

Wherever the recipe calls for milk

Made in the Northwest

When the recipe says "milk" it puts up to you the responsibility of using the right milk. It can make or spoil the dish. When you put all the other ingredients and so much work into your cooking or baking, you can't afford to take a chance on the milk.

Borden's Evaporated Milk assures you sweet milk, pure milk, creamy milk—at any hour or season. And everybody likes the taste of Borden's. Try it—but insist on Borden's!

COLONIZATION PLAN PROPOSED

Irrigation Expert Urges More Colonization In Future Work.

REPORT IS GIVEN

Survey of Northwest Covering 9000 Miles, Including Oregon, Cites Need of Land Owners.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Adoption of a carefully planned policy for colonization of irrigation projects to be constructed in the future was urged by Dr. Elwood Mead, commissioner of reclamation, in a special report he submitted to Secretary Work today upon his return from a 9,000 mile inspection trip in the west. Dr. Mead visited projects in Utah, Nevada, California, Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming and Nebraska. "On each proposed new project an economic survey has been organized under the direction of G. C. Kretzner, director of the division of farm economics," said the report. "In this survey the cooperation of the state agricultural college of Utah, Nevada, California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho has been secured and these institutions have generally extended the services of experts on soils and farm management. These experts are now engaged in working out the problem of what water irrigation is worth in the districts of their states where the proposed projects are located and what it will cost settler to change raw land into improved form. When the experts have reached their conclusions on all of the proposed projects, they are to be submitted to local committees of bankers, farmers and business men for their suggestions as to costs and methods of development.

"Every factor that would lessen expense and hasten development of income must be considered. While water charges must in the end come from irrigated crops, irrigation works that are not followed promptly by beneficial agriculture are a financial burden to land owners. Long delayed agricultural development has weakened more of these enterprises than all other causes combined. The costlier the work the more important it is that this fact be recognized." Dr. Mead pointed out that hereafter attention must be given to where and how money needed in agricultural development be obtained; and how the settlers must be aided and directed to enable them to use their money, effort and time to best advantage.

"In order that the farmers may succeed a practical business approach must be taken. A knowledge of farm conditions should be employed to plan settlement and advise settlers," said Dr. Mead. "For the past six months I have been studying the causes for increasing arrears of payments by settlers and the widespread demand for postponement of payments on federal irrigation projects. One reason has been the extreme agricultural depression, which, however, is temporary and may be ignored. There are other reasons which we must consider. One of these is the terms on which settlers have bought farms and the prices they have paid for them. Another is lack of capital and the lack of other qualifications indispensable to success in agriculture. The evidence is conclusive that we must in the future pay more attention to settlement problems and the qualifications of settlers if we are to escape complications and losses that will discredit, if not terminate this policy.

"What I have seen in the last fifteen years of the achievements of planned settlement and financial farm development in other countries compels me to believe that we are ignoring the most valuable feature of reclamation, and a few demonstrations like the colonization plan I propose will assure the success of reclamation in the future."

FAMILIES INDUCED TO REMAIN HERE

Every evening proves that the business and professional men can no longer afford to stand aloof from the motor industry that stay at the auto camp each day. Last evening the committee found at least three families that have come to Roseburg with the idea of locating here permanently and needed the friendly talks that the committee-men gave them to make it almost certain that they will be here.

come residents of this city or vicinity. At least two families were induced to spend another day in this vicinity, and left this morning for the North Unqupa.

Tonight the following committee will visit the camp: Messrs. Walter Good, W. H. Fisher, O. C. Brown, Roy Holloway, W. H. Brown, and Dr. H. C. Church. This committee will report at the Chamber of Commerce office at 7 o'clock sharp and receive their badges.

Tomorrow evening the following committee has been selected: Messrs. H. S. French, V. S. French, B. F. Goodman, J. A. Feltner, A. J. Geddes and W. O. Clinger.

