ROSEBURG, OREGON, FRIDAY, JUNE 6, 1924.

OREGON HIGH ON EXPORT LIST.

Oregon stands thirteenth on the list of exporting states, according to figures for the first quarter of 1924 just released by the department of commerce, which show for the first time exports from the United States classified by states in which the shipments originated. Only six states west of the Mississippi passed Oregon in the race for foreign trade in this quarter and two of them were Texas and Louisiana, which export the bulk of American cotton, one of the largest single factors in our foreign trade.

Oregon was first of all the states in foreign shipments of grain, and only one state exceeded it in exports of timber and lumber. Oregon apples also made a big showing in the quarterly statistics. Total value of Oregon exports in this period was $20,273,030, giving the state a good lead over ten states that exported between $10,000,000 and $20,000,000 worth of goods and over 25 states exporting less than $10,000,000. Important items of Oregon exports were wheat, grain and flour, $10,486,713; apples in boxes, $1,222,073; cedar timber, $2,361,407; cedar boards $1,883,165.

New York had the largest exports in the quarter, $183,846,000; with Texas second at $147,255,000; Pennsylvania third at $57,655,000; New Jersey fifth with $57,277,000. A Pacific state, California, was sixth, exporting in the quarter goods valued at $53,196,000; Louisiana, with its huge cotton exports and Latin American trade, was seventh at $52,875,000. Michigan owed eighth position largely to shipments of $32,000,000 worth of automobiles; Virginia, her ninth place, mainly to leaf tobacco; Washington, tenth, to grain, timber, and copper ingots. Ohio was eleventh with large shipments of iron and steel products and automobiles and tires, and Massachusetts twelfth with a miscellany of commodities. Oregon, as stated, was thirteenth.

This is the first time in the history of government trade statistics, according to Dr. Julius Klein, director of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, that an attempt has been made to show the relative position of the different states in the struggle for foreign trade. Formerly official trade figures gave only the port from which shipments were cleared. Inland producers, anxious to find out what agricultural and manufactured products came from their regions, petitioned the Commerce Department to adopt some new system. The outcome has been the new compilation, which is based primarily on export through-bills-of-lading and, therefore, as the director explains, in the case of some states reflects but a part of their total foreign trade and for others includes goods produced elsewhere. The element of seasonal fluctuations also should be considered. Dr. Klein believes that the new service will in time develop into one of the most interesting and valuable records of the nation's export growth. It is planned to get the figures out quarterly.

A fine of four hundred dollars and sixty days in jail for distributing illicit liquor through bootlegging channels seems a bit severe to some people, but to the citizen who believes in law enforcement the judge's edict sounds sane and reasonable. Persons who persist in flagrantly violating the prohibition law must sooner or later realize that the measure must, and should be respected, like any other law on our statute books. And just and equitable sentences from the courts is about the only way to convince some people of this fact.

Our street cleaning department is to be commended. The city is getting better service at this time than evidenced for a long period. This fact is very noticeable and highly commendable to those in charge of the work. In times past a cluttered and untidy appearance was of frequent occurrence, but no such conditions exist today.

The long drouth experienced in this county the past two months was broken this morning by a copious rain. If the much-need downpour continues for any length of time a wonderful amount of good will be done the crops throughout the county. All kinds of vegetation has been retarded for the want of rain.

The two Chicago murderers who snapped out the life of the Franks boy will be in the limelight until justice has taken its course. And if justice gets an even break the two rascals will get the punishment they rightfully deserve.

Let 'er rain some more old Jupe. We are short some fifteen inches in our normal rainfall for the season and if you cannot spare the full quota, give us at least five inches before you close the spigot.

The city beautiful campaign has done wonders for Roseburg, and is now beginning to show amazing results throughout the entire community. Let the good work continue.

Some of the people who pride themselves on being self educated, seem to think it necessary to present themselves with a diploma on many occasions.

The bill collectors are just as alert during the first days of June as any other month in the year, with the possible exception of January.

Don't overlook the Wilbur reunion of pioneers tomorrow. This is some annual event of more than ordinary interest.

SPECIAL DELIVERY

The burglar had just begun his term and was assigned to work in the broom factory. Near him was an old-ish man who studied him intently and seemed to be awaiting an opportunity to say something. It came while the overseer was at the ice water tank.

"How long are you in for?" he whispered.

"Twelve years," replied the newcomer.

The veteran looked around nervously and thrust a letter in the burglar's hand.

"I'm in for life," he said. "Mail this when you get out."

HOME-SWEET-HOME

A returned soldier found a pretty looking card in France and brought it home to have his wife hang in the parlor. It read:

"Ici on parle Francais."

"What's the idea?" she demanded. "That means 'French Spoken Here' and you know you don't."

"Well, I'll be darned," ejaculated the ex-soldier disgustedly. "The guy that sold it to me said it meant: 'God Bless our Home!'"

REPUBLICANS TO MAKE CAMPAIGN

Officers Elected and Organization Perfected to Handle Political Campaign.

ED YOUNG IS CHAIRMAN

Dr. Seely, Retiring Chairman, Urges Support of Committeemen in Putting Nominees in Office.

A meeting of the Republican County Central Committee was held at the court house yesterday afternoon, with a good attendance of the delegates. Those present were W. F. Harris, E. J. Wainscott, Riley Hammersly, S. Raines, Frank Norton, T. H. Grae, Benton Mires, George W. Riddle, A. E. Shiria, D. R. Shambrook, Peter Sinclair, C. B. Wade, John Bacon, R. O. Thomas, Ed Young, Dr. A. C. Seely and George Bacon.

Dr. Seely, who has served for the past two years as chairman of the county committee called the meeting to order and made a short address prior to retiring from the chair.

He stressed the fact that the duty of the central committee is to put the party's candidates into office, and although some nominations may have been made which were not individually approved, yet it is the duty of the committeemen to do their best to see that the candidates nominated are placed in the respective offices for which they are seeking.

All parties make mistakes, he said, but republicans believe that the party they represent has made fewer mistakes, and has accomplished more than any other party has ever done and has earned the right, through its achievements, to remain in power. The republican presidential nominee, Calvin Coolidge, he proclaimed to be the strongest man the party has championed since Roosevelt's time.

He rapped the existing primary system as allowing men of inferior calibre to practically nominate themselves for office, and stated that although the old convention system had many faults, that it was the better of two evils.

He urged the committeemen to given their complete support to the new officials and to back the party organization to the limit.

In the election which was then held Ed Young of Oakland was elected chairman; George Bacon of Looking Glass, Secretary; W. F. Harris of Roseburg, treasurer. D. R. Shambrook, state central committeeman, and S. Raines of Myrtle Creek, congressional committeeman.

A motion was then carried authorizing the newly elected officers to fill in the vacancies for precinct committeemen and to select the membership of the executive committee.

Chairman Ed Young then called upon a number of those present to make short talks, all espousing the unanimous endorsement of the party ticket and urging complete support for the party's nominee. The meeting was very optimistic in tone, and it apparently was the general opinion of the committeemen present that the Republican party will carry the coming election without difficulty.

And that trouble can only be reached by Joint-Ease, an active emollient that soaks right in through skin and flesh direct to the joints and ligaments.

Isn't it about time to discard powders and medicated baths that only reach the outside of the skin?

And rub on Joint-Ease, that in two minutes starts to soothe and heal the inside troubles that cause soreness and burning.

Rub it on tonight and if there is any burning left in the morning, it won't be enough to bother.

Always remember when Joint-Ease gets in foot agony and burning get out—quick—60 cents a tube. All druggists.
