PRUNE MEETINGS ARE ANNOUNCED

This week has been set aside as prune organization week. Nine meetings will be held in the prune growing sections of the country. County Agent Cooney says that every prune grower in the county will have an opportunity to familiarize himself with the new plan of marketing prunes in the state of Oregon.

Meetings will be held at Oakland April 21 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon; at Yoncalla the same day at 8 o'clock in the evening; at Elgarose April 22 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and the same day at Umpqua at 8 in the evening; at Riddle on April 23 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, also on the same day at Canyonville at 8 o'clock in the evening; at Myrtle Creek on April 24 at 8 o'clock in the evening; at Looking Glass on April 25th at 8 in the evening, and a final meeting on Saturday, April 26, in the city hall in Roseburg, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The county agent feels that every grower should inform himself thoroughly regarding this new contract whether he signs up or not. The prune growers have reached the parting of the ways insofar as markets are concerned. The grower seems to be forced to go into the business of marketing his own crop with that of his neighbor, the steps with which this is accomplished is of extreme importance to every prune grower. A good working committee has been appointed by Director Neuner to work with the county agent during the present week. Mr. Cooney has been informed that Mr. Kenneth Miller, president of the Oregon Growers will

ELKS DANCE THURSDAY

MAJOR MARTIN READY

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
DUTCH HARBOR, Alaska, April 21.—With Major Frederick Martin, commanding a circumnavigation flight of the four army planes, expected here today from Kanatka, Alaska in the flag plane Seattle, preparations for the quartette to take the air this week for Nazan Bay, Atak Island, 350 miles to the west, were pushed today.

Smith, Nelson, and Wade, showed considerable fatigue after a journey from Chignik, Alaska, 400 miles eastward, flown Saturday in seven hours, but all seemed in good health.

The weather here was good early today and Major Martin was expected to make the flight from Kanatka, 520 miles to the northeast, in one jump.

THAW INSANITY IS DISCUSSED TODAY

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—The jury trial to determine the sanity of Harry Thaw was resumed in common pleas court today with Dr. Charles W. Burr, an alienist testifying that Thaw is still insane. When the case was adjourned last Thursday, five alienists had testified that the slayer of Stanford White was sane and safe to release from the Pennsylvania hospital for mental and nervous diseases and four others had expressed the opinion that he was insane and would be a menace to the community if released.

Dr. Burr was called to the stand by Arthur G. Dickson, counsel for the trustees of Thaw's estate, who are opposing Thaw's release. The alienist said he had examined Thaw three times recently at the request of Mr. Dickson and without any suggestion as to what was to be expected from him.

"I think Thaw is a case of so-called moral insanity," said Dr. Burr in reply to questions. "He has little or no mental control and is compelled by his condition to follow his impulses. He has not the moral strength to resist vicious impulses."

"Was there any other sign of insanity?" asked the court.
"No, there was not," said Dr. Burr. "I could find no trace of intellectual insanity and could not call him insane except upon the whole history and record of his case."

Mr. Dickson asked:
"In your opinion has Thaw been fully restored to a sound state of mind?"

"In my judgment he has not," was the reply.

Dr. Burr added he believed that if Thaw were released he would come into conflict with the law on account of some abnormal act.

"Might this take on the form of whippings?" he was asked.
"Yes, I believe it would," Mr. Dickson resumed:
"Did you ask Thaw about the killing of Stanford White?"

"Yes, and he said it would take him, I think, about three days to tell me about it," the witness replied.

"Did you ask why he killed White?"

"Yes, I asked him if he killed White because of White's relations with Evelyn Nesbit and he answered: 'Yes, that's why I killed him.'"

Dr. Burr testified that Thaw was physically normal.

Questioned as to the alleged whippings of Frederick Gump Jr., for which Thaw stands indicted in New York, Dr. Burr admitted that the fact of the whipping did not of itself prove Thaw to be abnormal.

