COUNTS SHOW TRAFFIC INCREASE

(Associated Press Wire.)
On June 26.—An unusual annual increase in the amount of traffic on Oregon highways during the past year is the result of the results of the State highway census taken June 15. Tabulating the traffic counted at one hundred and fifty points on the state were made, the census showed that the total vehicles which were 143.78 per cent were passenger cars, bearing Oregon licenses; 22.87 percent were passenger cars bearing licenses of other states and Canada; 5.6 percent were trucks of 1.5 tons in weight and under; 4.15 per cent were trucks of over 1.5 tons in weight; 1.5 percent were horse drawn vehicles and 9.60 percent were motorcycles.

EN AND WOMEN IN NEWS OF THE DAY

MRS. ASA Candler & ASA G. Candler.
Mrs. Candler, Atlanta, Ga., multi-millionaire manufacturer of Coca-Cola, has filed suit there for a divorce from her husband, charging cruel treatment and humiliating conduct. He married a May Little Hagin, a public stenographer, after breaking his engagement to a New Orleans society leader and winning a suit for $5,000 for breach of promise which she brought. Rev. Dr. Percy Gray Grant, nationally known for his modernist interpretations of Bible, has resigned from the pastorate of the Church of the Ascension, in New York City. His resignation was accepted by the board of trustees because Bishop Manning refused to permit the wedding of the grounds that Mrs. Lydie had been divorced from both Lydie and W. E. D. Stokes, millionaire sportsman. There is an unconfirmed report the wedding will now take place.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

by
MRS. ELLSBURY
(Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: I know that a girl of seventeen and a boy of 20 are supposed to be too young to marry, but I am going to tell you about us, and see if you don't think we are different. In the first place I cannot go to school, and I have no home of my own, or no near relatives. I am not a girl that likes to go around a lot, and have always wanted a home of my own. He is young but has always had to work, and has a good job with the railroad. He has no home either. We have gone together a long time, and neither one of us care anything for anybody else. I just feel that we will be happy.

ANNETTE: Yes, my dear, some way I feel that you will be happy too. As a rule youngsters of your age are too young to marry, and have no idea of the responsibilities that married life incur. However, through being thrown upon the world and compelled to earn your own living you have become developed far beyond your age. Your letter shows you to be a sweet sincere girl, and I am sure you will be happy.

This Pretty Girl Defies Age By Using Ordinary Buttermilk To Beautify Her Complexion

Tells Druggists not to take anyone's money unless this delightful new vanishing Cream quickly shows a decided improvement.

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dull, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough hands or arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin.

No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crows feet or lines around the mouth, only finger nails, or just a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream.

To prove this to your complete satisfaction, get a small quantity today at your favorite toilet goods counter with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money should you be dissatisfied.

Beautiful actresses say, "A short massage with Howard's Buttermilk Cream at night before retiring is all that is necessary."

PERFECT PLANS FOR COUNTY CHAMBER

Organization of a county-wide Chamber of Commerce has been completed and the task of issuing a publicity booklet has been undertaken. The executive committee is made up of A. F. Sother, president; W. J. Weaver, vice-president; T. H. Ness, treasurer; Will E. Holbein, secretary; O. C. Baker, Dexter Rice, A. J. Hochradel, L. L. Crocker, Guy Gordon, Roseburg; J. L. Lyons, Roseburg; C. S. Fancey, Drain; Earl Strang, Yoncalla; E. F. Burnett, Oakland; Mark Tisdale, Sutherlin; G. R. Bates, Myrtle Creek; D. S. Beale, Riddle; L. E. Henniker, Canyonville; A. G. Clarke, Glendale; H. L. Edmunds, Gardiner; R. O. Thomas, Elkton, board of directors. The directors residing outside of Roseburg each head their local units and are members of the land settlement board of which Guy Gordon of this city is chairman. All communities are now at work compiling data and securing photos for the 16-page county booklet which is proposed to issue in the very near future.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Roseburg, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

ROSEBURG ELKS ENJOY AN OUTING

The Roseburg Elks, motored to Canyon Camp near Canyonville last night where they enjoyed a picnic dinner and dance. Over a hundred Elks and their families attended the gathering which was probably the most successful ever sponsored by the local order. Dancing continued until midnight with Sharrard's orchestra providing the music. The affair was such a big success that the Elks are planning on another one before the summer is ended.

