

Reserve District No. 12

REPORT OF CONDITION OF

The Umpqua Valley Bank

at Roseburg in the State of Oregon, at close business June 30, 1924.

RESOURCES

| | |
|---|---------------------|
| Loans and discounts, including rediscounts shown in items 29 and 30, if any | $432,599.28 |
| Overdrafts secured and unsecured | none |
| U. S. government securities owned, including those shown in items 30 and 35, if any | 62,889.09 |
| Other bonds, warrants and securities, including foreign government, state, municipal, corporation, etc., including those shown in items 30 and 35, if any | 151,499.23 |
| Stock, securities, claims, liens, judgments, etc. | 4,290.40 |
| Furniture and fixtures | 2,750.00 |
| Cash on hand in vault and due from banks, bankers and trust companies designated and approved reserve agents of this bank | 189,824.98 |
| Exchanges for clearing house and items on other banks in the same city or town as reporting bank | 9,056.29 |
| Total cash and due from banks, items 8, 9, 10 and 11 | $199,881.27 |
| Total | $832,880.34 |

LIABILITIES

| | |
|---|---------------------|
| Capital stock paid in | $ 50,000.00 |
| Surplus fund | 50,000.00 |
| (a) Undivided profits | 1,013.20 |
| (b) Less current expenses, interest and taxes paid | nil |
| DEMAND DEPOSITS, other than banks, subject to reserve: Individual deposits subject to check, including deposits due the State of Oregon, county, cities or other public funds | 538,376.46 |
| Demand certificates of deposit outstanding | 2,920.97 |
| Cashier's checks of this bank outstanding payable on demand | 850.55 |
| Cashier's checks of other banks, other than bank deposits, subject to reserve, items 23, 24, 25, 26 | $542,378.28 |
| TIME AND SAVINGS DEPOSITS, subject to reserve and payable on demand or subject to notice: | |
| Time certificates of deposit outstanding | 189,588.86 |
| Total of time and savings deposits payable on demand or subject to notice, items 27 and 28 | $189,588.86 |
| Total | $832,880.34 |

STATE OF OREGON, County of Douglas, ss:
I, J. M. Throne, cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
J. M. THRONE, Cashier.
CORRECT—Attest:
B. W. STRONG,
D. R. SHAMBROOK,
ROLAND AGEE,
Directors.

THOSE WHO COME AND GO

Falls and Cuts Arm—John McKinney, employed at the Joplin-Eldon quarry up the Umpqua river Thursday fell and inflicted a wound in the left forearm, says the Port Umpqua Courier.

Pioneer Citizen Is Buried—Jay W. Johnson, aged 71 years, a pioneer resident of Glendale was laid to rest July 2nd. Mr. Johnson was one of the oldest members of the Odd Fellows and Masonic lodges, having been a member of both orders for the past fifty years.

Joins Husband Here—Mrs. T. M. Langberg, of Eugene, arrived in the city last evening to join her husband here, the latter being identified with the evangelistic meeting at the tent on Rose street. These people will remain here for several weeks.

To Attend Convention—Many Roseburg Spanish-American war veterans will leave here tomorrow for Grants Pass where the annual encampment of vets will start on Monday. Commander Waddell will go to Grants Pass tomorrow to preside at the sessions.

Move to Roseburg—J. C. Whitehead and wife have moved to Roseburg from Albany and will reside here permanently. Mr. Whitehead is employed by the Southern Pacific company and has been transferred to this city after a year's stay in Albany.

Collection Suits Filed—Suits were filed in the circuit court today by Walter Thornberry against W. W. Garrison and others for $300 and by Theodore Anderson against Cordelia Ralston and others for $500, both actions being for money alleged to be due on promissory notes. Attorneys Rice and Orcutt represent the plaintiffs in both actions.

Captain Kidd Resigns—Captain Kidd Taylor, of the Coos Bay Pirates, perhaps one of the best known buccaners in the state, has tendered his resignation to the booster club of which he has been president. He gives as the reason for this action the condition of his health. He suffered a nervous breakdown several months ago caused by overwork and believes that a rest will improve him physically.

