

Brewing is to a beverage what sunshine is to fruit!

There's 62 Years of Brewing
Experience Behind

WEINHARD'S
Columbia Brew
HENRY WEINHARD PLANT

LOCAL NEWS

In the basement of the church one day each week.

Visiting With Son—
Mrs. E. L. Church of Albany is visiting in Roseburg at the home of her son, Dr. H. C. Church.

Returns From Grants Pass—
William Stapleton has returned to this city from Grants Pass and is working at the Roseburg Apartments with Charles Mahan who has leased the place.

Forks of River Popular—
The forks of the north and south Umpqua rivers yesterday was a popular resort and hundreds took advantage of the cooling waters for a swim. Cars were parked for several hundred feet up and down the road and many picnic parties spent the day there away from the heat of the city.

Return from Salem—
Foster Butler and son Leslie, returned yesterday from Salem, where they have been attending to business matters. They are arranging to ship some cherries from that city to the eastern market. The Butners have shipped five carloads of cherries from this city so far this season, the majority of the crop being Lamberts.

Visiting With Relatives—
Mr. W. P. Miller and wife of Aurora, Ill., are spending two months in Roseburg visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. P. Lintott and Mr. and Mrs. William Duxell. Mr. Miller is an engineer on the railroad in Aurora. He is greatly impressed with the coast country, particularly Oregon and states that Roseburg is one of the most delightful cities he has visited.

Tacoma Minister Here—
Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Hill of Tacoma, were guests at the L. C. Davis home on East Douglas street Sunday. Rev. Hill is pastor of the Epworth church of Tacoma, and with Mrs. Hill has been visiting in California with relatives. They left Monday for home, accompanied by Mrs. Davis and daughter, Nellie, who will accompany them as far as Vancouver, Washington, where they will visit a few days.

Scouts Prepare For Camp—
The troop commanders of the Roseburg Boy Scouts will meet tonight at the Baptist church for the purpose of discussing plans for the annual summer camp which will probably be held this year at Wolf Creek. A fine spot has been located for the camp and the scouts are looking forward to a fine time this summer. Their last camp was at Diamond Lake and while it was a delightful place the distance to and from Roseburg was too great and caused great inconvenience from the standpoint of transportation.

Rainbow Gardens Popular—
The opening dance at the Rainbow Gardens at Winchester Saturday night attracted a large crowd from people from all parts of the county. The floor was hurriedly completed Saturday for the dance and temporary lights strung to provide light for the place but the dancers enjoyed the open air dancing immensely. On Thursday night, July 2nd, the second big dance will be held at the Gardens and a large crowd is expected at that time. The roof to the pavilion will be started this week and sides will also be constructed. Rainbow Gardens promises to be one of the most popular resorts in the county and the Blue Devils orchestra will strive to conduct a clean and respectable dance at all times.

From Marshfield—
Miss Art League closed a school at the M. E. church on Saturday. Miss L. L. Lunt, director, wishes to extend on behalf of the league to all others who helped. Arrangements have been made to continue the meetings.

Ready for the Glorious Fourth!
We are ready with a grand line of
FISHING TACKLE AND CAMPING SUPPLIES
and let us help you make your selections for the holiday outing.
Miller-Fe Hardware Co. Phone 25
Watch our Windows for Bargains Every Day.

LOCAL NEWS

To Adjust Fire Loss—
R. H. McCurdy of Medford arrived here this afternoon to adjust a fire loss.

Riddle Barber Visits—
Bud Crow of Riddle was a business visitor in Roseburg for a few hours today. Mr. Crow is employed as a barber in Riddle.

Mrs. Perkins Improving—
Mrs. J. Ellen Perkins, who has been suffering from neuritis for some time past, is reported as slightly improved today.

Coquille Man Here—
George Jung of Coquille was a business visitor in Roseburg today. He reports things as prosperous in Coquille.

Portland Folks Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Pete Whitley of Portland are visiting in this city for a few days. They are friends of Dr. and Mrs. Lee Wells.

California Visitors—
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kogelschitz of San Francisco, are visiting at the W. S. Brosi home in Winston. They are relatives of the Brosis.

On Camping Trip—
Rev. Stewart O'Dell and family and Rev. and Mrs. Caldwell left this morning for Peel where they will spend the next week enjoying a camping trip.

