

LOCAL NEWS

Man Here—
Edward of Dixonville was a visitor in the city today.

Man Visits—
Rock of Ocala was a visitor in Roseburg for a few days.

From Azalea—
Mrs. O. Jenks, of Azalea, is in the city today looking after business matters.

From Capitol—
Thacker, of Salem, is in the city today looking after business matters.

Friends—
Mrs. C. I. Helbig, of Salem, visited with Myrtle Creek friends here today.

From Vacation—
Mrs. C. I. Helbig, who spent part of her vacation at the coast, returned home yesterday on an enjoyable trip.

Back Today—
Back left by automobile for yesterday afternoon, and is after professional business today.

A Spike Buck—
Black and Claude Crocker, short hunting trip into the country, returned in the morning with a fine spike.

From Salem—
Stewart, of Salem, north representative for the Chas. Co., of Los Angeles, is in the city today or two in Roseburg.

And Sutherland—
Mrs. Earl Butterfield, daughter, Hazel and Ruby, are visiting in Sutherland, where they will attend the fair this year.

From Bellingham—
Marsh, the local Chevrolet returned here yesterday on a vacation trip that included Bellingham, where he had some folks.

From Kirby Today—
Cobb left this morning for Kirby, Oregon-California where he went to look over property. He will return tonight, making the trip by train.

Visitors in City—
Mrs. C. J. Wright of Anchorage, Alaska, was in the city today, en route to the coast for a vacation trip.

Folk Here—
Mrs. Alexander, of Milwaukie, is in the city for a few days visiting relatives here. She has been attending the camp in West Roseburg for a few days.

Has Moved Today—
Standard Bible church has been conducting revival in the tent opposite the grounds, today moved to the new building on Jackson street. The benches were moved in the morning and the other equipment will be installed at once.

Report Man Jailed—
Sheriff W. C. Grubbe, of Roseburg, today reported that a man who was convicted of possession of a rifle, Becker, was arrested in W. G. Bonson's justice and entered a plea of guilty. He was fined $500 and given 30 days in jail.

Army Head Here—
Mrs. Joseph A. Hill, of Portland, is in the city today, en route to the coast for a vacation trip.

Attends Kiwanis Convention—
Dr. Sidney DeLapp left yesterday by auto for Walla Walla, where he will attend the District Kiwanis convention as a delegate from the Roseburg club. Attorney George Neuner who is in Astoria on legal business for the state, will also attend. Mr. Neuner is the trustee of the Roseburg organization.

Grass Fire North of City—
The large Stutz fire truck was called out to fight a grass fire just north of Edinboro, along the Pacific highway yesterday afternoon. The firemen responded to the call and soon had the blaze under control. The flames were sweeping dangerously near several houses and barns and had it not been for the assistance of the Roseburg firemen some heavy losses would have been sustained.

Examining Board Meets—
The local examining board of the organized reserves met yesterday morning in the office of Lt. Col. George Houck and recommended several local men for commissions and promotions. Dr. W. C. Belt was recommended for promotion to a lieutenant colonel, and Drs. Cooper, Dillard, and Church for lieutenant. The members of the examining board are Dr. Houck, Leo Devaney and Dr. Dillard.

Rider Is Injured—
Kenneth Dunham, local railroad call boy, was painfully injured yesterday evening when he was thrown from his motorcycle. The machine was out of running order and was being towed in with Dunham riding it. The machine turned over at the Deer Creek bridge and the rider was dragged for about one hundred feet, and smashed against a telephone post. He sustained a broken rib and internal injuries and was badly cut and bruised. He was taken to the office of Dr. Melvin and given medical attention.

Minstrels as the Antlers—
Manager Goux today booked the Frank Burns Minstrel company for Tuesday night at the Antlers theatre. The company includes ten men all colored, and they carry with them their own jazz band. The Antlers will undoubtedly be packed for tomorrow night's show as minstrel attractions have always proved very popular in this city. There will be only one show tomorrow night.

Hotel Owner Here—
G. W. Dow and wife, of the Dow Hotel of Long Pine, Calif., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinger at the Grand Hotel last night. Mr. and Mrs. Dow are on an auto tour through the states of Oregon and Washington, and are greatly pleased with Roseburg and the fine hotel accommodations to be found in the city.