Visiting at Looking Glass—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller, of Endfield, Illinois, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Clingenpeel, of Looking Glass. They will stay here for some time, and the first of the week Mr. and Mrs. Clingenpeel will take their guests to Marshfield and the beaches by auto. Mr. and Mrs. Miller came here via the southern route, but when their visit is finished will return home over the northern route.

Mill Is Burned—The Glendale News carries an item telling of the burning of the F. N. Harrah sawmill, five miles north of Glendale on Cow Creek, together with 80,000 feet of sawed lumber and three small residences late Tuesday afternoon. The fire originated in a pile of sawdust and by the time help could be summoned the entire building was ablaze and the strong wind had carried the flames to the adjoining lumber yards where the lumber was destroyed. The fire was reported under control at noon Thursday.

Prune Packers Plan Meet—Northwest prune packers are expected to meet some time next week in Portland at which time it is expected serious consideration will be given to what will be the move of the packers in light of the present situation in the market. W. F. Drager is expected to put up to them his proposition of an organization of private packers to deal only with units affiliated with the exchange and bar all trading in prunes by private packers with anyone outside of the association.

Undergoes An Operation—The Marshfield Southwestern Oregon News has the following news story of interest to Roseburg people: "Little Raymond Leroy Crouch underwent an emergency operation at Smeberg sanitarium last night for a ruptured appendix. He had been visiting grandparents in Roseburg when the attack started but was rushed here for care. His father has been notified at Grants Pass and is expected home today. The boy is 10 years old and is withstanding the shock, although his condition is still serious."

Dance at Winchester Tonight—The Blue Devils orchestra will sponsor a big dance at the Rainbow Gardens at Winchester tonight, starting at 8:30 o'clock. The Gardens have not been completed as Mr. Metzger has had considerable trouble in securing lumber. The roof will be on next week however. The sides to the structure, the orchestra platform and the concession booths have been completed and will be ready for the dance tonight. The orchestra will feature several new fox trot hits tonight which are sure to prove a delight to the dancers.

Going to Honolulu—Judge John S. Coke, who is well known in Douglas county where he formerly presided at sessions of the circuit court and who is now U. S. district attorney in Portland, will go to Honolulu to visit his brother James L. Coke, former chief justice for the islands. Judge Coke will leave Portland July 25th and his vacation will extend until August. Joe O. Stearns Jr., formerly of Curry county, and assistant U. S. attorney under Judge Coke will take his vacation beginning August 15 and will visit the Sheriff At Coast—Sheriff Sam Starmer and family left last night for Coquille to spend a few days enjoying an outing.

Motorist Fined—C. M. Davey, of Willbur, paid a fine of $2.50 in the city court today for driving a car without the proper muffler.

Oakland Editor Here—A. L. Malbury of Oakland, editor of the Oakland Tribune, was a visitor in Roseburg last night. Mr. Malbury is an ex-service man and was here to make his application for the national bonus.

Go to Long Beach—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ponsler will leave tonight for Long Beach, California, for an indefinite stay. They were called to Long Beach by the serious illness of Mr. Ponsler's father.

Installing New Front—Louis Kohlhaugen, proprietor of the Cass Street Meat Market in this week installing a new front to the shop, and making other substantial improvements. When completed he will have one of the most modern shops in the city.

Stops For Visit Here—T. H. Churchill, of Los Angeles, stopped in Roseburg for a short time today on his way north to Eugene, Corvallis and Portland, where he will visit with relatives. He is related to Mrs. C. C. Alley, of this city, with whom he visited for the short time he remained in Roseburg.

Has Fine Corn—L. Michael who resides six miles from Canyonville, was in Roseburg today with a stock of corn measuring eleven feet. The corn was grown on his place and is the finest specimen exhibited here for several years. He says the corn in the Canyonville district is showing an exceptional growth this year, probably due to the warm weather and that the crop will be a bumper.

Takes Boys to Eugene—Sheriff Taylor of Lane county came to Roseburg last night to take back to Eugene the two youngsters who robbed a grocery store at Wendling and stole a Chevrolet roadster at Eugene. A baby carriage was a better vehicle than an automobile in which to transport the youngsters, the sheriff remarked when he took a look at the boys who were 14 and 11 years of age.

Glendale Editor Here—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cloud of Glendale were visitors in the city today. Mr. Cloud recently took charge of the Glendale News, after having published the Riddle Enterprise for a number of years. The Glendale News is being developed into one of the best small town weeklies in the state under Mr. Cloud's editorship and he states that the merchants of that city are giving him good support.

