

FOUR ARE SHOT IN RAID ON KLAN

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
HAVERHILL, Mass., July 31.—Four men were shot here when hostile crowds clashed with between 3,000 and 5,000 members of the Ku Klux Klan who held a meeting lasting into the early morning on a hill in the neighboring town of Groveland. State and local police at length quelled the disorders, taking in custody 27 men, including 3 of the wounded, and confiscated six shot guns, several revolvers and quantities of ammunition.

The disorders broke out at the conclusion of a Klan initiation ceremony and continued as nearly 3,000 automobiles bearing Klansmen from Worcester, Boston, Springfield and other cities traveled homeward. Shots were fired and many missiles were thrown at the passing cars. None of the injured men, all of whom suffered lacerated wounds in the legs were believed to be dangerously hurt.

MAIL CLERK WINS DUEL WITH BANDITS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
EAST ORANGE, N. J., July 31.—A mail clerk was wounded and a mail clerk was wounded twice when he frustrated an attempted mail robbery at the Lackawanna railroad station early today.

Eugene Stack, 23 mail clerk employed at the local post office, is in a hospital with bullet wounds as the result of his repulse of the bandits, who it is believed tried to steal a pouch carrying federal reserve packages.

The escaped bandit got away in a taxi which is believed to have been driven by a confederate. Stack went to the station to meet the 4:00 a. m. train and had taken off six pouches, when two men got off the train and limped toward him.

They opened fire without warning. The shots were returned by Stack. One bandit fell dead at the top of the stairway and plunged to the bottom. The other fled to the street, where Stack saw him enter a taxi.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

by
MRS. ELLSBURY

(Address all communications to Mrs. Ellsbury, care of News-Review.)

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: I read your column every day, and like it a lot, but never thought I would have to come to you for advice. I have two problems to ask you about, and one of them is out, although I know you aren't supposed to answer that kind. But I thought you must go lots of places, and have seen something that would help me.

1. I am giving a dinner, and although I have cooked for a long time, this is a very special dinner, and I want it to be especially nice. I have it all planned but the salad. The rest of the dinner is all fresh, and different than most dinners, and that is why I want a very special salad. Something no one else has served this season.

2. I am uncertain as to how to dress for this dinner that I think a great deal of. He will only be in town for a few days, and also a married couple. We are all young people. I want everything to be exactly right. Shall we go to a public dance afterward, or play cards at home? (Should I serve something to eat after the dance, or after cards, if we play? Thank you very much, Mrs. Ellsbury.

GLENELLA.

GLENELLA: A very pretty salad, and one you haven't seen this season perhaps, is made of diced cucumbers in tomato cups, served on a lettuce leaf with French dressing, and garnished with a small slice of green pepper if desired. Another salad that is most unusual, and rather difficult to make is made of black cherries and pineapple. Stuff the black pitted cherries with cream cheese. Arrange them on pineapple that has been placed on crisp lettuce leaf. Use French dressing.

3. It is difficult to advise you, not knowing the tastes of the various people. If you all like to dance, then go to the dance. If you are not sure they would all enjoy dancing, then arrange the card games. Why not ask them which they would rather do? If you go to the dance it is not necessary to return home to eat. If you play cards, small attractive dishes of home made candies, or fruit paste, are very nice.

GOVERNMENT SAVES ALASKAN SEALS

In 1912 only 22,000 seals remained in Alaska due to the loss of poaching and indiscriminate

Today the seal herd numbers 100,000, due entirely to the careful preservation of our government," said Mr. O. E. Albrecht, secretary of the United States government. These seals are taken in St. Louis, dressed and dyed there by the government agents, and then sold at auction to the fur trade each spring and fall.

The value of the seals is entirely for their fur. For generations, seal skin has been prized very highly when made into garments, and when the herd was so very
