

SHIRTS

THERE are very few shirt makers who have been making shirts for as many years and as good shirts as the Arrow manufacturers. The long experience, the patient study of patterns and materials and the slow but steady up-building of a corps of trained hands is behind the excellence that is hallmarked by an Arrow Shirt label.

THEATRES

Liberty Theatre

Yes indeed! And what a scene! The screen version of Joseph Vance's popular "The Wolf" at the Liberty Theatre, Monday and Tuesday nights. This exciting romance and adventure story starring Jack and Jack's supporting cast including: Tyrone Power, T. Haines, Charlotte Johnson, Ethel, Gustav, Lucy Fox, Edouard, and McAllister and William. The cast of screen celebrities, dignity, prestige, and genuine real pantomime.

Antlers Theatre

It is the big test of character, the surest proof that the hero of "The Trail" which opens at the Antlers Saturday night is a film that is a William Fox production, "Donnegan" is a red-blooded story by Owen Baxter.

Jones plays the leading character and fits into it well. Marian Nixon is opposite him again, and the cast includes Charles Frank Nelson, George Reed, Conway, Virginia Warwick, Elaine and Harry Lonsdale. The mining town in which the action takes place furnishes many possibilities for picturesque settings. The dance hall, the saloon—all the landmarks of a typical gold town are thrillingly portrayed.

William Wellman, who has been so successful in directing pictures which feature Charles Jones, is at his very best in this—"The Vagabond Trail."

FIRST EARLY PEACHES

A nice lot of peaches of the Alexander variety were brought in today from the Roy Prox farm at Brockway. These peaches are among the first local grown to reach the Roseburg market this season. The fruit is fine for early variety and is slightly earlier than usual, owing to the break season, which has been rather dry and warm for the Umpqua valley. Former County Fruit Inspector Armstrong brought the fruit in, and the News-Review was presented with several samples of the peaches, which were duly appreciated.

What God Says about - BODILY CONTROL (No. 2)

"I keep under my body and bring it in subjection."

"What for, Paul? "Because I am not my own, I am bought with the price and I must—nay, I may,—glorify God in my body." And may we, too, Paul? "Certainly, if you are believers in the Lord Jesus Christ."

Your bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost. But you must not forget that it is an earthly temple, and the blood that flows through it often cries out for indulgences, which, if permitted, will dim the light, and silence the voice of the Holy Spirit in His temple. That's why I say no to these bodily demands many times, that I may keep my body in subjection to His Spirit.

Oh, brother, think of being a temple of God—the sacredness, the beauty, the grandeur of being a house of God where other people may see Him and worship Him. Do you remember what an awful calamity we felt had befallen when the cathedral at Reims was destroyed. But God is not nearly so much concerned over anything like that as He is when the bodily temple of a Christian is shot to pieces by self-indulgences.

CHICAGO BROADCASTS MUSIC AND MARKETS FROM MANY STATIONS

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, June 27.—The broadcasting of entertainment with the radio, one of the greatest achievements of the day, finds Chicago near the top of the list of city "hosts." While not claiming the most powerful, its ten active broadcasting stations give it a distinction in numbers and variety of programs.

Including the stations that have passed out of existence, among them WBBM, operated by the city of Chicago, there have been 16 working in Chicago and its suburbs within the short time broadcasting has become popular.

The city's pioneer in the broadcast field, KYY, is still in operation. It probably has shown less change than any of the others, as far as ownership is concerned. However, it has been greatly improved in all respects.

The former station WDAF, now WGN and owned by the Chicago Tribune, grew from the dreams of two amateurs. At the start a low powered transmitter, it has advanced to a station that can reach Australia. It previously was owned by the Chicago board of trade.

Station WAAF, owned by the Chicago Drivers' Journal, has its principal broadcasting period devoted to the distribution of livestock markets. It too is one of the city's older stations.

The first station to be operated here exclusively by a newspaper, WMAQ, owned by the Chicago Daily News, also is an "old-timer." It has been improved until now it has a record of many long-distance listeners.

Following in the list of stations is WEBB, formerly WJAZ, which is now partly maintained by the Chicago Evening Post. One of its principal achievements has been the late night transmission of the news of the McMillan Arctic expedition. The call letters WJAZ are to be given to a new station to be erected here.

Other stations are WTAY at Oak Park, WTAS at Elgin, official American Legion station, and WCBD at Zion, located in the Chicago district. WTAS is being improved to make it the most powerful station maintained and operated exclusively by an amateur. WCBD is owned and operated by Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Christ Catholic Apostolic church in Zion. Its principal feature is the broadcasting of classical music and the services at Zion Tabernacle.

The youngest station WQJ, was preceded by WLS, in whose operation the Chicago Herald-Examiner cooperates. Of the newer stations, WLS is the most powerful and in its brief existence has piled up a lengthy distance record.

It Started Something

"I have not said anything to you, but have been saying to others and have induced many to take your medicine and be convinced. May's Wonderful Remedy is correctly named. It removed stuff from me I never thought could be in a human being and I feel like a different person. The pain in my right side disappeared at once, which four doctors said would require an operation; also the bloating and indigestion." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis.