Back From Meeting—Dave Shambrook who has been attending the meeting of the State Republican Central committee returned home last night. Mr. Shambrook was the state delegate from the Douglas county central committee, and reports a very interesting session. I. L. Patterson was elected state chairman with power to appoint his helpers and a complete organization is anticipated. Plans were made for a big campaign preceding the coming election, Mr. Shambrook says.

Mrs. Thurber Home—Mrs. E. E. Thurber returned last night from the Dallas where she has been visiting relatives for several days. Her husband, the state traffic officer here, drove to the Dallas and brought her home and upon their return they were forced to respond to numerous telephone calls and advise their friends that Mr. Thurber had not been injured, a rumor to the effect that he had been badly hurt in an accident having gained wide circulation throughout the city.

California Editor Here—Ernest S. Ballard, managing editor of the Humboldt Standard, published at Eureka, California, accompanied by his family spent a short time in Roseburg today. Mr. Ballard was a member of the California caravan which made the trip up the coast over the Roosevelt highway to Marshfield. He states that the caravan will come out to Roseburg tomorrow and will split up at Grants Pass some going back by way of Crescent City and others going south over the Pacific highway.

Here From Portland—Robert E. Smith, president of the Title and Trust company of Portland, was a visitor in the city today. Mr. Smith, a former resident of the city, and who is yet interested in the Douglas Abstract company here, is enroute to Los Angeles. He says that the soil of this county seems to be in better condition than that in any other part of the state even though the drought has been very serious. Mr. Smith is a staunch booster for Roseburg and the Umpqua Valley and says there is no place like it in the world.

Hears Son Over Radio—Wednesday was Mr. C. H. Arundel's birthday and his son, Ernest, who resides at Long Beach, California, wrote to him asking him to listen for radio station KEON of Long Beach on that night and he would receive a pleasant surprise. Mr. Arundel tuned in on that station and was startled to hear the announcer announce that Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Arundel would give a special piano concert for the special benefit of Mr. Arundel of Roseburg, Oregon. They first played a duet by Chaminade and then followed two numbers by Mr. Arundel, both of which had been written by his father in this city. One was a waltz and the other a march, "Fighting For Freedom and You." The numbers came in fine, Mr. Ar-

KEEP COOL IN YOUR KITCHEN

Every unnecessary movement these hot days is an added burden. No wonder there are so many days when you "feel too wilted for any good use!" Why not do your hardest work the cool, comfortable way with a

HOOSIER KITCHEN CABINET

You will save hours of time and miles of steps each day. You will leave your kitchen feeling as fresh and fit as when you entered it. For your comfort's sake, come in for a Hoosier demonstration—at once. It will cost you nothing. And an initial payment as low as $10 will put a Hoosier in your home.

McKean, Darby & Baldwin

Complete House Furnishers Roseburg, Ore.

LOOK FOR POLICY FARM LEGISLATION

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
PAUL, Minn., July 12.—A bill policy for farm relief legislation was expected to be adopted today at the concluding session of a national conference of farm organizations.
Plans favored by the resolutions committee of the conference would be for a centralized farm organization to work for the interests of agriculture and it was indicated some such body would be formed. The resolutions committee proposed yesterday that a committee of delegates from every state and representing all farm organizations be named to formulate legislative action to be taken at the purpose of the conference is to obtain passage in the next session of the McNary-Haugen excise corporation farm relief bill which was defeated at the last session or a like measure.

You can't beat this coupe for the money. Overland coupe in good condition inside and out. Fine tires good spotlight and other extras.
Terms to suit. See it today.
RAPP BROTHERS GARAGE

NOT ALL SHAM
Many good and honest meaning people are being drawn toward perdition because men of learning, such as Sir Oliver Lodge, and Mr. T. Head, have been caught in the snare of that most deceptive and soul-destroying cult, "Spiritualism."
Hear Evangelist Thumler in this wonderful lecture tonight, July 12, 8 p. m. at the Big Tent, on North Rose St. Free.

charges of manslaughter, and Virgil Walleck, said by the officers to be wanted in Idaho on statutory charges, who escaped from the county jail here late last night. Satterwhite received a long distance call from Portland and was allowed to leave his cell to go to the telephone. After leaving the telephone he presented a revolver and ordered the jailer and a newspaper man into the cell, locking the door after them.