Advertising Man Visits—
Joseph R. Gerber and family passed through the city today enroute from San Francisco to their home in Portland. Mr. Gerber is the head of a large advertising agency in Portland.

Montana Man in City—
J. P. Gensman of Columbia Falls, Montana, is a visitor in Roseburg this week. Mr. Gensman was attracted to this city by favorable reports of the locality and hopes to purchase some land here.

Woman Breaks Arm—
Miss Jane Downing of Cleveland, Oregon suffered the misfortune Saturday to break her arm. She was given medical attention by Dr. Shoemaker and is reported as resting easy.

Levi White Here—
Levi White, a world war veteran, is spending a short furlough at home. He is a patient at the veteran's hospital at Walla Walla where he is undergoing treatment for tuberculosis contracted during his period of service.

Enroute To California—
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. C. C. of Walla Walla, stopped in Roseburg last night enroute to Los Angeles for a visit this summer with friends there. On returning they will take up school work at Laurelwood Academy near Portland.

Goes To Portland—
D. E. Carr left this morning for Portland where he will attend a conference of Chautauqua workers. Mr. Carr is in charge of the ticket sale for the local chautauqua and will discuss a number of important matters relative to the local program with the officials at Portland.

Ministers Renew Friendship—
Rev. E. M. Hill occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church for Rev. Knotts on Sunday evening. Rev. Hill is from Tacoma and during his stay here renewed his friendship with Rev. Knotts which began many years ago in Mexico City.

Nebraska Girl Visits—
Miss Priscilla Drenn of Lincoln, Nebraska, has been spending the past week in this city visiting with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. McAllister, C. W. McAllister and Mrs. Joe Howard of Happy Valley. She will leave Tuesday for Portland where she will spend a short time visiting with relatives.

Doc Fight Was Fierce—
A combat between two canines furnished a thrill for the waterfront section this morning and the fracas was not quelled until Bert Willard wielded a shovel over the head of one of the animals. A large bull dog attacked a small pup and fought so fiercely that by standers were unable to stop him. Much blood was spilled on the sidewalks before the shovel was brought into play.

Memberships Secured—
"Stop Forest Fires Association," a new organization sponsored by the State Chamber of Commerce is this week securing members in Roseburg. There is no charge to belong to the association but each member is pledged to aid in saving the forests. The agents are making a big campaign for members as the result of a contest. First prize for the patrol securing the most names is $10 and second prize $5.

Spend Night Here—
Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wright, of Portland, spent the night in Roseburg and continued their journey today by auto to Crater Lake where they will remain for a short time. On their return they will visit Crescent City and Marshfield. Mr. Wright has extensive holdings in the bay city. He was formerly editor of the Portland Oregonian during the time that Harvey Scott had control of that paper.

Back For The Summer—
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Street have returned from Malin in Klamath County where they have resided during the past school season. Mr. Street is principal of the Malin school and has charge of the agriculture department. They are now residing at Camas Valley. Mr. Street has been offered the principalship of the Malin school again next year and will return with a substantial increase in salary.

In From Umpqua—
Charles Churchill of Umpqua was a business visitor in the city today.

Leaving for Vacation—
Edna Lough will leave tomorrow for Klamath Falls where she will enjoy her annual vacation.

Eugene Man Here—
Roscoe Townsend of Eugene, was a business visitor in Roseburg today for several hours.

Here From Eugene—
J. W. McFadden of Eugene, a former resident of this city spent a few hours here today on business.

To Visit Friends—
Miss Rita Gates left this afternoon for Myers, where she will spend the next several days visiting with friends and relatives.

Return From Trip—
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson have returned from a motor trip to Crater and Diamond Lakes. They report fishing good at Diamond Lake.

Relief Truck Driver—
Claude Crocker is relief fire truck driver taking the place of Fire Chief Fletcher who is in Bellingham this week inspecting new fire equipment with members of the city council.

Dismissed From Hospital—
Charley Williams, who has been a patient at Mercy hospital for the past two weeks, was dismissed today and is at the home of J. O. Newland recuperating from his illness.

Return From Camping Trip—
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knapp and son and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burr and two children returned to Roseburg today from the Burr ranch near the fork of the river where they have been spending the past week enjoying camp life.

