

Everybody's "JIM HOP"

With the passing of "Jim Hop," the faithful $40-a-month servant who used to do all the chores, has come the need of a competent substitute.

In his place the modern housewife now employs a staff of "electrical servants" at a fraction of his wage.

Under the lines of this Company these "servants" cook, sweep, wash, iron, supply the lights and heat water at an average monthly "wage" of $8.50 a month; for electricity is amazingly cheap. The economies it makes possible, particularly in the laundry and in the kitchen, pay for the cost of the appliances over and again.

The best time to wire a house for a range and other needed appliances of course is when it is being built. However, any house, old or new, can easily be wired; every house should be.

When all your laundry can be done at home by an electric washing machine for 50 cents a month—don't you think it's time to act? We'll be glad to show you the best way to go about wiring and just what electric "servants" cost you and save.

CHINESE PIRATES MAKE BOLD ATTACK

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
PONG KONG, April 12.—A large number of Chinese passengers aboard the steamer Tai Lee, bound from Konkoon for Hong Kong, were fired upon and robbed in the Canton river delta last night in the first piratical attack since promulgation of the new anti-piratical regulations.

The Tai Lee was accompanied by the steamer Sunning under the new convoy designed to frustrate piracy. Pirates posing as passengers invaded the engine room while confederates on the river bank simultaneously opened fire. The robbers ordered the engines stopped in the hope the craft would drift aground. While special guards and European officers were returning the fire of the pirates ashore, members of the gang on board the Tai Lee robbed passengers and ransacked their quarters.

Several passengers were wounded. Discouraged by spirited resistance of the vessel's defenders, the pirates leaped overboard and under cover of darkness swam for shore but not, however, before three of their number had been killed.

The convoy ship Sunning hurried to the Tai Lee's assistance in response to signals and after the attack escorted the latter vessel to Hong Kong. One of the Sunning's passengers, a Chinese woman, was killed by a stray bullet.

are Christian workers, earning $5.00 a month, and they support not only their families, but also other Christian workers.

Following the above report, a short business meeting was held, at which it was decided to hold the annual election of officers in February, instead of March; and also to hold a social gathering in June.

For the devotional exercises Mrs. Smick read the 6th chapter of Isaiah and the 2nd chapter of acts, and prayers were offered by Mesdames Goettel, Bettis, Fisher, Thachrah and Smick.

The study of the American Indian was then taken up. Mrs. Thachrah read that in 1876 Indians from Fort Simpson went to Fort Wrangle, Alaska, to work for the government. The Indians, for religious reasons, refused to work on Sunday; they were threatened with imprisonment; but a champion came to their rescue, and they were allowed to observe Sunday as a rest day. After several years one of their number opened a school of 60 students and the other Indians supported the work.

Mrs. Bodie read of Sighgonala, a beautiful Indian girl of twelve, who accepted Christ on her death bed and then asked, "Why did not the white men tell the Indians of Jesus' love sooner?"

Mrs. Fisher read of the many rites performed for the ill, and of the sand pictures made to heal the Navajo Indians and the strong hold the medicine man has on his fellow men on account of the fear of death among his tribe.

Mrs. Grinstead read that there are many converts among the young Indians at school; but when they return home it is made hard for them to be loyal to Christ; as the medicine men and the old Indians almost persecute those who have given up the religion of the tribe.

Mrs. Goettel read a short article on the "Needs of the Hour."

Mrs. Smick read an interesting article about Miss Helen Clark, who worked among her "beloved Spokesmen", where for many years the work was supported by Mrs. Ladd of Portland, until her death, after which it was taken up by an organization.

MRS. ELLSBURY
(Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury—I always have gone to my mother for advice but I haven't her any more, so thought I would write to you. I met a man about a month ago and we both fell in love. He wants me to marry him right now and is just insisting upon it. There is no reason for such a rush that I can see. Do you think it is ever wise to marry after only a month? I am sure I love him, but I want to wait awhile. I am only 19.
PUZZLED.

PUZZLED—It would be wise to wait several months at least. Being engaged is very nice, and a month is too short an acquaintanceship on which to be married.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury—Is it all right for girls who are only sixteen years old to go out to dinner with boys? What should they wear?

INKY AND PINKY—No, you are too young to go to restaurants with boys. Ask someone to chaperone you if the boys wish to take you out to dinner. Wear a hat and coat, or hat and suit. Anything appropriate for street wear.