Shifting to the incident aboard ship, when Thaw, then 15 years old, stepped on the band of a child playing on deck, Dr. Burr, said it demonstrated the person was brutal and cruel, rather than abnormal.

When Thaw's aged mother came into the court room, Harry showed the same affection for her and the same care in seeing she was comfortably seated as he did on previous occasions.

In concluding his testimony, Dr. Burr said he based his belief that Thaw is morally insane principally from the Gump case.

"There is no other reason to give," said the witness.

WOMAN LANDS BIG CHINOOK SALMON

While fishing at the forks of the Umpqua yesterday afternoon, Mrs. R. H. Nichols of this city landed a 43-pound Chinook salmon after a battle which lasted an hour and fifteen minutes. Mrs. Nichols was using a broken trout pole and was not prepared for such a hard fight. She was using a light line and number 5 triple barbed spinner when the salmon struck. In spite of the handicap of her light and broken outfit, Mrs. Nichols fought the fish with every trick of the true sportsman, and finally succeeded in bringing the big salmon in reach of the boat where it was landed. Although Chinook salmon weighing forty or fifty pounds are frequently caught, it is seldom that such a large fish is landed on a trout outfit, particularly when the pole is in poor shape.

GEORGE DOLAN DIES THIS AFTERNOON

George Dolan, aged 22 years, a native of Douglas county, died this afternoon following a long illness. The young man had been in poor health for a couple of years and went to California several months ago and returned much improved, and his friends hoped that he would recover, but during the past few months he failed rapidly, and death came this afternoon. He was the young son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Dolan and lived practically his entire life in this city. Besides his parents he leaves a sister Gertrude and two brothers, William and Edmund. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

MAN CHARGED WITH THREATS TO KILL

Joseph Paul Bowling, recently of Kelso, Washington, was brought to this city last night by Deputy Sheriff Powell of Oakland and placed in the county jail charged with threatening to kill his wife, Mabel, their young baby, and L. P. Rapp at whose ranch the woman has been employed.

Bowling, according to the story by Mr. Rapp and Officer Powell deserted his wife last November and went to Kelso, Washington, where he found employment. Mrs. Bowling obtained a place at the Rapp ranch where she has been working to support herself and child.

Friday, it is claimed, Bowling returned and also obtained work at the ranch. He immediately started to cause trouble, the district attorney was informed, and insisted that his wife accompany him back to Kelso. She did not want to do so, preferring to stay at the ranch near Oakland. He became abusive, it is stated, and threatened to kill the woman. Persons around the ranch fearing that he would carry out his threats emptied all of the guns and hid the cartridges. He finally became so abusive that Rapp ordered him to leave whereupon he procured a rifle, according to the story told, and pulled the trigger in an effort to shoot the ranch owner.

Deputy Sheriff Powell was called and placed Bowling under arrest and brought him to Roseburg. The case was placed before District Attorney Cordon, who will determine the charge upon which the man is to be arraigned.

CHORUS OF FIFTY IN BOHEMIAN GIRL

"The Bohemian Girl" will be presented Wednesday afternoon and Thursday evening at the Antlers theatre by a cast of high school students. The production includes a chorus of about 50 voices in addition to a cast of about ten. Miss Edna Haseltine, director of music in the public schools of Roseburg, has worked for several weeks with her proteges, and the results promise to be worth the effort.

The opera is quite different from anything ever attempted by the local high school musical talent. Miss Haseltine believes that the school should stand for the better things in music and that the students should be started at least at high school age in applying themselves to the study of worth while things in music.

Balfe's "Bohemian Girl" was chosen because it is rich in wonderful old favorites of everyone, some of these being "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls," "The Heart Bowed Down," "Then You'll Remember Me" and others.

Miss Evelyn Quine will sing the part of Arline and Miss Dorothy Cordon the part of the Queen of the Gypsies. Paul Trueblood will take the part of the Count of Arnheim, Harold Bemis of Thaddeus, and Ray Burt and Eugene Bowden of Devils.