It is believed that when the business and professional men belonging to the Chamber of Commerce realize fully just what this plan of visiting with the tourists means that there will be no trouble in securing full committee membership for this pleasant tour. If they realize that every tourist is a potential contributor to the cash registers of this city it would seem that all would be anxious and willing to go their part in this campaign inaugurated by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

DROUTH KILLING SALMON AND TROUT

PORTLAND, Ore., August 22.—(United Press.)—Millions of small silverside salmon and trout are perishing in northwest streams because of the drouth, according to Thomas W. Ross, of the Oregon state fish commission.

"Headwater streams, where the silversides linger until they are ready to go to sea, and where trout flourish ordinarily, and where women are drying up," he said, "we have never had such a season before. Coast streams and streams in the Cascades that are usually powerful torrents are reduced to pools connected only by underground seepage.

"I received one report of a small sportsman near Corvallis who boasted his ability to catch fish with his hands out of these streams.

"That was in great contrast to another story of how lumberjacks in the Smith river district gave up their Sundays to carry trout and salmon fry in small cans two miles from a stream in which they were trapped to the river."

HAS MODEL METHOD IDENTIFYING MAN

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21.—James Wilson, testifying for the prosecution in the trial here today of Harry J. Dunlap, alleged "badger bandit," stepped down from the stand, walked around the counsel table and struck Dunlap in the eye.

"That," said Wilson, "is my method of identifying the man who held me up."

This was the second time an alleged victim had attacked Dunlap since his return here.

While in the county jail Ray Danks of San Bernardino was brought in to identify the prisoner and knocked him out with a blow to the jaw.

RACE PROGRAM AT OAKLAND SAT.

Fine Racing Card to Be Given in Connection With Farm Picnic.

GOVERNOR TO SPEAK

Pierce Will Make Talk Preceding Races—Ball Game Will End Festivities.

Six feature events are to be included in the race program to be given in connection with the annual Farm Bureau picnic to be held in Oakland on Saturday. The race program is to take place in the afternoon at the track belonging to the Oakland Gobblers, and promises to be an event well worth attending. Three races over the 2.5 mile distance will be scheduled, together with a mile relay race and a quarter mile dash. A banner feature will be the one mile flag relay race.

The entries are well known horses, belonging to local owners, and this will add to the interest in the event.

The following is the line-up for the race program:

1. 2.5 Mile Dash. Lady Boss, F. J. Smith, Midgott, L. W. Hogan.
2. 3.5 Mile Dash. Pony Race for Novices. Entries by: Frank Sparks, E. A. Ruz, J. A. Coules, King Charlie, Janet Cockeram, R. R. Clarke.
3. 2.5 Mile Dash. Reno, Floyd Smith, Blue Diamond, E. G. Young.
4. Mile Relay Race. Millwood Outlaws; Oakland Slickers; Dodge Canyon Specials.
5. 1.4 Mile Dash. Henry III, Roy McSabb; Juanita, Lynn Cresson.
6. One mile flag relay race.

The races are to be staged in the afternoon, and will be followed by a baseball game between the Farm Bureau team and the Oakland business men. Preceding the races Governor Pierce will speak. The morning will be given over to a program of music, talks and stunts, and a basket dinner will be enjoyed at noon.

This picnic is open to the entire public, and the Farm Bureau has extended an open invitation to everyone in Douglas county to attend.

Made a Hit With Him

"My wife has taken your medicine and has been wonderfully benefited. For over four years she has had trouble with bloating and could scarcely eat any food because of this condition. Doctor's medicine did not help her and an operation was advised. Her brother who is a druggist sent her a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy and it helped her at once. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by all druggists.

BABE RUTH PAYS CHAUFFEUR'S FINE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Babe Ruth knocked a Lums run in the Good Samaritan league today. A motor truck chauffeur, Barney Shams, fined $50 in traffic court for having driven his truck in front of the Babe's car while Mrs. Ruth and the wife of Mike McNally the Yankee outfielder were driving in it had only $25. The court said Shams would have to pay the difference by incarceration in the workhouse. Then Babe came to the plate.

"I'll pay the fine, Judge," he said. "There's the $50." But Shams insisted on giving over his $25 and let the Yankee swatter make up the $15 difference.
