Fine Box of Apples—
 Mrs. Jacob Sharps, who lives on one of the choice fruit tracts in the Garden Valley district, brought to the News-Review office today generous samples of the Elberta variety of peaches. The fruit was delicious, beautifully colored and extra large, fully demonstrating the adaptability of the Garden Valley soil for the production of fine fruit.

Arranging Fine Exhibit—
 Charles Clark, local photographer, is this week selecting some of his finest photos for display at the convention of photographers to be held in Portland next month. Mr. Clark will enter five portraits and the five he has selected will undoubtedly attract a great deal of attention. He will also exhibit a beautiful colored scene taken on the North Umpqua. This picture is one of the most beautiful ever exhibited in the city and required an entire day to color.

Discussed Coos Bay Meeting—
 At today's luncheon of the Rotary club plans were discussed for the meeting to be held at Marshfield next Monday night at which time the Coos Bay Rotarians will entertain the Roseburg members and their wives. From present indications there will be a large attendance from here and it is the hope of the committee in charge that the club will respond 100 per cent strong. The Coos Bay boys are planning a lively evening for their visitors and the occasion will prove most enjoyable. Many of the local members are planning on going over a day early in order to take advantage of the fine golf course at Marshfield. All those who have not yet reported their intention of going should report at once to Henry Booth, who is in charge of the attendance part of the program.

Committee Changed—
 The Chamber of Commerce auto camp visitation committee for this evening is as follows: Messrs. B. L. Eddy, A. B. Crawford, V. J. Mitchell, G. W. Wimberly, Nathan Fullerton and J. K. Falbe. All committee members should call at the Chamber of Commerce office at 7 o'clock sharp for their identification badges. It has been found that two members working together are better than one man working alone as many questions are asked by the tourists that may be hard for one man to answer. Last evening several of the committeemen met for the first time, although living in the city several years, so there is something more to the plan than greeting the tourists. Tomorrow evening's committee had to be changed somewhat as several of the original committee members are members of the Umpqua Chiefs and had to go to Oakland for the pow-wow, so the committee for tomorrow evening is as follows: Messrs. Walter Good, W. H. Fisher, O. C. Brown, Roy Bellows, W. R. Brown and Dr. C. H. Church.

WANT CROWD TO GO TO OAKLAND

The Umpqua Chiefs are very anxious that a large number of Roseburg citizens accompany them to Oakland on Friday night for the big ceremonial to be held there. "We wish to have it understood that this is not merely a trip for the Chiefs alone," T. H. Ness, Chief Umpqua, said today, "but it is a meeting of the citizens of the two cities, to become better acquainted and promote mutual welfare. We want Roseburg to show the friendly feeling we have for our neighboring cities, and this can best be done by frequent meetings with them. We want everyone in Roseburg who is not otherwise engaged on Friday evening to go with us, and help show our friendly feeling for Oakland."
 All persons not having transportation, are asked to be at the Army before 7 o'clock. As the parade starts at 7:45 at Oakland, it is necessary that cars have here no later than 7 p. m. Persons having extra room in their cars are asked to go to the Army and pick up someone who has no car of their own. There is to be no charge for admission, as the entertainment is to be provided absolutely free. The Gobblers have decorated the hall and everything is in readiness for the program.
 The street parade will be the most spectacular ever seen in Oakland, Friday, 7:45 p. m.

DEER SEASON BAN LIFTED BY PIERCE

 sive deer. Stores handling sporting goods reported a run on ammunition, hunting knives and other equipment this afternoon, as hunters are hurriedly arming themselves for their trips.
 The influx of outside hunters probably will not start for a few days. There are a few, however, who have only been waiting for some definite action to be taken. C. C. Winslow, the prominent Salem attorney who has conducted a fight against the closing of the season had arrangements made to go into the woods today. He has been taking the rights of the governor and game commission to close the season into the courts, and was determined to make a showing regarding the closing of the season, and in order to make a trial case was willing to risk arrest by hunting in advance of the season. He is hunting in the Little river district.
 Those who have been in the woods report the deer quite plentiful. Up to the present time the forests have been so dry that it has been impossible almost to approach them, but the recent rains will probably make hunting very good.

STEPS TAKEN TO FORM A COUNCIL

Temporary Officers Elected for Douglas County Council of Scouts.

JACKSON IS PRESIDENT

Meetings Being Held Over County to Stimulate Interest in Proposition—Success Assured.

The first practical step toward the early formation and operation of the Douglas County Council of the Boy Scouts of America, was taken last night in Roseburg when at a meeting called for the purpose in the city hall, representatives of interested communities and civic bodies adopted a constitution and bylaws, and elected officers to serve until the organization is complete and the charter obtained.

Officers Elected.
 The president of the Council, elected last night, is V. I. Jackson, of Roseburg. John Runyan was selected to serve as Scout Commissioner. Vice presidents of the county council will be selected in each community affiliating with the central organization as it grows into final form. The vice presidents entered on the roster of leaders at this meeting, are C. S. Faunce for the community of Drain and vicinity, E. McC. Johnson for Reedsport, Ed Young for Oakland, O. L. Johnson for Roseburg. Other communities will fill their representation on the executive board, which will be composed of the president, commissioner, vice presidents, secretary, treasurer, national councilman and functional committee chairmen. Temporary Secretary A. J. Geddes was asked to continue in his service pending the result of the effort to obtain a charter. The national councilman is to be elected after the obtaining of a charter. W. F. Harris was elected treasurer.

Meeting are scheduled this week at Glendale and Sutherlin, on Friday and Saturday evenings respectively, for the consideration of affiliation with the Douglas County Council. A meeting was held in Yoncalla on Tuesday evening resulting in a pledge of cooperation by interested citizens to bring about affiliation in that vicinity. The vice presidents for these localities are yet to be named.

To Extend Work.
 "No amount of organization can obviate the fact that scouting depends first, last and all the time on the scoutmaster," said Mr. Scott this morning. "It is often asked, why all this organization when the thing wanted is to have men show boys how to be real men. The answer is that the purpose of the organization is to stimulate men to be scoutmasters, and to provide means for their training as such. Very good work has been done in many instances in this county, without any organization and without any full-time executive leader, and there is nothing but commendation to be given it. The question arises, however, is it worth while to give to ninety per cent of the boys of the county, or to a part of ninety per cent, what the other ten per cent are now getting out of scouting. The purpose is not to change but to improve and extend, the good work that has been done."

To Form Plans.
 On taking over the chairmanship of the organization meeting from Dr. A. C. Seely, who had served at the initial meeting but with a statement that his professional duties would not permit his permanent assuming of the duties of leadership, President Jackson announced that he would make an effort to bring the organization affairs of the council to the point of action as quickly as possible. Certain conditions must be met and finances must be raised before a charter will be granted. An early statement will be made as to the manner of compassing these ends.

LIGHTNING STRIKES ON COOLIDGE FARM

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
 PLYMOUTH, Vt., Aug. 21.—Lightning struck about the president's home here during the severe storm late yesterday afternoon and night, one bolt putting out of commission the telegraph apparatus in the temporary business office in the general store. The store is situated about 50 yards from where the president and his family are staying in the home of his father, John Coolidge.

Electrical workers were kept busy several hours repairing the damage, but no material injury was done by the bolt.

President Coolidge and his family were apparently not disturbed. No wires going to the Coolidge home were affected and the real effect of the bolt was not felt here.
