ROSEBURG, OREGON, TUESDAY, JUNE 24, 1924.

BEGINNING TO SEE THE LIGHT OF DAY

It is quite gratifying to "listen in" on a conversation between a California resident and a native Oregonian these days. Time was when you couldn't mention any state in the union to a native of California but he would tell you that the land of oranges and artificial shade trees had the world beat.

The words "rags, bottles, sacks" will bring almost instantly to mind the thought of a bearded man with loose fitting clothing seated on a creaking wagon drawn by a slow-moving horse. While the railroads cannot be placed in the "junkman" class, a report just made public by the Southern Pacific reveals that last year a savings of $2,531,878.72 was made through the accumulation and reclamation of materials that might ordinarily be classed as worthless.

Pretty fine stuff for the people of the Umpqua Valley—the Pacific Ocean only three and one-half hours drive from Roseburg to the beach at Bandon. But wait until we get the highway completed to the mouth of the Umpqua. Then we can jump in our flivver in the morning and have breakfast at eight with the mermaids.

The road up the North Umpqua means a whole lot to Douglas county. Borrowing the money to cooperate with the government would be a good investment. At any rate, we should not lose track of the fact that it is of too great importance to be considered lightly.

Roseburg is keeping up its usual building activity. Many beautiful homes are being constructed, others neatly repaired, grounds put in splendid condition and a most excellent showing of home thrift throughout the entire city.

The Willie Boys are but little stirred by the reports of political corruption, but they are very indignant if someone is discovered putting too much flower in the ice cream.

Not true that the boys have no judgment, as they are very keen in picking out the best looking girls.

The vacation period is here and everybody wants to take advantage of the season at the same time.

The people who never pay their bills don't seem much worried about the high level of prices.

Don't forget the big celebration at Oakland July 4.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING TODAY

A special meeting of the city council will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock to consider the report of the committee investigating the purchase of a plant for use in patching the city's pavements.

NOTICE WATER CONSUMERS

Water will be shut off during the hours between 2 and 4 p. m. on Wednesday, June 25, effecting all consumers west of the Standard Oil Co. plant at Elmhower.

PRUNE PICKIN'S BY BERT & BATES

GOOD EVENING FOLKS— This is the time of year when a feller Doesn't care Whether the Alarm clock works Or not.

DUMBBELL DORA THINKS A lollipop is a good daddy. HAMMOCKS He was just a simple mortal With a kindly, trusting soul, An attribute that somehow Gets a fellow in a hole.

THE LITTLE GREEN APPLES are appearing and the doctors hope for business to pick up.

THE Ump. Chiefs gathered at their wigwam last night and counted their wampum.

'Wonder how many folks will get a finger shot off this Fourth of July?

Poison likker'll probably take first honors on the casualty list.

The sun continues to beat down upon us and with the shade shorts so acute the town loafers are f'ggerin' on packin' lumber-shoots.

A Calif. fliv passed through here today with a family of eight. They were all grinnin' except Paw.

SHOWING WHAT A COUPLE OF WARM DAYS WILL DO TO A FELLOW.

Oh, for a shady nook, Afar from snooping bosses, Who count the moment loafed As just so many losses.

Oh, for a quiet place, Removed from paths of duty, Where vassal feet plod on While others grab the booty.

Oh, for a solitude, Afar from human labors, And graphophones and jazz And busybody neighbors.

Oh, for time for sleep, And sleep and still more sleeping, Unmindful of the noon Or evening shadows creeping.

Oh, for a brow that's freed Of drops of sweat to trickle, A soul that knows no grief Of fortune, shy and fickle.

Oh, for a thousand years Of life that's grand and solemn, But, gosh; that's not for us, We've got to fill this column.

Bill Mutt is back in our midst and things are beginnin' to look as of old.

Lucky is the guy who has a spare tire hangin' on the ol' bus these days.

The legion aggregation are gittin' ready for the annual barn dance on next Friday night and all of the hay-shakers and prune pickers of the valley will be on deck to shake a wicked carcass.

