Board Hears Complaints Regarding Miss Tracy's Work and Also Hears Praise
From Patrons.

Miss Verlie Tracy and Miss Helen Casey, two teachers whose contracts were not renewed by the school board in the selection of toachers for the coming school tearm, were reinstanted last night at the regular meeting of the board after a number of patrons of the school appeared both for and against Miss Tracy. Charges were made that the teacher was arbitrary in fixing the grades of her pupils and that she was not fair in her treatment of them, often embarrassing them by sarcastic statements made before the entire class. Other patrons spoke briefly in praise of ber and they was appointed as a director at the recent special meet patrons spoke briefly in praise of her and urged the board to retain her for another year.

A. J. Geddes, who was appointed as a director at the recent special meeting, was present and qualified, and took part in the proceedings, which were opened by H. A. Hall who demanded to know why his son had been set back from the 7th to the 5th grade. He produced the boy's report cards which were explained by Prof. Oleman. The principal of the school stated that the boy moved here from Canada and that he had been taught under a system differing from that of the local schools. He failed to make an average grade in the 6th but was conditioned to the 7th. During the first few weeks in the 7th he made good grades but then failed to apply himself and at the end of the six weeks period was set back.

The parents claimed that the boy was permitted to play basketball and that this drew his attention from his studies. They claimed that he was advanced to the 7th grade to be able to play basketball with the team of that class and then as soon as the season was over was sent back. They
