

Special for the Hunter Who Opens the Season

Be prepared for the hunting season which is now open. Take a Winchester Flash Light with you for when you enter the forests the electric lights are no more. Get the right supplies. Get them at the right place and at the right price.

Churchill Hardware Co.

THE WINCHESTER STORE

LOCAL NEWS

In From Looking Glass—Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Jenkins of Looking Glass, were in the city for a few hours late yesterday afternoon.
Coming From Colorado—Mr. and Mrs. Aharr, of Colorado, were expected today to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ahary, of Miller's Addition.
Pastor Home Again—Rev. H. L. Caldwell and wife returned home today after an extended visit at Crater Lake, and other resorts in Southern Oregon.
Visited Parents—Mrs. Nora Wilson of Portland, left for her home in the metropolis yesterday evening after several days spent at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lutzman of Looking Glass.
Joins Boy Scouts—Lester Russell, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Russell, left last night for the Boy Scout camp, where he will enjoy the festivities incident to camp life during the remainder of the sojourn in the woods.
Trip to Canyonville—J. H. Thompson, of Portland, was in Roseburg for a day or two on business this week, and while here accompanied S. J. Jones to Canyonville Thursday, where they were looking after several business interests.
Leave For Portland—Monroe Cheek and wife left this morning for Portland to make their home. Mr. Cheek, who is employed by the Standard Oil company, has been transferred to the Portland office.
Roadside Stands Doing Fine—The roadside fruit stands between Hillard and this city are all doing a fine business according to reports. The melons are just beginning to be placed on sale in large numbers and the tourists are carting them away rapidly.
Brings in Fine Peaches—Mrs. Fred Renner presented the News-Review office with a box of choice peaches yesterday evening. The Renners have grown some wonderful peaches on their Happy Valley ranch this season and many local people have purchased boxes to ship to friends in other sections of the country.
Visitors From Washington—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Davis, Miss Myrtle Davis, Walter, Charles and Webb Davis, left this morning for their home at Winlock, Washington, after a week's visit with relatives in Roseburg. Mr. Davis is a son of the late Hardin Davis, Douglas county pioneer, and this is his first visit here for fifteen years.
Leaving for Portland—James H. Clark left in his car this afternoon for Portland, accompanied by J. M. Judd and Wm. Hoelme. Mr. Clark will be joined by his wife, who has been visiting in the east during the summer, and they will remain in Portland all of next week attending the annual convention of photographers, of which Mrs. Clark is an officer. Before returning home they will also visit other points of interest in Oregon and Washington.
Morgans Entertain Relatives—Mr. John Chenoweth of St. Joseph, Mo., a veteran of the Civil War, and a brother of Mrs. Ed Morgan, of this city, is a guest at the Morgan home. Mrs. W. E. Hayden, of Portland, a sister of the above parties, is also here for a visit with relatives, as is also Mrs. W. B. Nelson, of Portland, who is a niece of the host and hostess. These people are enjoying a sort of family reunion at this time, as Mr. Chenoweth expects to return east in a few weeks.
Expecting a Large Delegation—According to information received here today the Rotary club of Coos Bay is expecting a large delegation of Rotarians from this city to visit Marshfield next Monday evening at which time the local boys and their wives will be royally entertained. Elaborate plans are being made and it is hoped that every member from this city will be present. Many who have been on the doubtful list have now decided to go and every indication points to a large attendance.
Broccoli Especially Fine—Speaking of the prospect for broccoli this coming season, W. A. Burr said this morning that growers on Curry estate farms have in the aggregate approximately 300 acres in, and that the most of it looks exceedingly well. Burr and sons have some thing like 75 acres, and some of it was planted early and is making a stupendous growth. The late rain did a world of good to this crop, and growers may expect to reap a golden harvest next spring when the harvest is gathered.
Former Legion Adjutant Here—Harry Nelson, formerly state American Legion adjutant for Oregon, was a business visitor here today. Mr. Nelson is now engaged in the insurance business and has placed his liability line with John E. Harris of this city. Mr. Nelson will remain here for a day, visiting with legion members with whom he has become acquainted during his term of office. He states that the state drive for members proved very successful and that Oregon has a good chance of winning the Harold MacNider trophy cup. He complimented Virginia Post members for their activities here and says that the local organization ranks among the first in the state.
They Like Roseburg—Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Knapp, of Trosser, Washington, accompanied by M. C. W. Harris, are in the city today looking over the situation here. They came here to see for themselves what Douglas county has to offer in the way of climate, land, environment, resources and opportunities. They had been told by tourists who passed through the northwest that Roseburg was the finest place in the whole country of Montana, Washington, Idaho and California, and advised them to stop here for a few days. These people are delighted with the country.

