Dr. McClure was only slightly injured in the crash.

WARNING AGAINST FAKE SOLICITORS

City officials of Albany are sending out a warning against fake magazine solicitors who are said to have been operating in that community. It is expected that they will try to work other towns of the state and information concerning their operations is being sent to all Chambers of Commerce. In Albany one of the men giving the name of Harold Brown offered a scientific magazine at $2 per year and offered the Pictorial Review in the residential districts. Police state that this method of approach is to represent that he is receiving votes which will award him a scholarship and aid him in his quest for an education.

MAN FOUND DEAD IN HOME AT LEONA

Fritz Guggisberg, a native of Switzerland, who resided alone in a cottage at Leona, in the north end of the county, was found dead in his home on Wednesday morning last, and it is thought by neighbors that death claimed him on the Sunday evening previous as he was preparing to retire for the night. Dr. Frost of Cottage Grove, who was called to examine the body pronounced it a case of apoplexy. Mr. Guggisberg had announced that he would go to Oregon City on Monday to visit his daughter hence nothing was thought of his absence, by his neighbors, when he did not appear about the place. Mr. Guggisberg was born in Switzerland in 1854 and at the age of 30 years he came to Kansas. After five years residence there he came to Oregon and has resided in and near Leona for 35 years.

He was a highly respected citizen and of noble Christian character, having been a member of the Lutheran church practically all his life. He is survived by one daughter and four sons, his wife having preceded him to the grave several years ago.

The children are, Mrs. Lucy Reusser, of Oregon City; Fred and Frank Guggisberg of Cottage Grove, and Ernest and Albert of Leona.

Funeral services were held at the cemetery at Leona Friday morning at ten o'clock, the service being conducted by Rev. J. R. Benton of Drain.

J. P. Denn and son Bernard Denn, arrested yesterday on a charge of unlawful possession of liquor today entered pleas of not guilty in the local justice court and furnished bonds in the sum of $100 each to guarantee their appearance. They have retained Attorney Compton for their defense and will stand trial. Seth Crox, who was charged with the same offense skipped out and has not yet been located.

The complaint against the three men was filed by Mrs. Ada Denn, wife of J. P. and mother of Bernard. The men came to the city last night and were released upon their own recognizance until this morning when they appeared in the justice court and answered to the charge and arranged for bail.

DISASTROUS BLAZE HITS CALIF. TOWN

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) BRAWLEY, Calif., July 12.—A $75,000 fire, the second within a month, threatening destruction of the business district here, early today, swept through half a block gutting nine business places. The city was saved from destruction by the El Centro fire department.

The flames started on the roof of the Central Hotel at 4 o'clock, raging two hours before they were brought under control. Twenty four guests of the hotel escaped in scanty attire. The heaviest loss was the Western Union office in which $10,000 worth of equipment was destroyed.

UMPQUA SQUAWS ARE ORGANIZED

Women Form Auxiliary to Booster Club and Will Take Up Girls' Work.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Mrs. L. J. Barnes Chosen for President, Mrs. Henry Harth, Vice-President and Mrs. Spencer Secretary.

The Umpqua Squaws is an auxiliary woman's booster organization of its kind in the state, was organized last night at the home of Mrs. Herace Berg. The officers chosen are Mrs. L. J. Barnes, president; Mrs. H. Harth, vice-president, and Mrs. Lyman Spencer, secretary.

The Umpqua Squaws are an auxiliary organization to the Umpqua Chiefs, Roseburg's new booster club and will work for civic betterment along many constructive lines, chiefly in promoting activities among the girls and young women of the community.

The Umpqua Squaws first came into prominence when they appeared during the strawberry carnival. The women decided to play a joke upon the men and when the Chiefs appeared on their cayuses in full Indian regalia, the women marched in unexpectedly in complete squaw outfits, dragging the camping material and packing the firewood and the papooses and marched behind the bucks. The appearance of the women was greeted so wholeheartedly that they began planning for a permanent organization.

They recently appeared with the Chiefs in a program at Riddle and finding that there was a work which they could do, determined to perfect an organization of their own.

Although the Umpqua Squaws will work with the chiefs and will join with them in many social occasions, the work of the organization is not social. The women have found that there is a great lack of organized effort to help the younger girls of the community. The boys have their Boy Scouts, and other organizations which give them an opportunity for activity, and they have the attention, backing and support of numerous civic and fraternal bodies, but nothing has been done for the girls. The Umpqua Squaws propose to inaugurate the Camp Fire movement and take up other lines of endeavor among the girls, the same as is done for the boys, a work which is sorely needed in this community.

