

AS SKEPTICAL FROM FIRST SAYS BOUSSER

Tanlac Won Confidence Correcting Stomach Trouble of Long Standing.

After taking Tanlac I had not a real appetite in three years. Indigestion had hurt me any time I don't believe I could have declared Harry H. Bousser, 22 years a miller, with the Milling & Elevator Co., and, Kans.

There was always a feeling like a ball in the pit of my stomach and in the stomach and pain was so bad that I couldn't even stoop. Combined with this I had a sour, bad taste in the mouth, constant, dizzy spells, unstraining and a feeling of wretchedness all the time. I was down to 130 lbs., in weight, the lowest I had been since a boy.

"As nothing else ever helped me I was skeptical of Tanlac at first, but Tanlac soon won my confidence, for good results came from the very start. In a few weeks my three years of dieting and misery was over. I was eating everything and my stomach feeling like new. Tanlac also ran my weight up to 146 lbs., and left me strong, well and happy, and I gladly state the facts for what they may be worth to others afflicted as I was."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

What God Says about - OUR LAWYER

"We have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous." When a Christian sins, the fact is known in Heaven. Indeed, Satan comes into court against that sinning Christian. At the same time, the Christian is aware that his fellowship with Heaven is broken. If, sensitive to the fact, he humbly confesses his sins; his lawyer, Jesus Christ, whom he in fact retained when he first believed on Him as a Saviour, his lawyer, his advocate, takes up the case in Heaven.

Jesus Christ the righteous, because of the eternal efficacy of His own sacrifice, in effect replies to Satan's charge, "It is true he has sinned, but he belongs to me; my blood paid the price of his salvation from all sin." And the case against that Christian is dismissed, and fellowship between Heaven and his soul is restored.

But look, you unbelieving friend, you have no lawyer, no advocate in Heaven. "Jesus Christ is our advocate," the lawyer of the believer. It is true Satan doesn't make any charge against you there now. He is quite too well satisfied with conditions as they are concerning you to make any stir. Just indifference to Christ and to God, that is sufficient for his purposes. But there will come a day all of a sudden when you will be summoned to court and you will have no lawyer, and the charge will be neglect of the salvation provided in Christ. And you will be declared guilty and sentence will be pronounced.

Oh, friend, acknowledge that sin now, turn around and face Christ as your Saviour now, and at once advocacy and all things needful are provided for your welfare.

How's Your Stomach? Any Distress?

Salem, Oreg.—"I wish I could tell how thankful I feel for having heard of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, for they have brought me so much relief since I have been using them. For years I have had the worst kind of stomach trouble; after eating I would have a feeling of nausea, a sourness, and a sort of suffocation with heartburn. Things were very miserable for me. I had to eat to keep alive and yet I knew every time I ate this awful condition would return. I have tried all kinds of things that I thought would help and often have gone without food in the hope that things would be better. I am now feeling the greatest freedom from pain in my stomach and bowels that I have felt in years and I give the Pleasant Pellets credit for it."—Mrs. I. E. Ziegler, 449 South 18th St.

SLAYER OF GIRL IS HANGED TODAY

good luck, prosperity, a long, happy life on this earth and a happy home in heaven hereafter.

George Edward Whitefield.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 13.—George Edward Whitefield, convicted of the murder of Anna Nosko at Vancouver, Washington, was hanged here this morning at 4:35. He was pronounced dead at 4:44. George Edward Whitefield was convicted here May 5, 1923, of the murder of Anna Nosko, an eleven-year old school girl, who was brutally attacked and slain near Battleground, Wash., on March 8. The girl met her death while on the way home from school.

Circumstantial evidence resulted in the conviction of Whitefield, who lived on a ranch near the scene of the crime. The girl was beaten upon the head, her throat was cut and she was assaulted, according to evidence presented at the trial. Her body was dragged to a thicket, and bits of her clothing were found on a barbed wire fence.

A bloody knife, which was identified as having belonged to Whitefield was introduced in evidence at the trial, and blood spots on Whitefield's clothing were declared by an expert witness to have been human blood.

The prosecution introduced testimony of a fellow prisoner of Whitefield in the Clark county jail, who said Whitefield had made a confession of the killing, but Whitefield on the stand denied that he had made such statements.

DARING BANDITS LOOT MAIL TRAIN

could not be released.

Sandy McRea, the flagman on the rear end, was surprised when he walked to the rear end of the train and was met by a robber who had been hiding somewhere in the rear coach.

"He confronted me," McRea said, "and ordered me to the ground and then escorted me to the side of the train and lined me up with the rest of the boys."

B. W. Jeffery, one of the mail clerks, declared the men in his car intended to protect their mail pouches and did until the robbers let go the gas attack.

"When we heard the shots we became suspicious that the train was being held up," Jeffery said. "One of the boys turned out the lights and we concealed ourselves. Suddenly some one pounded on the door and said 'come out or we'll shoot.' They did begin firing, but that failed to bring us. Then something crashed through one of the windows and a voice from the outside announced 'Now you'll come out.' The air in the car became stifling and tears rolled down our faces. We had to unbolt the door and get out as we could not stand it any longer. The robbers promised not to shoot if we came out without resistance. We were not in much shape to resist after the gas attack."