Name Unintentionally Omitted—
The name of Mrs. William Hiney who appeared on the Umpqua Square program at Oakland Friday night was unintentionally omitted from the writeup Saturday. Mrs. Hiney sang a beautiful solo and was one of the features of the program. The Umpqua Squares have secured her for the Glendale program to be given in the near future.

To Take Fine Trip—
Misses Vernita and Bertha Kohlhagen and E. J. Porter will leave tomorrow morning for Tacoma, Wn., to join Mrs. Fred Porter and son Cyril, who are visiting friends there. They will then continue to Vancouver, B. C., returning by Victoria and Olympia, Wn., enjoying a ten day vacation.

Former Resident Here—
Art Davis, well known Roseburg boy, who was formerly employed at the Shell Oil plant here, was a visitor in Roseburg Saturday and Sunday from Eugene where he is stationed for two weeks. Mr. Davis is relief clerk for the Shell Oil company in the northwest. From Eugene he goes to Park Place to relieve Clifford Sherrill, another Roseburg boy, who will come to Roseburg with his wife for a two weeks vacation.

Marshfield People in City—
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Savage of Marshfield were registered at the Hotel Umpqua last night.

Visiting Sister—
Mrs. H. Little, of Oakland, is spending a few days visiting with her sister, Mrs. M. Fickle, of this city.

On Hunting Trip—
County Treasurer Sawyers and Sheriff Starmer are on a hunting trip above Tiller. They will return to Roseburg tonight.

Going to the Hills—
Mr. and Mrs. Tom New and family left this morning for the mountain district above Tiller where they will spend a week enjoying a hunting trip. The Neuses have a cabin above Tiller fully equipped.

Hiker in City—
Chas. L. Greenleaf, agent United States hiker, is stopping in Roseburg for two days. Greenleaf has traveled from Los Angeles to New York, Florida, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles and is now wending his way towards Seattle, where he says he intends to remain indefinitely.

Marshfield People Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barnum of Marshfield are spending several days in Roseburg as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

At Home Over Sunday—
Clyde Catching, well known road contractor, who is working on the Roseburg Coos Highway near Bridge, spent Sunday with home folks in Roseburg.

Return From Trip—
Mrs. R. L. Bathrick and son who have been at Salt Lake City for the past few weeks, returned home Sunday. They stopped in Portland several days before returning home.

Take Motor Trip—
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bell spent the week end motoring up the McKenzie river, returning home late Sunday evening. They reside in Portland and will return home Wednesday.

Editor Stops in City—
Kenneth L. Hicks, editor of The Dalles Chronicle, stopped in the city this morning en route to Crater Lake for a vacation. He was accompanied by his wife and parents.

At His Desk Again—
F. A. Cook, bookkeeper for the C. A. Lockwood Motor Co., who has been enjoying his vacation for several days, was back at his desk today at Lockwood's Ford corner, after an enjoyable time spent out of town.

Erect New Fruit Stand—
Messrs. Rusho and Bellows have just completed the erection of a fine new fruit stand on the Carl Ohman property, at the intersection of the Garden Valley road and the Pacific Highway in Edinboro.

Take Hunting Trip—
Dr. B. R. Shoemaker, Leon McClintock and Lloyd Crocker returned last night from a hunting trip over the week end but were unable to produce any deer horns. The hunters were truthful and declared they did not even see one.

Ralph Hand Here—
Ralph Hand, the well known Cottage Grove wrestler, was in the city today. Mr. Hand is looking forward to some good matches during the winter season and says that several good cards are being arranged for Cottage Grove.

Have Fine Window Display—
An attractive window display is being made by the Zigler-Fee hardware company, showing sporting and outfit goods. The window is full of trophies and stuffed animals, together with a small cannon, and a display of rifles, ammunition, hunting knives, axes, etc.

In Town on Business—
Ben Klecker, of Salem, is in Roseburg for a few days looking after business matters. In connection with the Klecker is a member of the firm of Klecker & Amort, and expects to make Roseburg his headquarters by October 1st.

Hotel Owner Here—
G. W. Dow and wife, of the Dow Hotel of Long Pine, Calif., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinger at the Grand Hotel last night. Mr. and Mrs. Dow are on an auto tour through the states of Oregon and Washington, and are greatly pleased with Roseburg and the fine hotel accommodations to be found in the city.

Name Unintentionally Omitted—
The name of Mrs. William Hiney who appeared on the Umpqua Square program at Oakland Friday night was unintentionally omitted from the writeup Saturday. Mrs. Hiney sang a beautiful solo and was one of the features of the program. The Umpqua Squares have secured her for the Glendale program to be given in the near future.

