MANILA, July 12 .--- Military head quarters today issued a statement, commenting upon its change in pol-icy toward members of the Philip-pine scouts who recently refused du-ty at Fort McKinley. The statement in part follows:

In part follows: Following a careful review of the proceedings of the boards of officers charged with investigation of the un-fliness for retention in service of in-dividual Philippine scouts involved in disturbances at Fort McKinley, it has been decided that the testimony in many cases indicates their insub-ordination was much more active than we had supposed. In practic-ally all cases under consideration the individuals before the board ex-hibited an attitude of disrement and John Bowar, a li-year-old Yonkerls, N. 1., boy, was deeply religious. He stripped life of fun. When his daily task ended be sat down with his Bible to find that salvation held up to him by the priest of the little Russian Orbodox Church he attended. His sinter Anna is odly 14. When the los deeply carmined, he theught it the brand of damnation. She even spent 15 cents for a magazine that displayed on its cover a barenecked girl. He tore it from her as "as instrument of the girl was cutting a inst of brend when the brother repeated ahe was "had" and that some day he would have to kill her. She thrust the bread knife through his beart. through his heart.