Drive to Deer Park Inn 3 miles south of Canyonville for a Turkey Dinner Sunday, August 24 "A delicious dinner in beautiful surroundings."

Speeder Fined—A fine of $25 was paid today by H. C. Tucker, arrested in the Justice Court on a charge of speeding.
Enjoying Vacation—Ed Marsh, of the Marsh Motor company, is expected home at the week end. He has been enjoying a vacation for several days.
Visiting at Willamina—Mr. and Mrs. Cal Gilham, who have been visiting at Willamina for the past few days, will return home Sunday.
In From Canyonville—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graham of Canyonville, came to Roseburg today to transact business matters, and shop for a few hours.
Camas Valley Man In—Z. T. Murray of Camas Valley made a business trip to Roseburg today. Mr. Murray reports conditions prosperous in the valley.

Fish Warden Here—Mister Fish Warden Ross, of Portland, was in Roseburg today. Mr. Ross is on an inspection trip to the Umpqua and Rogue river districts.
Former Resident Here—Floyd Murphy, formerly a resident of Roseburg, now proprietor of a barber shop in Portland, spent a few hours in Roseburg today visiting with friends.
Fire on Hillside—A grass fire on the side of Mt. Nebo resulted in a fire alarm this morning. The fire started at the base of the hill and burned to the top, but was kept from getting into the timber.

Going to Diamond Lake—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clinger and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith will leave here Saturday morning at 4 o'clock for Diamond Lake, where they will camp for a few days to fish and hunt. They will go by way of Crater Lake. The party expects to bring home the venison.
Leave for Coast—Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ferrier and two sons are over at the Coos county coast enjoying their summer vacation. They left yesterday for Cannon Beach, and will visit other coast resorts before coming home. Mr. Ferrier is the general bookkeeper for the J. O. Newland & Son Dodge Brothers sales agency in this city.

Raises Fine Peppers—J. M. Ritter and son, of the Umpqua gardens, today presented the News-Review with some exceptionally fine Umpqua valley bell peppers. The peppers are of great size and wonderful quality and would be hard to beat. The Pacific Fruit company, through Chas. Lawrence, the district manager, has purchased more than 600 pounds of these peppers from the Umpqua gardens.
Kill Big Deer—Sidney Heidwell, Arthur Managh and Frank Root, returned this afternoon from Cow creek canyon with a big buck deer killed there this morning. The three went out yesterday evening and at 6 o'clock this morning Mr. Heidwell saw a big four-point standing on an elevation and tumbled him off with one shot. The buck dressed nearly 125 pounds.

Surprised Geo. Marsh—The many friends of Mr. George Marsh, of Looking Glass (tendered that pioneer apple grower a real surprise Wednesday night, and swooped down upon that gentleman at his home. The occasion of the party was Mr. Marsh's eightieth anniversary, and his legion of friends wished him many more years of usefulness. Among the gifts presented to Mr. Marsh was a radio set, sent to him by his brother in California, Judge Marsh.