Police were searching for Mrs. Satterwhite of Portland, who was thought to have smuggled the revolver used by her husband in a box of chocolates yesterday, and who was also believed to have placed an anonymous telephone call in for him from Portland. Authorities thought the men escaped in an automobile as a large machine was reported to have speeded through Castle Rock ten miles distant, shortly after they left the jail.

Portland Prisoners Break Last Night
Police were searching for Mrs. Satterwhite of Portland, who was thought to have smuggled the revolver used by her husband in a box of chocolates yesterday, and who was also believed to have placed an anonymous telephone call in for him from Portland. Authorities thought the men escaped in an automobile as a large machine was reported to have speeded through Castle Rock ten miles distant, shortly after they left the jail.

MEN AND WOMEN IN DAY'S NEWS.

HOWARD CARTER & MADELINE DEVER
PHILIP M. SHAW & GASTON B. MEANS

Howard Carter, co-discoverer with the late Earl of Carnarvon of the tomb of King Tut-ankh-Amen in the Valley of the Kings, near Luxor, Egypt, has sailed from New York to continue the work of exploring the tomb. Gaston B. Means, formerly special agent in the Bureau of Investigation in the United States Department of Justice, here he was called the "right hand man" of William J. Burns, has been found guilty in the Federal Court in New York City on charges of conspiracy to violate the Volstead Act. Miss Madeline Dever, former stenographer in "The Follies," has been awarded a verdict of $20,000 in New York courts against Philip M. Shaw, middle-aged millionaire maker, whom she charged with breach of promise to marry.

LOG ROLLS ON MAN.

John Johnson, of Johnson Brothers who conduct the sawmill in Coles Valley, was seriously injured this morning, when a log rolled on him and knocked him unconscious. A fellow workman saw him pinned to the ground and succeeded in freeing him. It was with some difficulty that the injured man was revived. Dr. Wade was called at once and upon examination it was found that the man's shoulder was fractured. It is also possible that he will suffer from internal injuries. He is being brought to the Mercy Hospital this afternoon where he will receive attention.

CARAVAN NOT COMING

The California caravan which made the trip to Marshfield over the Roosevelt highway, is not coming to Roseburg, according to word received this afternoon from W. J. Weaver, who went to Coos Bay to invite the visitors to this city. The caravan will split at Marshfield, and some will come this way while others will turn at the junction and go south. A number of California self enthusiasts are coming to Roseburg to try out the famous country club course and local golfers are urged to be at the Umpqua hotel in the morning to meet the visitors and go over the course with them. No other entertainment will be given the visitors here.

FIRE SITUATION GOOD

All forest fires in the county are under control, according to reports today. The Douglas County fire patrol reported that all fires in its district had been surrounded and checked and are now being patrolled to prevent further spread. No new fires have been reported. O. C. Hooser reported from the Glendale station this morning that all districts were clear and that the lookout reported no fires in sight.

PRESIDENT AND WIFE ON WEEK END CRUISE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
WASHINGTON, July 12.—President and Mrs. Coolidge boarded the presidential yacht Mayflower today for a week end cruise down the Potomac river. With them were the president's father, John Coolidge, who returned with the family from the funeral services at Plymouth, Vt., John, their son, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Stearns of Boston. All of the family were reported as well rested today from their trip from Northampton, Mass., and Plymouth with the body of Calvin. The trips on the yacht have proved very beneficial to Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge and for this reason their friends today urged them to go down the river for the week end.

PHILETARIAN LODGE INSTALLS OFFICERS FOR COMING TERM

The regular installation proceedings of Philetarian lodge were held last night at the I. O. O. F. hall. The new officers are noble grand, Lyle Davis; vice grand, Donald W. Young; warden, C. F. Cramer; conductor, Arthur Verill; chaplain, John O. Metz; R. S. S. Lee D. Rapp; L. S. S. Thum; R. S. S. Sorley; R. S. N. G. Ed. Cocke; R. S. N. G. F. A. Riedel; R. S. V. G. S. J. Farnsworth; L. S. V. G.