Visit in Lakeview—
Miss Vivian Ourett left Saturday evening for Ashland where she will be met by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thornton and their niece Miss Carmen Atterbury of Lakeview, and will return to Lakeview with them to spend the month of July. They will return by way of Crater Lake.

To Eugene—
Mrs. A. C. Spencer and children, Mrs. C. B. Patrick, and Miss Clara Patrick, will leave tomorrow for Eugene. Mrs. Spencer will visit in Eugene for a few days before returning to Roseburg. Miss Patrick will remain with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Patrick, for several weeks.

Return from Bandon—
Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Harness, Clarice Jewett and Audrey Weatherford returned last night from Bandon where they spent the week end. They attended the opening of the large dance pavilion at that place. They report that the pavilion was unable to care for the large crowds which attended.

Kenneys Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kenney and little son, who reside near Portland arrived in Roseburg Sunday to visit with Mrs. Kenney's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Blinger Hermann, Mr. and Mrs. Kenney, and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Throne left today for Coos Bay points where they will remain until Wednesday.

Accepts New Position—
William Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hudson, of this city, has accepted a position with the McCormick Steamship Company in Portland. Mr. Hudson has been attending business college in that city and will continue his studies at night classes. He is well known here, having attended the local high school for several years.

Photo of City Hall—
Mayor Napoleon Rice has a fine large tinted photograph of the city hall on display at his office. The picture shows the vines and roses in their true color. The city hall which is almost covered by the vines and climbing roses has attracted a great deal of favorable comment from tourists and is one of the scenic spots of the city.

Petitions Liberally Signed—
The petitions addressed to the county court asking them to borrow $25,000 from the court house fund for the completion of the Mill Creek bridge on the Roadport highway and for expenditure on the North Umpqua road are being signed freely this week and several hundred names will be attached by the time they are presented. One of the petitions is at the Hotel Umpqua.

Leaving for Crater Lake—
Attorney Geo. Neuner, wife and children, will leave tomorrow for Medford, where they will join Mr. and Mrs. A. Benson Searle, of Washington, D. C., and A. S. Rosenbaum, district freight and passenger agent of Medford, and the party will motor to Crater Lake, returning here the latter part of the week. The gathering is in the way of a reunion, all parties having had a long acquaintanceship, and the occasion will prove a very enjoyable one.

Will Inspect Fire Engine—
Leo Devaney left last night for Bellingham, Washington, where he will join councilmen Hes, Kohlhaugen and Shambrook and fire Chief James Fletcher, and will inspect the Stutz fire apparatus now in use there. Mr. Devaney is an expert mechanic and his advice is wanted by the councilmen on the mechanical construction of the equipment. It is expected that a most thorough investigation will be made of the Stutz engine and comparisons made with other apparatus in order that the council may act intelligently upon the bids to be submitted on July 7.

Your Last Chance to Get This Beautiful
17-Piece Japanese Lustre

Tea Set FREE!

Thursday is positively the last day on which our premium of a beautiful 17-piece blue and gold Japanese lustre tea set will be given FREE to purchasers of an A-B-C electric washer!

SETS ARE NEARLY GONE!

Only 20 of these beautiful tea sets were ordered from the factory. Roseburg women were quick to take advantage of the double bargain—a genuine high-grade A-B-C washer sold on terms of only $2.25 a week—and a premium of the Japanese tea set to the first 20 purchasers. Sets consist of

8 TEA CUPS
6 SAUCERS TO MATCH
TEA POT WITH COVER
CREAMER
COVERED SUGAR BOWL

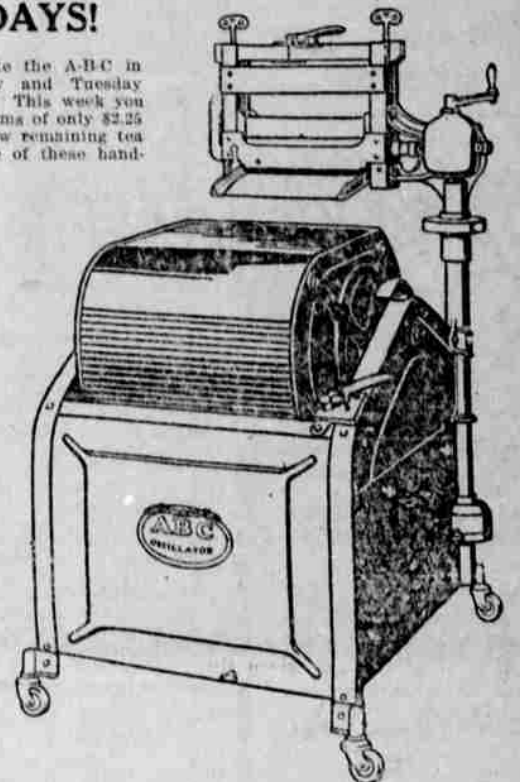

ONLY TWO MORE DAYS!