CASHIER OF BANK GETS 10 YEAR TERM

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)—MEDFORD, Ore., June 24.—Percy H. Bell, former cashier of the Gold Hill Bank of Gold Hill, indicted by the last grand jury upon nine counts charging misappropriation of funds, false entries, and false reports to the State bank examiner, was sentenced to serve ten years in State prison late Monday by circuit judge C. M. Thomas, following a plea of guilty. The doors of the bank were closed March 21, last, Bell was taken to Salem by automobile Monday night and will be "dressed in" at the prison today.

Bell made a clean breast of the affair and replaced all but about $2,000 of his approximately $10,000 shortage. He also offered to assign sixty percent of his salary, from a position offered to him, until the balance was paid. These and other circumstances were presented to the court by his attorney, Porter J. Neff. Bell broke down completely and wept bitterly when sentence was pronounced. He has been at liberty on bonds since the close of the bank.

The ten year sentence is the same as that meted out to W. H. Johnson, former cashier of the Bank of Jacksonville, who will soon be paroled from prison, according to reports, and has posted bonds to face a charge in the federal court for alleged alteration of liberty bond serial numbers.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL TO END

The vacation daily Bible school conducted by the Christian church will come to an end this week. The school has been very successful from every standpoint with a good attendance in every department, and with a great deal of interest shown. On Thursday evening a public demonstration of the work of the school is to be held at the Christian church and an interesting program is expected. The new junior orchestra will make its first appearance, and the school's various departments will demonstrate the work which they have taken up during the past month.

On Friday the church is giving a picnic for all of the children of the school and all of the church membership. The picnic is to be held in Bellows field starting at 1:30 p. m., and lasting until late in the evening.

THEATRES

LIBERTY THEATRE Paragot, "The Beloved Vagabond," of W. J. Locke's romance, whom Carlyle Blackwell brings to life in the attraction of the same name coming to the Liberty Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, furnishes one more proof that we love people as much for their faults as their virtues.

Paragot, with clean finger-nails, Paragot without his weakness for grandiloquent speech and for the glass that cheers, would be a more admirable man; but he would lose much of his colorful charm.

Carlyle Blackwell's portrayal of Paragot is the first character part he has ever played, although he has starred in 371 films.

ANTLERS THEATRE For once in the history of motion pictures a player gives a great performance and receives no credit for it in the advance announcements of the production.

In Clara Beranger's mystery play, "The Bedroom Window," a William deMille production for Paramount, a player is accused of murdering a banker and is finally trapped. In the closing scenes, when the slayer is led out to his doom by a detective and a police officer, he almost collapses, the player giving a performance which strikes a sympathetic chord in the audience.

Malcolm MacGregor, Ricardo Cortez, Robert Edeson and George Foxwell all have featured roles in "The Bedroom Window," which will be the feature at the Antlers tonight and Wednesday. Which of these is the guilty one? The picture tells. May McAvoy and Ethel Wales are also featured in principal roles.

FORMER RESIDENTS MEET AT PICNIC

PORTLAND, June 24.—Former Douglas county residents several hundred of them, met at Peninsula park Sunday for their 13th annual reunion. After a basket lunch at noon a brief business meeting was held. George E. Johnson was elected president. Other officers elected are: Life Manning, vice-president; M. F. Wright, second vice-president; Nancie Drain of Silverton, secretary, and Laurie Rice Gastor, treasurer.

LOGAN CROP TO GO AT FIVE CENT PRICE

SALEM, June 24.—The Salem loganberry pool members met last night at the Chamber of Commerce with Frank Hrubetz presiding and heard a report from a committee appointed some time ago to make arrangements for disposal of the product. The committee reported on relations with the Star, Hunt Brothers, and Northwestern canneries. These concerns, it was said, will not enter into contracts, but at present are taking berries a five cents. The yield is smaller than was expected and it is believed there is no doubt that the entire crop will be sold at that figure.
