ROSEBURG, OREGON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1924.

HELP YOURSELF TO PROSPERITY.

No argument is required to convince the average individual that the most successful way of building up a community is for the people to all pull together toward a common goal. That goal is termed prosperity.

In those towns where the various factors work in harmony there is sure to be found a progressive people who prosper simply because of cooperation in buying and selling.

In another section of this issue is a full page plea for home industry and cooperation. The News-Review believes this is an excellent beginning in an educational effort leading to still better conditions in this city and county.

From 7 a. m. until 2 p. m. each day the world as it happens and its all day the telegraph wire or the Associated Press clicks off the news of the world.

PRUNE PICKIN'S

BY BERT G. BATES. GOOD EVENING FOLKS—A married man. Has more bills. To pay. Than a single man. But the married man's creditors are more sympathetic.

DUMBBELL DORA THINKS. A shikpoke is a character in a Shakespeare play.

THE MODERN WAYS. The girl of mother's day, 'tis said. Was demure and shy and nice. She never smoked or drank or shot. A pair of rolling dice.

She wore her clothes to cover her. And not to show her limbs. She never let the bolder sex. Detract from Sunday hymns.

In fact, the girl of mother's day. If tales we can believe. Was pure and good and modest. And prone to sob and grieve.

If neighbors had an accident. Or father tore his pants. Or sister's beau went back on her. Or HE gave her a dirty glance. Oh, yes, the girls of bygone days. Were quite above the censor.

And if the truth must out. Those girls were somewhat denser.

Than members of the weaker (?) sex. Who live in modern days. Who smoke and jazz and swim. In cars along the way.

The "flapper" as they call 'er. Who sees or hears no "bars". Is not inferior to these dames. Who's outlook she now jars.

Proof? Oh, yes, it's all about. One doesn't have to hunt it. This "flapper" is in the statehouse. And this one runs the market.

Morals? A lot of pother. Modern girls know their stuff—Witness America's Olympic champs. Oh well, isn't that enough.

To shatter all this bunk and sham. About the girls now growing. I'd ward their goal, whatever it be. I'd say they make a showing.

The girls who rule the world today. Are healthy and well muscled. Their brains aren't warped with crazy boah. Their dresses don't have bustles.

The "dark" don't scare them any more. Or men or ghost or devil. They laugh at life—but play it right. You rarely hear 'em shivel.

Who said the queens of yesterday. Were 20th century beaters? The one who does—go mark him well. His specs are truly clearers.

Go tell the nut reformer. Who rants and raves 'bout flappers. To go to h—l and take the bell—But leave behind the clapper.

The drum corps aroused the village from its slumbers last eve. Then knocked it back to sleep.

How the time does fly. It's bill payin' time agin.

A green lawn is o. k. except for the water bill.

'Steep had they can't shorten the irrigation hours here and help us cut expenses.

Had a talk with a feller last eve. Who had just drank a bottle of Fair tonic and he sure had whiskers on his breath.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

To the Editor of the News-Review: Dear Sir—As much has been said, both public and private pertaining to the management of the Soldiers Home by the Commander, G. W. Riddle, and the impression has gone forth to the public at large that Commander Riddle had been guilty of shaming veterans in favoring Civil War veterans to the discomfiture of Spanish War veterans. Now sir, will you kindly give space in your valuable daily for the statement of a few facts, that the general public may know how the affairs of the home has been and is being conducted. Some time since,

On Picnics and Camping

An investigation was called for as to the legality of certain acts of the commander concerning one certain Spanish American war veteran, and during said investigation, it being apparent that nothing short of the removal of the commander would be satisfactory to the aggrieved. A counter petition was circulated asking that G. W. Riddle be retained as commander of the home.

And now, Mr. Editor, that of the present number of members now in the home, being 51, 78 signed for his retention in office, and of the number of eight of the Spanish war veterans now in the home four of them signed for his retention of this office. Furthermore, some time since about two years gone or less, two applications were made at same time for cottage privileges, one Spanish American and one Civil war veteran. The Spanish American had a sickly wife and the commander from his sympathetic heart for the needs of suffering humanity gave the cottage to the Spanish American. His wife still occupies the cottage. Does that savor of favoritism, if so, which one was favored. The general public expects facts, and here they are. Common honesty demands that the truth be known, and let the evil one be ever so black, give him his due at any rate. Please don't consign this to the waste basket, but please give it publication. We know we have another commander coming, but let us face the facts as they are, and we will be better friends by so doing. Remember, Mr. Riddle is not known to this movement of ours, and it is only known to the old veterans. So please give this publication word for word and retain our good will and patronage.

