ROSEBURG, OREGON, MONDAY, APRIL 7, 1924.

CHARLES H. FISHER.

Oregon journalism and the state lost a fearless and forceful writer in the death of Charles H. Fisher, editor of the Eugene Guard, who passed to the Great Beyond in Eugene on Saturday morning. Charley, as he was known to his many neighbors here in Roseburg, had the faculty of combining unusual business ability and his inherent journalistic talent to the success of the several newspapers which he edited during his lifetime.

FIVE YEARS OF PEACE.

To hear some people talk, you would think that the world had learned nothing in the five years that have elapsed since the armistice was signed in 1918. As they look at it France and Germany are still practically at war, and no one can tell how soon other nations will be drawn in.

WILL COMPLETE SURVEY

The Roseburg boy scouts did splendid work last Saturday in securing the industrial survey of the city for the Chamber of Commerce. In most instances the business and professional men were more than willing to assist the boys, but there were several who refused to give them the information they asked for.

MANY CARS REGISTERED

The Chamber of Commerce is registering many non-resident automobiles these days, the high mark being reached Saturday when eighteen automobiles from a number of other states were registered at the Chamber of Commerce office.

will be very active in having all residents of other states register their cars. There are two objects in this registration: It apprehends those residents of Oregon who secure cheaper licenses in other states, and also assists the officers of the law in finding stolen cars.

A democrat dropped into our sanctum today and said he heard that the G. O. P. stood for "Grand Oil Party."

Spring has come again, but FALL is still in the air.

Germany may not be able to understand why France can borrow money in an emergency and Germany can't but the rest of the world does.

Ye ed. was walking down the main stem today when we passed a second hand store and the sidewalk was littered up with lawnmowers, washin machines, boilers and dishpans and the wimmen folks hadta walk in the gutter to get by and we couldn't help thinkin' about the other day when we saw the cop tell a kid to take his bicycle off the sidewalk and he dern near arrested the youngster for obstructin' the traffic.

Wasn't yestiddy a humdinger of a day or did yer wife make you clean up the basement?

The ball players were out in Laurelwood yestiddy smoothin' down the diamond which was all cut up this winter by parked cars.

People who have been bothered to death these spring days with insurance agents will be pleased to note that one has been put in jail in Akron, Ohio.

We note that a California judge has ruled that a wife strong enough to dance is husky enough to work, and this ruling should apply to the flappers who tell Maw they're too dern tired to wash the dishes.

Our many constituents have been houndin' us to death wantin' us to run for some office and we're willin' only we happened to think that about a year ago we purchased some bum oil stock in a Douglas county well and we're afraid to git in the public eye too dern much for fear we'll be hooked up with some oil scandal.

If any of you folks happen to see Walt Pierce would you mind askin' him when they're goin' to make that reduction in taxes he uster talk about.

Man of 74 Made Young in Three Weeks by Simple Method

FORMER KANSAS CONTRACTOR TELLS OF WONDERFUL RESULTS FROM TESTING KOREX COMPOUND.

Thomas J. Glascock, 74, well-known old time Kansas contractor, declares he has virtually been made young again by the recently discovered korex compound, which by many users is pronounced superior to "gland treatments," as an invigorator and revitalizer.

"I feel like I did at 35," says Mr. Glascock, "and seem to be getting stronger every day. During my three weeks' use of the new discovery, pains and weaknesses of many years' standing disappeared almost magically. Today I am as vigorous and supple as I was in the prime of life. Furthermore, when I began using the compound, my memory was virtually gone and I was almost blind. Now my mind is clear and active and I can read the finest print without difficulty."

In order to find out whether the results were lasting, Mr. Glascock waited six months before reporting on his test of the discovery. On this point he says:

"Every passing day strengthens my conviction that my restoration is not only complete but permanent. I can't express the happiness this great discovery has brought to me. It has made me 'young' again." Similar reports are being made almost daily. For instance, D. W. Wood of New Orleans, past 60 years of age, says: "The compound has brought me back to as good, healthy physical condition as I enjoyed at 35. I am apparently as supple as at 25 and my eyesight is better than for years. I would not take $5,000 for what the discovery has done for me."

The compound referred to by Mr. Glascock and Mr. Wood is put up in tablets for easy use at home by anyone. It has won the praise of thousands who suffered from nervous exhaustion, diminished vitality, vigor, muscular weakness, and lack of stamina and the elderly people have pronounced it "fountain of youth."

Prepared especially for such cases, KOREX COMPOUND is a blood purifier, and blood vessel, strengthening agent known usually in a form according to thousands who have used it. Enthusiastic reports from all sections of the world acclaim the compound as a speedy satisfaction in cases previously unmet.

Realizing that thousands of such cases "lay good to bed" in American distribution of this compound, have arranged for its sale to be placed in all drug stores, near Drug store, 341 South Street.

RAILROAD UNIONS ATTACK BILL

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The proposed Howell amendment to the transportation act was termed "the Plumb plan in disguise," in a statement made public today by a delegation representing western system associations of shoppmen here to present their "laws to the Couzens subcommittee" of the senate interstate commerce committee.

They declared the amendment, if passed, would "cause another nationwide railroad strike inside of two years." The delegation disputed the position of the standard rail unions that the amendment provides for representation of employees on a "majority basis" and denounced it as denying representation to numerous members of railroad shop associations and other independent railroad associations.

Maintenance and National Service

NATURE is both the ally and the enemy of the telephone. One of her forces, electricity, carries the voice of man afar. Others, as flood, tornado or sleet storm, can cripple communications in a large area through their devastating might.

Each pair of telephone wires in the Bell System is a pathway for reciprocal speech. When beaten down by the uncontrollable forces of nature, that pathway to fifteen million telephones is blocked, and none of the nation's voices can pass that way.

Reserve materials must be on hand, that storm damage may be repaired without delay. Adequate funds must be made available so that the cost of restoration may be met.

National telephone service is only possible through an organization capable of handling, on a nation-wide basis, the problem of maintenance as well as of operation.