To Take Fine Trip—
Misses Vernita and Bertha Kohlhagen and E. J. Porter will leave tomorrow morning for Tacoma, Wn., to join Mrs. Fred Porter and son Cyril, who are visiting friends there. They will then continue to Vancouver, B. C., returning by Victoria and Olympia, Wn., enjoying a ten day vacation.

Former Resident Here—
Art Davis, well known Roseburg boy, who was formerly employed at the Shell Oil plant here, was a visitor in Roseburg Saturday and Sunday from Eugene where he is stationed for two weeks. Mr. Davis is relief clerk for the Shell Oil company in the northwest. From Eugene he goes to Park Place to relieve Clifford Sherrill, another Roseburg boy, who will come to Roseburg with his wife for a two weeks vacation.

Marshfield People in City—
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Savage of Marshfield were registered at the Hotel Umpqua last night.

Visiting Sister—
Mrs. H. Little, of Oakland, is spending a few days visiting with her sister, Mrs. M. Fickle, of this city.

On Hunting Trip—
County Treasurer Sawyers and Sheriff Starmer are on a hunting trip above Tiller. They will return to Roseburg tonight.

Going to the Hills—
Mr. and Mrs. Tom New and family left this morning for the mountain district above Tiller where they will spend a week enjoying a hunting trip. The Neuses have a cabin above Tiller fully equipped.

Hiker in City—
Chas. L. Greenleaf, agent United States hiker, is stopping in Roseburg for two days. Greenleaf has traveled from Los Angeles to New York, Florida, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles and is now wending his way towards Seattle, where he says he intends to remain indefinitely.

Marshfield People Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barnum of Marshfield are spending several days in Roseburg as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

At Home Over Sunday—
Clyde Catching, well known road contractor, who is working on the Roseburg Coos Highway near Bridge, spent Sunday with home folks in Roseburg.

Return From Trip—
Mrs. R. L. Bathrick and son who have been at Salt Lake City for the past few weeks, returned home Sunday. They stopped in Portland several days before returning home.

Take Motor Trip—
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bell spent the week end motoring up the McKenzie river, returning home late Sunday evening. They reside in Portland and will return home Wednesday.

Editor Stops in City—
Kenneth L. Hicks, editor of The Dalles Chronicle, stopped in the city this morning en route to Crater Lake for a vacation. He was accompanied by his wife and parents.

At His Desk Again—
F. A. Cook, bookkeeper for the C. A. Lockwood Motor Co., who has been enjoying his vacation for several days, was back at his desk today at Lockwood's Ford corner, after an enjoyable time spent out of town.

Erect New Fruit Stand—
Messrs. Rusho and Bellows have just completed the erection of a fine new fruit stand on the Carl Ohman property, at the intersection of the Garden Valley road and the Pacific Highway in Edinboro.

Take Hunting Trip—
Dr. B. R. Shoemaker, Leon McClintock and Lloyd Crocker returned last night from a hunting trip over the week end but were unable to produce any deer horns. The hunters were truthful and declared they did not even see one.

Ralph Hand Here—
Ralph Hand, the well known Cottage Grove wrestler, was in the city today. Mr. Hand is looking forward to some good matches during the winter season and says that several good cards are being arranged for Cottage Grove.

Have Fine Window Display—
An attractive window display is being made by the Zigler-Fee hardware company, showing sporting and outfit goods. The window is full of trophies and stuffed animals, together with a small cannon, and a display of rifles, ammunition, hunting knives, axes, etc.

In Town on Business—
Ben Klecker, of Salem, is in Roseburg for a few days looking after business matters. In connection with the Klecker is a member of the firm of Klecker & Amort, and expects to make Roseburg his headquarters by October 1st.

Hotel Owner Here—
G. W. Dow and wife, of the Dow Hotel of Long Pine, Calif., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinger at the Grand Hotel last night. Mr. and Mrs. Dow are on an auto tour through the states of Oregon and Washington, and are greatly pleased with Roseburg and the fine hotel accommodations to be found in the city.

Name Unintentionally Omitted—
The name of Mrs. William Hiney who appeared on the Umpqua Square program at Oakland Friday night was unintentionally omitted from the writeup Saturday. Mrs. Hiney sang a beautiful solo and was one of the features of the program. The Umpqua Squares have secured her for the Glendale program to be given in the near future.