ONE OLD VET.

All members of Oregon Rose Lodge and families and all members of the B. of L. F. & E. and families are invited to a picnic to be held at Whistler's Bend on August 2. Meet at the home of P. M. Cook, 525 East Court street, at 5 a. m.

EXCELLENT CONCERT

The regular band concert given last night was one of the best entertainments offered by the Douglas County Concert Band this year. The program was exceedingly well arranged and offered music suitable for all people. One of the features of the evening was a cornet and trombone duet played by Claude Crocker and Dale Strange, a number which was well received by the large crowd attending.

200,000 IN CUBA WHO HOPED TO ENTER U. S., BARRED BY LAW

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) HAVANA, July 31.—The American immigration law which became effective July 1 has barred the doors to approximately 200,000 persons from every land under the sun who had come to Cuba expecting to go to the United States, according to Vice-Consul T. M. Fisher in charge of passports in the American consulate general here. The sharp decrease in quotas from Asiatic and southern European countries and the change in regulations make it improbable that more than one per cent of the would-be immigrants can legally get into the United States during the next 12 months and many declare openly that almost any chance of being smuggled over to Florida or to any port. A few months in jail and forcible deportation is the only penalty. A few say they will go to South America, but the majority declare they will eventually return to their native lands. Nearly three-fourths of the men, women and children who gather daily by the thousands and clamor for passport visas to "The States" are Spaniards. The next largest element consists of Jamaican negroes of whom there are approximately 40,000, while Mr. Fisher estimates that there are 10,000 Jews of various nationalities and about 200,000 of each of Germans, Greeks, Russians, Poles, Turks, Syrians, and Armenians, and scores of Rumanians, Czech-Slovakians, Jugoslavians, Persians and a few Chaldeans and native African negroes. "I have never heard of a nationality that is not represented," he said. In addition there are some 6,000 Chinese and a scattering of Japanese in Cuba whose only hope is to be smuggled into the United States. The Spaniards fit well into Cuban life and are represented in most of its industries throughout the island while the Chinese in the last few years have started brick farms in the suburbs of Havana and are supplying the city with fresh vegetables or are operating small stores here, but most of the other immigrants appear to be living from hand to mouth and declare they cannot settle down and save anything in a country where common labor makes $1 to $1.50 a day and where "floating labor" is lucky to find a job in the dull summer months. A few hangers-on peddle small articles in the streets or work for a few dollars a week for residents of their own nationality, and a Jewish aid society extends what help it can to persons of that faith, but according to Mr. Fisher, literally thousands are being supported by relatives in the United States or are living on their savings. Many of the immigrants have lived for years in the United States without taking out naturalization papers and on visiting their native lands overstayed the time limit and now cannot return. Most of the immigrants are persons who were refused American passport visas in their own countries and came to Cuba hoping to get into the United States under the provisions of the former immigration law which allowed free entry to Europeans after five years residence here and permitted a dash across the Florida straits to get in on their respective quotas after a year's residence. The new law contains no such provisions.

BIG AUTOMOBILE BADLY WRECKED

The fine Jewett Brougham owned and driven by Clyde Brown of Lost Hills, California, was badly wrecked late yesterday evening when the machine went off the road about a mile north of Myrtle Creek, and turned over after breaking off a telephone pole. The accident happened so quickly that no definite cause has been determined, but it is believed that the steering apparatus gave way and turned the machine off the road. It went into a depression and then struck a telephone post which was snapped off. The car then turned over, wrecking the top. Fortunately neither Mr. Brown nor any members of his family were hurt aside from a few minor cuts and bruises. As they were in a hurry to reach Coos Bay they hired a car in Myrtle Creek and went on to their destination. The wrecked machine was brought to this city for repairs.
