ROSEBURG, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 22, 1924.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

Prof Grimme of the university of Munster in Germany, claims to have deciphered ancient tablets found on the Sinai peninsula, which are supposed to be the original tablets of Moses containing the Ten Commandments.

Some people, if they get into some situation of danger where courage and resolution are needed, will become so rattled and excited as to greatly lower their chances of successful escape.

Young men who are considering whether they will attend the citizens' military training camps, might well think of the advantages of this experience as a school in discipline.

Fine time to nab bootleggers—especially those fellows who are peddling the poisoned stuff. They get quite active when a celebration of any kind is being staged.

All the Umpqua Chiefs lack in the way of proper regalia is a squaw and a couple of papposes—with a handful of paint thrown in.

And the queen and her attendants certainly looked the part. Douglas county against the world for beautiful girlhood.

One thing defeated candidates may be thankful for is the fact that they won't be in the running in November.

Well, the carnival ought to be a hummer.

Every day is a feature day.

PRUNE PICKIN'S BY BERT G. BATES

GOOD EVENING FOLKS— Wasn't she a pip Of a day folks And hain't ya glad That Prophet Bell Begged of Juice To leave the spigot Turned off.

DUMBELL DORA THINKS That a strawberry festival is a desert.

Our little Dora was crowned queen of the valley at sunrise this a. m. the coronation ceremony taking place on the pinnacle of Mt. Nebo.

Dora will not attempt to take any honors away from Queen Mary but says they can't slip anything over on her.

OUR NEW CONTEST Prune Pickin's takes great pleasure today in announcing the spirited contest which closes tomorrow night in which a king is to be elected.

Mayor Nap vice was out on the main stem today wearin' a new fall derby. Nap looked like a regular sheik only he didn't have sideburns on.

A feller called up this a. m. today and asked whether he oughter spit the seeds out when eatin' strawberries.

Hi French, who is wearin' a cop's sash this week, had a cabbage rose in his coat lapel this a. m. but was forced to change to a bud later when he found that his emblem of authority had been obscured from view.

The boys band looked like a million bucks today and those youngsters before long will be forming the personnel of the Doug. Co. Concert Band.

The nat. guard fellers had on their unies today and the damsels were followin' them around as per the war days.

An airplane will soar over the village for a couple days and those who have sore necks will be forced to lie on their backs to take in the exhibitions.

The h. s. pageant will take place tonight and as previously announced the classical dancers will not take a chance on the acorns.

The funniest thing about us is that we always cheer loudest when the orator tells us we are a great people.

Another case of selfishness is Jeremiah Heath. He takes his food in capsules so he can save his teeth.

Chauncey Depew is right about it when he says the world is getting better and better. Time was when men took a bath on Saturday night and went to church on Sunday.

Fact—Fact is what prevents a gray faced old rounder with wrinkles in his face from reminding a youthful-looking woman in knee length skirt that they were boy and girl together.

The conference committee which has been wrestling with the revenue bill for several days without reaching a result, now faces a new problem, and it is difficult to see how the committee will be able to meet it.

Love is the quality that persuades the stenographer to marry the boss and work for him thereafter without a salary.

A vaudeville act was criticized for vulgarity because a girl's skirt was supposed to be blown off by a bomb; she had no right wearing one.

Too many parents think the art of raising children consists in saying: "Run away and don't bother me."

Didja ever see such a keen baby pader?

The proud mama and paps were on the side lines cheering lustily for the various entries and right they should be—that was something to be proud of.

Strawberries may come and strawberries may go but prune'll be with us forever.

STATE PRESS COMMENT What Now About Tax Reduction? Now the soldiers' bonus bill, despite the president's veto, has become a law, the revenue bill becomes far more important and more complicated.

These conventions were for the most part held in secret. The ordinary voter does not know who attended, who presided, whether recommendations were directed by bosses or higher-ups, or machines.

It is not proposed that this convention shall take the place of the direct primary, or deprive by its recommendations any party member of his right to seek nomination by direct vote of his party.

A Congressman's Veto President Coolidge's veto of the bonus bill was as commendable as it was courageous. The arguments he advanced are unanswerable.