To Take Fine Trip—
Misses Vernita and Bertha Kohlhagen and E. J. Porter will leave tomorrow morning for Tacoma, Wn., to join Mrs. Fred Porter and son Cyril, who are visiting friends there. They will then continue to Vancouver, B. C., returning by Victoria and Olympia, Wn., enjoying a ten day vacation.

Former Resident Here—
Art Davis, well known Roseburg boy, who was formerly employed at the Shell Oil plant here, was a visitor in Roseburg Saturday and Sunday from Eugene where he is stationed for two weeks. Mr. Davis is relief clerk for the Shell Oil company in the northwest. From Eugene he goes to Park Place to relieve Clifford Sherrill, another Roseburg boy, who will come to Roseburg with his wife for a two weeks vacation.

Marshfield People in City—
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Savage of Marshfield were registered at the Hotel Umpqua last night.

Visiting Sister—
Mrs. H. Little, of Oakland, is spending a few days visiting with her sister, Mrs. M. Fickle, of this city.

On Hunting Trip—
County Treasurer Sawyers and Sheriff Starmer are on a hunting trip above Tiller. They will return to Roseburg tonight.

Going to the Hills—
Mr. and Mrs. Tom New and family left this morning for the mountain district above Tiller where they will spend a week enjoying a hunting trip. The Neuses have a cabin above Tiller fully equipped.

Hiker in City—
Chas. L. Greenleaf, agent United States hiker, is stopping in Roseburg for two days. Greenleaf has traveled from Los Angeles to New York, Florida, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles and is now wending his way towards Seattle, where he says he intends to remain indefinitely.

Marshfield People Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barnum of Marshfield are spending several days in Roseburg as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

At Home Over Sunday—
Clyde Catching, well known road contractor, who is working on the Roseburg Coos Highway near Bridge, spent Sunday with home folks in Roseburg.

Return From Trip—
Mrs. R. L. Bathrick and son who have been at Salt Lake City for the past few weeks, returned home Sunday. They stopped in Portland several days before returning home.

Take Motor Trip—
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bell spent the week end motoring up the McKenzie river, returning home late Sunday evening. They reside in Portland and will return home Wednesday.

Editor Stops in City—
Kenneth L. Hicks, editor of The Dalles Chronicle, stopped in the city this morning en route to Crater Lake for a vacation. He was accompanied by his wife and parents.

At His Desk Again—
F. A. Cook, bookkeeper for the C. A. Lockwood Motor Co., who has been enjoying his vacation for several days, was back at his desk today at Lockwood's Ford corner, after an enjoyable time spent out of town.

Erect New Fruit Stand—
Messrs. Rusho and Bellows have just completed the erection of a fine new fruit stand on the Carl Ohman property, at the intersection of the Garden Valley road and the Pacific Highway in Edinboro.

Take Hunting Trip—
Dr. B. R. Shoemaker, Leon McClintock and Lloyd Crocker returned last night from a hunting trip over the week end but were unable to produce any deer horns. The hunters were truthful and declared they did not even see one.

Ralph Hand Here—
Ralph Hand, the well known Cottage Grove wrestler, was in the city today. Mr. Hand is looking forward to some good matches during the winter season and says that several good cards are being arranged for Cottage Grove.

Have Fine Window Display—
An attractive window display is being made by the Zigler-Fee hardware company, showing sporting and outfit goods. The window is full of trophies and stuffed animals, together with a small cannon, and a display of rifles, ammunition, hunting knives, axes, etc.

In Town on Business—
Ben Klecker, of Salem, is in Roseburg for a few days looking after business matters. In connection with the Klecker is a member of the firm of Klecker & Amort, and expects to make Roseburg his headquarters by October 1st.

Hotel Owner Here—
G. W. Dow and wife, of the Dow Hotel of Long Pine, Calif., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinger at the Grand Hotel last night. Mr. and Mrs. Dow are on an auto tour through the states of Oregon and Washington, and are greatly pleased with Roseburg and the fine hotel accommodations to be found in the city.

Name Unintentionally Omitted—
The name of Mrs. William Hiney who appeared on the Umpqua Square program at Oakland Friday night was unintentionally omitted from the writeup Saturday. Mrs. Hiney sang a beautiful solo and was one of the features of the program. The Umpqua Squares have secured her for the Glendale program to be given in the near future.

