch as these are important records it is most desirable that they be carefully preserved and that they be withdrawn from this department for as short time as possible.
These papers relate largely to matters now in course of litigation or about to be litigated, and there is much in them which, if disclosed or made known to the defendants in the suits brought and to be brought by the United States, would result in great injury to the public interests. I have therefore to request that you conduct your examination of these papers in such a way as will not reveal their contents to the public at large at present.
"As indicating the importance of this matter, these papers are invested in suits now brought or about to be brought in 20 different cases involving an amount of about forty two millions of dollars. I may say, however, that there is no need whatever of secrecy in the case of the memorandum of May 26, 1921, issued by Major-General Charles T. Mencher, chief of air service, addressed to the secretary of war, setting up the reasons why settlement of certain war contracts in the air service ought to be re-investigated and re-audited and the exhibits thereto.

"An additional reason for the exercise of both care and haste in respect to these papers is that it is almost certain that they will soon have to be produced before a special committee of the house for an investigation of the activities of the air service, war department and the aviation of the navy and the aviation of the postoffice department.
In order that the war department's responsibility for the preservation of these papers may not be interrupted, I request that they remain in the custody of Captain Vol-

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The senate committee appointed to in-the department of justice decided today to go to Washington Court house Ohio to examine books of the Midland National bank of which M.

S. Daugherty is president.

committee desires to make.

SENATE PROGRAM AGAIN CONSIDERED

President Calls Conference of Senators To Consider Means Of Speeding Important
Legislation

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
senate program was the subject of another White House breakfast conference today attended by eight republican senators.

The conference was the second within three days, for the purpose of agreeing upon a concrete program for the remainder of the senate session and speeding up legislation to all ow congress to adjourn by June 1. Senators attending said the situation was discussed only in a general way.

Those invited to take breakfast with the president included Chairman Smith of the finance committee; Chairman Warren of the appropriations committee; Senator Capper of Kansas, head of the farm bloc and Senators, McNary, Oregon; Weller, Maryland; Edge, New Jersey; Couzens, Michigan, and Howell, Nebraska.

One of the legislative proposals considered was a farm relief measure. The president expressed the hope that some sort of legislation of an agricultural nature would be enacted and the discussion turned to the McNary-Haugen farm export corporation bill, which the president thus far has declined to support but which is advocated by the department of agriculture and most of the members of the farm bloc.

POSSES UNABLE TO FIND JONES

SALEM, April 4.—The search for (Oregon) Jones, only one of the six convicts who escaped from the state prison a week ago, still at large, continued with a thoroughness in the vicinity of Jefferson today, regardless of the fact that no direct trace of the fugitive has been found since he eluded his pursuers when seen with Tom Murray night before last about two miles west of Jefferson.
Deputy Warden J. W. Lilley, in charge of the possemen who have been combing the country, where Jones was last seen, still believed this morning that the hunted man is still within the posse lines which surround a brushy, marshy area of about two square miles, and that his capture is but a matter of hours.

U. S. BANKERS TO AID GERMANY

Endeavoring to Raise Capital for German International Credit Bank.

REPORT TO GOVERN

Official Action Is Withheld Pending Publication of Official Report of Commission.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
NEW YORK, April 4.—American bankers, anticipating recommendation of the Dawes commission for financial assistance to Germany are making active preparations to raise capital for a German international credit bank.

While official action has been withheld pending publication of the report, steps already have been taken to assure leadership in financing such an institution whose needs would absorb a large share of the proposed international loan.

Subscriptions to the bank's capital will be made by virtually all of this country's leading financial institutions, it appears. Prominent international bankers have indicated their willingness to assist in raising America's quota, although the manner and extent of their participation will be determined by the nature of the Dawes report.

In addition to supplying funds for the establishment of the German bank, American financial interests it is believed will open the way for participation by France, Belgium and other foreign nations, whose assistance in financing the rehabilitation of Germany is one of the essential conditions on which the Dawes report has been framed.

How Brown Lost Out!

WHEN BROWN moved his factory to another city, he discovered that he would have to borrow money to carry on the business.

And there was the rub. For Brown was rather a seedy looking individual. The bank he visited took him for a poor risk. He didn't appear prosperous, didn't even look keen. They wouldn't loan him the money, and couldn't tell him their reasons for declining.

Yet these same banks had loaned money to men of far less ability—to men who knew the value of being well dressed.
There's many a man who fails to get all he should from business and life, simply because he neglects his personal appearance. First impressions are important impressions.

Perhaps you'll have need to borrow money from a bank, but it will always pay you to be well dressed.