Membership in the new organization will be limited to the wives of the chiefs, and meetings will be held on the 4th Friday of each month. The women are ordering grey marching uniforms, similar to those worn by the men, but with a wigwag on the shoulder instead of the Indian head. The next meeting is to be held on the 25th at the home of the president, Mrs. L. J. Barnes.

The outlook for the coming week is fair weather, except for considerable cloudiness near the coast. The temperature is nearly normal. The present existing conditions maintain the hazards of fires in the fields and forests.

LIFE TERMER GETS CONDITIONAL PARDON

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) SALEM, Ore., July 12.—Governor Pierce yesterday granted a conditional pardon to James Hammond, 67 years old, who in 1913 shot and killed Ike Bloom, a Portland merchant. Hammond was accused of murder in the first degree, but was allowed to plead guilty to murder in the second degree and was sentenced to life imprisonment. For some years he has been a trustee in charge of the prison poultry yards. A conditional pardon from him was recommended by the parole board last April. Hammond is an ex-soldier, having served in the army from 1881 to 1890. He was addicted to the use of drugs. In Portland he was employed by Bloom who later discharged him. According to a statement by the prosecuting attorney, Hammond went to Bloom's store, calling him downstairs and shot him through the head. It is said there were no extenuating circumstances, but that Hammond's age which was then 55, and the fact that he was a drug addict probably saved him from a trial on a first degree charge. Hammond is to be taken temporarily to the Pizah home in Portland.

PIONEER RESIDENT DIED LAST NIGHT

David Thompson, aged 83 years, a pioneer resident of Douglas county, died last night at his home on the Pacific highway, near the Coos Bay Junction. Death was caused by old age, as he has been in failing health for several months past. Mr. Thompson resided at that place for 33 years and has been a citizen of the county for nearly 59 years. Prior to his residence near Dillard he owned a large stock ranch above that place. Death came at 9:45 o'clock last night.

Besides a wife, Roda Ellen, he is survived by three daughters and three sons, Mabel Smith of Estacada, Agnes Gooch of Mt. Shasta, California, and Mollie Carpenter of Jacksonville, and Delbert L. Thompson of Orill, Alaska. Israel Thompson of Dillard and Harrison G. Thompson of Melrose. Nine grandchildren also survive the deceased.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Civil Bend cemetery with Rev. Caldwell of the Baptist church of Roseburg officiating.

Mr. Thompson came to Oregon from Vermont at the age of 19 years and resided here continuously since that time. He leaves many close friends to mourn his death and who extend heartfelt sympathy to the relatives of this stalwart pioneer.

CALIFORNIA TO DO COAST ROAD WORK

BANDON, Ore., July 11.—The northern California caravan consisting of 125 persons representing the various chambers of commerce in that section, headed by Eureka, arrived at Bandon at 4 p. m. today and remained over night. The program of entertainment planned for them included a community dinner at the city park, with speaking, followed by a big band concert at the Silver Spray garden. The party included Louis Everding, California highway commissioner of Arcata and from Oregon, Highway Commissioners Daby and Van Duser, and Roy Klein, Salem, Rufus C. Holman of Portland and Commissioner Purcell of the federal bureau of roads. The caravan will go to Coquille tomorrow and will complete the loop south by way of Roseburg and Grants Pass.

BOTULISM POISON VICTIMS IMPROVING

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) BILLINGS, Mont., July 12.—Marked improvement in the condition of Tolbert De Richardson, Jr., of Germantown, Penn., and Miss Eugenia of Cody, Wyo., believed suffering from botulism poison, was reported by attending physicians today. Four deaths have resulted from the poisoning which physicians say was caused by eating imported ripe olives.

A serum ordered from Kansas City is expected tonight and the physician in charge of the case said the two already affected and Miss Sarah Ellen De Richardson will be inoculated as soon as the serum arrives, although he believes all danger is past.

CLARK IN PORTLAND

Ray W. Clark, now of the Hotel Olympian, at Olympia, Wash., registered at the Multnomah yesterday. Mr. Clark was formerly connected with the Multnomah and with the Umpqua at Roseburg, and in what ever town he locates he immediately becomes one of its best boosters. At present he is filled with arguments showing that all the places in the state of Washington there is none to compare with Olympia. He used to talk that way about Roseburg and boosted Douglas county prunes as enthusiastically as he now advocates Olympia oysters.—Morning Oregonian.