To Take Fine Trip—
Misses Vernita and Bertha Kohlhagen and E. J. Porter will leave tomorrow morning for Tacoma, Wn., to join Mrs. Fred Porter and son Cyril, who are visiting friends there. They will then continue to Vancouver, B. C., returning by Victoria and Olympia, Wn., enjoying a ten day vacation.

Former Resident Here—
Art Davis, well known Roseburg boy, who was formerly employed at the Shell Oil plant here, was a visitor in Roseburg Saturday and Sunday from Eugene where he is stationed for two weeks. Mr. Davis is relief clerk for the Shell Oil company in the northwest. From Eugene he goes to Park Place to relieve Clifford Sherrill, another Roseburg boy, who will come to Roseburg with his wife for a two weeks vacation.

Marshfield People in City—
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Savage of Marshfield were registered at the Hotel Umpqua last night.

Visiting Sister—
Mrs. H. Little, of Oakland, is spending a few days visiting with her sister, Mrs. M. Fickle, of this city.

On Hunting Trip—
County Treasurer Sawyers and Sheriff Starmer are on a hunting trip above Tiller. They will return to Roseburg tonight.

Going to the Hills—
Mr. and Mrs. Tom New and family left this morning for the mountain district above Tiller where they will spend a week enjoying a hunting trip. The Neuses have a cabin above Tiller fully equipped.

Hiker in City—
Chas. L. Greenleaf, agent United States hiker, is stopping in Roseburg for two days. Greenleaf has traveled from Los Angeles to New York, Florida, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles and is now wending his way towards Seattle, where he says he intends to remain indefinitely.

Marshfield People Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barnum of Marshfield are spending several days in Roseburg as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

At Home Over Sunday—
Clyde Catching, well known road contractor, who is working on the Roseburg Coos Highway near Bridge, spent Sunday with home folks in Roseburg.

Return From Trip—
Mrs. R. L. Bathrick and son who have been at Salt Lake City for the past few weeks, returned home Sunday. They stopped in Portland several days before returning home.

Take Motor Trip—
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bell spent the week end motoring up the McKenzie river, returning home late Sunday evening. They reside in Portland and will return home Wednesday.

Editor Stops in City—
Kenneth L. Hicks, editor of The Dalles Chronicle, stopped in the city this morning en route to Crater Lake for a vacation. He was accompanied by his wife and parents.

At His Desk Again—
F. A. Cook, bookkeeper for the C. A. Lockwood Motor Co., who has been enjoying his vacation for several days, was back at his desk today at Lockwood's Ford corner, after an enjoyable time spent out of town.

Erect New Fruit Stand—
Messrs. Rusho and Bellows have just completed the erection of a fine new fruit stand on the Carl Ohman property, at the intersection of the Garden Valley road and the Pacific Highway in Edinboro.

Take Hunting Trip—
Dr. B. R. Shoemaker, Leon McClintock and Lloyd Crocker returned last night from a hunting trip over the week end but were unable to produce any deer horns. The hunters were truthful and declared they did not even see one.

Ralph Hand Here—
Ralph Hand, the well known Cottage Grove wrestler, was in the city today. Mr. Hand is looking forward to some good matches during the winter season and says that several good cards are being arranged for Cottage Grove.

Have Fine Window Display—
An attractive window display is being made by the Zigler-Fee hardware company, showing sporting and outfit goods. The window is full of trophies and stuffed animals, together with a small cannon, and a display of rifles, ammunition, hunting knives, axes, etc.

In Town on Business—
Ben Klecker, of Salem, is in Roseburg for a few days looking after business matters. In connection with the Klecker is a member of the firm of Klecker & Amort, and expects to make Roseburg his headquarters by October 1st.

Hotel Owner Here—
G. W. Dow and wife, of the Dow Hotel of Long Pine, Calif., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinger at the Grand Hotel last night. Mr. and Mrs. Dow are on an auto tour through the states of Oregon and Washington, and are greatly pleased with Roseburg and the fine hotel accommodations to be found in the city.

Name Unintentionally Omitted—
The name of Mrs. William Hiney who appeared on the Umpqua Square program at Oakland Friday night was unintentionally omitted from the writeup Saturday. Mrs. Hiney sang a beautiful solo and was one of the features of the program. The Umpqua Squares have secured her for the Glendale program to be given in the near future.

