LOVE-OR FAME?

by VIOLET DARE
Author of "The Half-Time Wife"

DOROTHY LANE goes to New York to visit. PERSIS GRANT and try to break into the movies. She meets LAWRENCE FRENCH, a young publicity man, and after a quarrel with Persis, goes to a girls' club with SYLVIA STRAINS and lives there. Through French she meets JOHN SEWARD, a famous star, and is engaged as his leading lady in an independent production that he is making.

XXI—"I LOVE YOU!"
IT WAS gorgeous when we got to the Cape; we stayed in a tiny little town, and before we did any work at all we spent one long, glorious day out on the rocks at the ocean's edge, finding just the right place and re-hearing what we were to do. Mr. Seward went over every bit of my part with me, and truly the way he'd worked it out was wonderful.

VIOLET DARE

sun and wind and dashing waves seemed to have got right into my blood, he swept me up in his arms, and then kissed me on the lips again and again. Mrs. Phipps wasn't there, and somehow, the film caught in the camera at the very end, so that the camera man had to give it his attention. I was glad of that. I know that my face must have been blazing. I heard Mr. Haynes say, "Rather hot stuff, John!" as John Seward let me go, but I rushed away down a little path in the rocks; we'd planned to leave that evening, and I'd told them that I had to pack, so when I thought about it afterward I realized that Mr. Haynes would think that was why I'd hurried away. I didn't go back to the hotel, though—I didn't care whether I ever packed my clothes and went back to New York or not. I could only think of one thing—the way John Seward had kissed me. And I didn't want to think of that. There was a little nook in the rocks, or by itself, where you could sit and look straight out to sea; I clambered up to that and just sat very still, trying to get hold of myself, but somehow I couldn't. I found myself crying—crying hard, too, though I didn't exactly know why. And then somebody scrambled up the rocks, and I felt John Seward's hand on mine and heard him say, "Don't cry, dear—didn't you know that I loved you?"

I sat there trying to get hold of myself.

Tomorrow—My First Proposal.

GOOD MEETING AT DRAIN LAST NIGHT

Another excellent booster meeting was held last night, this time between the business men of Elkton, Yoncalla and Drain. The meeting was held at the Perkins Hotel in Drain, where a delightful banquet was served preceding the business session. As has been the case in all of the previous meetings, the men present were well pleased with the plans for boosting Douglas County, and were enthusiastic over the outlook as presented by the various speakers. All present entered into the spirit of the occasion with a whole-heartedness which speaks well for the future of the communities represented. Jake Allen of the State Chamber of Commerce made another of his fine addresses, and Will E. Holbein, secretary of the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce also addressed the meeting. There were many other talks given. Mr. Holbein and Mr. Allen left Drain this morning for Reedsport where a meeting of the residents of the lower Umpqua district will be held tonight.

GOOD TIME DANCE

At community hall, Sutherland Friday night, June 13. Music by Sharrards Syncopators. Everybody come and have a good time.

STATE GRANGE TO BE ENTERTAINED

A committee composed of J. E. McClintock, James Hutchings, Jack Wharton, Ben Zigler and H. W. Shaw from the Chamber of Commerce were interviewing the business men today relative to the luncheon to be given the State Grange caravan at the Greens school house south of this city Wednesday noon, June 18th. Some time ago representatives of the local Granges called on the Chamber of Commerce for cooperation in making this luncheon a success, and the above committee was appointed to look after the details. It is hoped that a large number of our business and professional men will attend this luncheon and meet these strangers and make them welcome to the Umpqua Valley. It is expected that a large number of farmers will attend the luncheon.

LARGE SHIPMENT OF GOODS FOR NEAR EAST RELIEF

Six large boxes of canned milk, and on package of canned milk, the entire shipment weighing 426 pounds, and 24 sacks of clothing, weighing 874 pounds, made up Roseburg's contribution to the Near East Relief during the campaign last week. Under the direction of Mrs. W. A. Smick, chairman of the local committee, the goods were packed and sent to Portland, and will be made up there for shipment with other Oregon donations to Syria and Armenia. Mrs. Smick had able assistance from the Boy Scouts who aided in gathering the supplies and who assisted in the other work.

Takes pills for years—finds first permanent relief in Kellogg's Bran

Have you found permanent relief from that terrible disease—constipation? The woman whose letter follows discovered—as thousands have discovered—that Kellogg's Bran succeeds when all else fails. This is because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be so effective. This is what she wrote:
"Gentlemen: I am so wonderfully happy over my recovery. I feel I must tell the world about it. For years I have been ill continually from constipation, always resorting to pills or the line, never having any permanent relief until I heard of your Krambled Bran. Every morning I take two tablespoonfuls before my breakfast—and since the latter part of August I must admit have not experienced one sick spell which I have had for years. I have started my little girl of four years on your Bran, and already I have noticed a change in her. I thank you.

Name and address furnished on request. Write the Kellogg Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krambled, is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic cases of constipation. Eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Money returned if not effective.
Notice the wonderful nut-like flavor. This flavor is delicious—so different from ordinary, unpalatable bran.
Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krambled, made in Battle Creek, is served by America's leading hotels and clubs. Demand Kellogg's Bran. It will bring back your health. Start eating it today. Sold by all grocers.