Real Estate Deals—Property transfers within the past week that were consummated by G. U. Heibig included a trade of the city home and three lots on West First street belonging to J. F. Custer to R. L. Riding. In exchange Mr. Custer received the Riding ranch of 70 acres near the Looking Glass valley. B. Hargis, of Myrtle Creek sold 54 acres near that town to Eugene Fosdick of Chicago. Another transfer was the 40 acre tract near Looking Glass that was purchased by W. F. Lehman of California.

THEATRES Liberty Theatre. A mad scramble for supremacy—a seething, bubbling caldron of hate—the human animal snarling, snapping, tearing at his brother human with the one desire to trample out his life! And back of it all a man, a man on whose shoulders rested the safety of the world, thinking of the woman he loved, the woman he believed had loved him, sorrowing for his lost love and planning vengeance against the rival who had stolen her affections! Drama in stark, nonlinear, dramatic, and in addition, delightful romance, exciting adventure, and marvelous acting. "The Danger Line," at the Liberty theater to day and tomorrow.

ROSEBURG PISTOL TEAM TAKES SECOND

The pistol team representing the Roseburg company of the Oregon National Guard, returned home this morning. The team took second place in the state pistol shoot, losing to Corvallis by a margin of 27 points. The team held the state championship last year, but lost the cup to Corvallis after a heated battle. Roseburg got away to a bad start and dropped below the records of the individual shooting the day before. Sergeant Frey lost the front sight on his pistol, while shooting on the first range, and had to use a new gun on the balance of the shooting, but managed to make good scores in spite of the handicap. In the individual shooting, Sergeant Farlow took fifth place, Sergeant Wesscott, sixth place, and Sergeant Frey eighth place. The team had had hard luck in the machine gun match, their gun refusing to operate properly.

Saved from death by Princess Umpqua, Oakland, Friday, 7:45 p. m. If you miss this Oakland show, Friday, you need a night cap and carpet slippers. Cut Gladhill, 50 cents and 75 cents per dozen. Harriet Halldeman 1647 Corey Avenue, Phone 280-1.

PRINCE OF WALES READY FOR VISIT

(Associated Press Released Wire.) LONDON, Aug. 22.—The Prince of Wales has packed his trunk, bid good-bye to his cronies, and with the exception of a few official matters to be attended to today is ready to hand over his tickets to the purser of the Berengaria which will leave tomorrow for South Ampton to take him on his second visit to the United States. The Prince's trip this time will lack the exclusiveness of his first visit which was made in a British man-of-war, for the capacity of the Berengaria has been packed by debutantes, who for various reasons are cutting off their European trips to hurry home-ward on this particular liner. The suite for the prince consisting of two bed rooms, saloon and breakfast room, now in spotless white with eay chairs covered in chairs and draperies, new furniture and fixtures and other improvements, including a tiled bath room. The prince will not dine in the general dining room, but a table will be placed in an alcove off the balcony of the saloon, set for the nine members of the prince's party who are entitled by invitation to sit around the board.

Wales' trip this time will lack the exclusiveness of his first visit which was made in a British man-of-war, for the capacity of the Berengaria has been packed by debutantes, who for various reasons are cutting off their European trips to hurry home-ward on this particular liner. The suite for the prince consisting of two bed rooms, saloon and breakfast room, now in spotless white with eay chairs covered in chairs and draperies, new furniture and fixtures and other improvements, including a tiled bath room.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT U. S. Weather Bureau, local office, Roseburg, Oregon, 24 hours ending 5 p. m.
Relative humidity 5 p. m. yesterday 75%
Precipitation in ins. and fluids, Highest temperature yesterday 81
Lowest temperature last night 62
Precipitation last 24 hours . . . 0
Total precip. since first of month 76
Normal precip. for this month 33
Total precip. from Sept. 1, 1923, to date 18.82
Average precip. from Sept. 1, 1923 34.37
Total deficiency from Sept. 1, 1923 15.45
Average precipitation for 46 wet seasons, (September to May, inclusive) 31.45
Fair tonight and Saturday.
WM. HELLS, Meteorologist.

