ROSEBURG WINS IN GOLF MATCH

Marshfield Team Defeated by Wide Margin in in Tourney.

HAVE A FINE TEAM

Visitors Loud in Praise of Club Ground and Hospitality of Local Club Members.

The Roseburg Country Club golfers defeated a 25-man team from Marshfield yesterday by a score of 38 to 14. The tournament was one of the most interesting ever held at the local club grounds, and visitors as well as Roseburg club members were delighted with the pleasant entertainment afforded.

The course was crowded during the entire day, and there were many close matches, but the Roseburg men won the tournament by a wide margin, avenging themselves for the defeat administered by the Marshfield team when the Roseburg players lost by seven points on the Coos Bay course.

The visiting players were accompanied by their wives and friends, and a large number of the members of the Roseburg club were present to entertain those who did not play golf.

The highest praise was given the local club and its fine clubhouse and grounds, many pronouncing it the most scenic course they have ever seen. The visitors were furnished luncheon by the Roseburg club and the hospitality shown was greatly appreciated.

Among the Marshfield players making up the team from that place were: I. R. Tower, Claude Nauburg, Bill Wade, Harry Kern, Ben S. Fisher, A. E. Adelsperger, Frank Shaw, W. J. Conrad, B. R. Chandler, M. Keith, Gus Theuring, H. J. McKeown, Dr. Johnson, Carl Davis, Stewart Lyons, Walter Wells, L. D. Gordon, Claude Giles, Dr. J. I. Mershon, L. L. Thomas, Charles Hall, H. J. Matson, Tom Guthrie, E. J. Loney, R. H. Corey, Mr. Thurlow, Frank Heath, Roy Jarman, S. F. Patterson, Tom Stack, Judge J. C. Kendall.

Plans are being made by the Roseburg club for a handicap match between the cities of Eugene, Medford, Marshfield and Roseburg at some future date. This will be played on the Roseburg course, which is centrally located. These matches between cities are very valuable in cementing friendship, for the business men of the cities become well acquainted and can discuss many important problems in an informal way, which results in much closer cooperation between the cities, and works to the benefit of the communities.

MANY VISITORS AT BOY SCOUT CAMP

The Boy Scout camp was visited by a number of people yesterday, and a fine time was enjoyed. Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Love, Mrs. Gedney, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oppie, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bell, Miss Minnie Bell, Mrs. S. W. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Parlow and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Littott. Mrs. Love took out enough cake to give the boys all they could eat. Mr. Oppie bought them some candy, and Dally Bell took out a big freezer full of ice cream. The visitors joined with the boys in a ball game, and entered into their sports. The camp is being found very interesting, and the visitors report that the boys are having a wonderful time.

Every scout is making an effort to pass one test each day, and it is expected that each one will be promoted one rank before returning home. Several are expected to reach the rank of life and star scouts. A number are taking their swimming tests, and Maynard Bell has passed his lifesaving tests. Twenty merit badges have already been won. Everything in the camp is on a point basis, and the boys are given credit for every duty performed.

One patrol has lined up its tents and has taken the name of Gasoline Alley, and the boys have assumed the names made famous in that strip cartoon.

All of the boys have tents and are well sheltered from the weather. Although it may rain hard they will have no discomforts as they spend much of their time in their bathing suits, anyway, and when seeking shelter have plenty of canvas to cover them and keep their equipment dry.

The boys will start their overnight hikes as soon as the weather permits. The supply truck is going in tomorrow, and people having letters or articles to send to the boys should leave them to the Economy grocery, with O. L. Johnson, this evening or early tomorrow morning. The P. & O. tractor disc plow will stay in the ground where others fail. See one at Wharton Bros.
