"Angel Faced" "Dickie" Loeb and his teddy bear.

These are childhood pictures of "Angel Faced" "Dickie" Loeb, one of the youthful slayers of Robert Franks, in Chicago, and the now famous Teddy Bear, which alibiists declare the child took to bed with him and to which he talked in his famous "ghastly" dream. These pictures, such as might have been taken of any American youth, are used by the alibiists to bear out their theory that the murderer, as a child, plotted himself as a great bandit and criminal.