We are all trying to get into the White House

President Coolidge is trying to keep his wardrobe trunk in the White House and Candidate Davis is ready to call the moving van. Meanwhile—Harth's Toggery is trying to get into the White House too. In Washington? NO—but into the white house you live in here in Roseburg. Now, it's going to take a clean man to get into the White House and it should take a clean value to get into your home. We ask you to see our Harth's Toggery Fall Suits and compare their style, their tailoring and their coat with any other candidates in the field then mark the ballot where it belongs. Our Fall Suits are Ready $30 to $50

Harth's TOGGERY

Have You Bought Your SEED? Choice cleaned common and Hungarian Vetch, Gray Oats, Cheat, Rye, Rye Grass. Get Our Prices Before You Buy: Wanted, Wheat and Barley SEE US FIRST—WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY. FARM BUREAU COOPERATIVE EXCHANGE Roseburg—Oakland

Don't Wait! Every time we advertise a bargain to you and you do not take advantage of the offer you're "lost out." For that reason it will be to your interest to read our "ads" and to act without delay. Some of our offerings are being snapped up so quick that to defer action on your purchase courts disappointment. Good things don't last long, and opportunity waits on no man. Therefore we say to you when you read our "ad" it's a good time to buy. For Saturday we will have: Canned Grape Fruit, per can 10c Heinz's Pork and Beans, 15c size 10c Borden's 20c can 10c 5 lb. lard sugar 40c Fruit Jars, Mason quarts 90c Have large supplies of Fruit and Vegetables. They are at their best now. Buy your supplies for canning at this time. In Our New Market We are not the biggest shop in town, but we do sell a little meat. SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY ONLY: Star Pot Roast, per lb. 15c Star Beef Meat, per lb. 12 1/2c Freshly made Hamburg, per lb. 15c Freshly made Pure Pork Sausage, per lb. 15c Young Beef Liver, per lb. 10c Cottage Cheese, per lb. 25c Flavored Buns, lb. 25c Yankee Ham, per lb. 10c We Also Sell Hams. Having purchased sixty-five head of two year old steers, we are going to sell them at very special prices. We Trim the Meat—Not the Customer. "THE BEST FOR LESS" PEOPLES SUPPLY CO. Grocery Phone 145 Market Phone 363

Heinlein Conservatory of Music and Art opens September 8th. Registration Week, Sept. 1-8. FACULTY: Piano, Harmony and Theory: Arthur Kuyers, Lucile Sappington; Dinning System of Improved Music Study: Lucile Sappington; Voice: Charles Brand; Violin, Orchestra, Cello, Guitar, Banjo: A. J. Young; Decorative and Pictorial Art: Charles E. Bush; Cornet and Trombone: John Sibley; Saxophone and Clarinet: Harry Crocker; Physical Education and Dramatic Art: Leo Adams; Dunning Assistant: Fonda Giles; Kindergarten Assistant: Mary Winston. Closes—Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays 9-11:30 o'clock. Closed for children and takes them home. HIGH SCHOOL CREDITS PHONE 390

KEARNEY'S GROCERIA 300 W. Cass St. SATURDAY SPECIALS! THIS PAIL CONTAINS—10 lbs P. & G. White Naphtha Soap, 1 medium bar Ivory Soap, 1 pk. Clorox Washing Machine Soap, 1 pk. Ivory Soap Flakes, 1 bar Toilet Soap. $1.25 Value for 93c. Van Camp's Sliced Grape Fruit, per can 10c Mothers Oats, 2 pkgs. for 65c Sugar Crisp Corn Flakes, 3 for 25c Albert's Minit Oats, 2 pkgs. for 55c SERVE YOURSELF AND SAVE AT KEARNEY'S GROCERIA THE STORE THAT BROUGHT 'EM DOWN

When You Start Building Your NEW HOME We have something new in the line in Builders Hardware to show you. Let Us Help You Make Your Selection ZIGLER-FEE HARDWARE CO. Phone 25 Watch our windows for bargains.