Special factory representative will demonstrate the A-B-C in our store for only two more days—Monday and Tuesday. You've always wanted a good electric washer. This week you can buy one of the world's best washers on terms of only $2.25 a week. And if you order now—before the few remaining tea sets have been given away—you will get one of these handsome 17-piece sets absolutely FREE!

ONLY
$2.25
PER WEEK

This Electric Washer

embodies both principles of washing—gently lifting and dipping, and tossing to and fro. Just turn on the current. In a few minutes your clothes are spotlessly clean and sweet. Delicate lace, dainty lingerie, and finest silks can be safely washed in an A-B-C!

A-B-C

Has heavy angle iron frame, enclosed metal cabinet, copper rocking tub, and adjustable metal wringer. This machine actually costs you nothing! Easy terms make it possible for you to use the washer in your home while paying for it—and you pay for the washer as it pays you. In a couple of years it pays for itself—and then you can use the amount formerly spent for laundry service for other things.

If you're ever going to own an electric washer, order an A-B-C today—and get one of the beautiful tea sets absolutely FREE!

Parslow Furniture Company

111 N. Jackson St.

Phone 116

Roseburg, Oregon

LOCAL NEWS

Here From Sutherlin—
Mrs. J. E. Swinden was a visitor in Roseburg today from Sutherlin, shopping and visiting with friends.

Mrs. Campbell Here—
Mrs. J. F. Campbell of Myrtle Creek was a Roseburg visitor today. Dr. and Mrs. Campbell are leaving soon on an extended trip east.

Former Resident Here—
Mrs. Ben Lorr, who formerly made her home in Roseburg, is visiting here for a few days with Mrs. Clyde Catching. Mrs. Lorr is from Portland.

To Build Another Court—
The Elks Island committee is this week making plans for the construction of another tennis court. The present court is in constant use and so popular is that game that the Elks deemed it advisable to build another one to accommodate the many who are taking to it.

Will Return This Week—
Mrs. J. O. Newland, who has been at Portland for the past several weeks enjoying a visit with relatives and friends, is expected home this week. She will be accompanied by her son, Morris, who has also been at the metropolis.

Return From Portland—
J. V. Casey, Mrs. F. W. Chapman, Miss Florence Fuller, and Miss Elizabeth Parrott drove back to Roseburg from Portland Sunday. Miss Parrott has been in Portland for several weeks visiting with Mrs. Ben Moore. The remainder of the party spent the week end in the metropolis.

Guarantors to Meet—
The Chautauqua guarantors will meet tomorrow evening at the Helpline Conservatory to lay plans for a Chautauqua Tag Day on Wednesday July 2nd. The meeting has been called at 7:30 o'clock sharp and it is requested that all chautauqua enthusiasts attend.

Training Race Horses—
Large crowds visit Oakland nightly to watch the workout of the many race horses at the track there. The trainers are preparing their steeds for the July 4th and 5th races and reports to this city are to the effect that many of the animals are the best type race horse.

Sheep Are Transferred—
Eleven hundred head of sheep were transferred from the Winchester range to Camas Valley by George Kohlhaugen yesterday. The good grass in Camas Valley caused Mr. Kohlhaugen to transfer the sheep from the Winchester range.

SALE!

EXIDE Batteries, Lincoln shock absorbers, Sparta Horns, Stromberg Carburetors, King Bee and Bosch Spark Plugs, Spot Lamps, Coils, Ignition Parts, Generator Parts, Ford and DeSoto Ignition Systems will be our line after July 10. All other accessories and parts will be reduced July 1st for ten days to cost and less, for quick removal.

A Complete Line of Accessories to Choose From.

UMPQUA BATTERY STATION

Phone 67
312 N. Jackson St. Roseburg
A. B. TAYLOR, Prop.