CHILD TEACHING URGED BY PREACHER

(By Associated Press.)
GLASGOW, June 25.—"We cannot win the world by beginning with the aged," declared Rev. D. W. Kartz, president of McPherson College, Kansas, to the World's Sunday School Convention today. "Childhood is our only opportunity."
"Christ did not choose old men," he continued, "but young men. We know this because a generation after his death his apostles were still active, and were martyred in the midst of an active service. We know, further, that only young men could have received such a revolutionary message. The aged were prejudiced, set, faded. The young are open-minded and can learn the new truth. Winning the world through childhood is the true way, first, because the childhood of today makes the world of tomorrow. This is true whether we like it or not. If we want to do anything for the future, we must do it now—for the childhood of the race." "Save an old man, and you save a soul; save a child and you save a soul plus a life for God."

"The childhood of today will build the institutions of the future—our homes, schools, churches, states, industries, and institutions. What kind of institutions will they build? That depends upon the ideals we give them now. The Christian education of childhood is the supreme task of the race, but the supreme problem is to get the mature to assume this task. Christ set a child in the midst of his followers as the key to the Kingdom of God. By this sign we must conquer."

"The great tragedy of Protestantism is that we thought this was an old man's world," he continued. "So we have made a failure of our civilization. In the United States there are 88,000,000 people who profess no religion—neither Jew, Catholic, nor Protestant. Most of these have come from Protestant homes. We lost our children. Churches spent their time with creeds, dogmas, lectures and ceremonies for the mature, and have not yet wakened up to the fact that the mature have no reason to exist, except to bring up the immature."

INDIANS MUST LEARN TO FASHION NEW TYPE OF TOURIST SOUVENIR

(By Associated Press.)
CASS LAKE, Minn., June 26.—Dance fashion who, ever since the Indians relinquished their land, has smiled upon the red men, making their characteristic creations popular with the white brethren, now is frowning upon the offerings of the dexterous tribesmen.

Dr. W. D. Heagerty, superintendent of the Ojibway Sales Agency, says that the Indian's contributions to curio collections such as beaded things, blankets, lace handkerchiefs and miniature birch-bark canoes, must be revolutionized to further capitalize the modern white man's passion for novelties.

The superintendent blames fashion alone for the complicated situation which the agency, promoted by the Episcopal Diocese of Duluth, now is attempting to solve by teaching its Indian proteges that, to continue in the bloodless fight against the high cost of living, they must cater to the fantastic whims bestowed by custom upon their white neighbors.

In years past, according to Dr. Heagerty, the Indian, or rather his squaw, found a ready market for the waste paper baskets, work baskets, miniature canoes and other trinkets, which they made with their own hands. But now fashion decrees that it is no longer correct to have these carves in sight around the house, so sales have fallen to virtually nothing.

Ojibway women also make exquisite point lace handkerchiefs which formerly brought fancy prices, but custom holds that they are no longer in style, so these one-time popular ornaments go begging, says the superintendent.

"Another conflicting angle," Dr. Heagerty continues, "concerns the beadwork on bags, moccasins and chains done by Ojibway women. The cost of glass now is so high and the quality so inferior that bead work cannot be done at a profit."

"And the worst of all the Indian, deprived of his tribal costumes by the advance of civilization, cannot understand all of this. It is especially difficult for them to turn their talents to other channels."

The problem was revealed to mission workers during the first year's operation of the Ojibway Sales Agency. This agency was established to help the rapidly diminishing tribesmen to bridge the gulf between themselves and the white man's civilization by effecting "an economic and moral reformation."
