Sidereal Sister Still Several Centimeters Skyward Said; Spectroscope Sights Snow

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—That ancient sidereal swashbuckler Mars, now believed by some celestial observers to be dwindling into a mere astral rosy, today took the lead over radio, moonshine, baseball and politics as a topic of conversation among laymen on the Pacific coast.

While the man in the street was speculating on the possibility of this brother speck in the cosmos being inhabited and astrologers were computing the effect of its proximity on the dispositions and fortunes of men, trained observers on Mount Hamilton, near San Jose and at Mount Wilson, near Los Angeles have their telescopes, cameras, mirrors and spectroscopes trained on the passerby to record any idiosyncrasy he may display.

PIERCE DECLARES ACTION NOT FEAR

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

PORTLAND, Aug. 22.—Governor Walter M. Pierce, addressing the opening session of the convention of the Western Association of State Game Commissioners here today, declared he did not withdraw his proclamation closing the hunting season from August 20 to September 20 through fear.

Declaring that a realization of the importance of game and forest protection was generally lacking, the governor said: "You cannot meet the feeling that exists in Oregon by proclamation or by arrest. It will have to be done by education. The message should be taken to the school children."

WANT BIG CROWD TO GO TO OAKLAND

Roseburg people who are going to Oakland tonight to attend the entertainment to be given by the Umquias Chiefs, are asked to be at the armory not later than 7 o'clock. It is desired to keep the Roseburg delegation together as much as possible in order to make a good showing in the parade.

ATLANTIC TRIP MADE WITHOUT ANY ACCIDENT

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The first word to be received by the navy from any of its ships along the route of the world fliers in the north Atlantic was a brief message that came this afternoon from the cruiser Richmond, reporting that no word had been received from the Italian aviator, Lieutenant Locatelli.

ITALIAN IS MISSING

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

The message referred to the presence of a dense fog and seemed to indicate that the American fliers might have decided to delay for the present the next hop of their flight to the lower tip of Greenland to Ivigtut.

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Aug. 22.

The American round the world fliers, winging their way yesterday afternoon and evening from Reykjavik, Iceland, to Fredericksdal, Greenland, where they arrived last night, passed the United States cruiser Richmond and the United States destroyers, Reid, Billingsley and Barry.

STAY OF HANGING MAKES BOY HAPPY

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) SAN QUENTON, Calif., Aug. 22.—Charles "Tuffy" Reid, 29, sentenced to hang today for the murder of Charles Weingarten at Los Angeles on January 21, 1923, was a happy youth today in the knowledge that he was still alive when the zero hour for execution—10 a. m. had come and gone.