To Take Fine Trip—
Misses Vernita and Bertha Kohlhagen and E. J. Porter will leave tomorrow morning for Tacoma, Wn., to join Mrs. Fred Porter and son Cyril, who are visiting friends there. They will then continue to Vancouver, B. C., returning by Victoria and Olympia, Wn., enjoying a ten day vacation.

Former Resident Here—
Art Davis, well known Roseburg boy, who was formerly employed at the Shell Oil plant here, was a visitor in Roseburg Saturday and Sunday from Eugene where he is stationed for two weeks. Mr. Davis is relief clerk for the Shell Oil company in the northwest. From Eugene he goes to Park Place to relieve Clifford Sherrill, another Roseburg boy, who will come to Roseburg with his wife for a two weeks vacation.

Marshfield People in City—
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Savage of Marshfield were registered at the Hotel Umpqua last night.

Visiting Sister—
Mrs. H. Little, of Oakland, is spending a few days visiting with her sister, Mrs. M. Fickle, of this city.

On Hunting Trip—
County Treasurer Sawyers and Sheriff Starmer are on a hunting trip above Tiller. They will return to Roseburg tonight.

Going to the Hills—
Mr. and Mrs. Tom New and family left this morning for the mountain district above Tiller where they will spend a week enjoying a hunting trip. The Neuses have a cabin above Tiller fully equipped.

Hiker in City—
Chas. L. Greenleaf, agent United States hiker, is stopping in Roseburg for two days. Greenleaf has traveled from Los Angeles to New York, Florida, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles and is now wending his way towards Seattle, where he says he intends to remain indefinitely.

Marshfield People Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barnum of Marshfield are spending several days in Roseburg as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

At Home Over Sunday—
Clyde Catching, well known road contractor, who is working on the Roseburg Coos Highway near Bridge, spent Sunday with home folks in Roseburg.

Return From Trip—
Mrs. R. L. Bathrick and son who have been at Salt Lake City for the past few weeks, returned home Sunday. They stopped in Portland several days before returning home.

Take Motor Trip—
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bell spent the week end motoring up the McKenzie river, returning home late Sunday evening. They reside in Portland and will return home Wednesday.

Editor Stops in City—
Kenneth L. Hicks, editor of The Dalles Chronicle, stopped in the city this morning en route to Crater Lake for a vacation. He was accompanied by his wife and parents.

At His Desk Again—
F. A. Cook, bookkeeper for the C. A. Lockwood Motor Co., who has been enjoying his vacation for several days, was back at his desk today at Lockwood's Ford corner, after an enjoyable time spent out of town.

Erect New Fruit Stand—
Messrs. Rusho and Bellows have just completed the erection of a fine new fruit stand on the Carl Ohman property, at the intersection of the Garden Valley road and the Pacific Highway in Edinboro.

Take Hunting Trip—
Dr. B. R. Shoemaker, Leon McClintock and Lloyd Crocker returned last night from a hunting trip over the week end but were unable to produce any deer horns. The hunters were truthful and declared they did not even see one.

Ralph Hand Here—
Ralph Hand, the well known Cottage Grove wrestler, was in the city today. Mr. Hand is looking forward to some good matches during the winter season and says that several good cards are being arranged for Cottage Grove.

Have Fine Window Display—
An attractive window display is being made by the Zigler-Fee hardware company, showing sporting and outfit goods. The window is full of trophies and stuffed animals, together with a small cannon, and a display of rifles, ammunition, hunting knives, axes, etc.

In Town on Business—
Ben Klecker, of Salem, is in Roseburg for a few days looking after business matters. In connection with the Klecker is a member of the firm of Klecker & Amort, and expects to make Roseburg his headquarters by October 1st.

Hotel Owner Here—
G. W. Dow and wife, of the Dow Hotel of Long Pine, Calif., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinger at the Grand Hotel last night. Mr. and Mrs. Dow are on an auto tour through the states of Oregon and Washington, and are greatly pleased with Roseburg and the fine hotel accommodations to be found in the city.

Name Unintentionally Omitted—
The name of Mrs. William Hiney who appeared on the Umpqua Square program at Oakland Friday night was unintentionally omitted from the writeup Saturday. Mrs. Hiney sang a beautiful solo and was one of the features of the program. The Umpqua Squares have secured her for the Glendale program to be given in the near future.

To Take Fine Trip—
Misses Vernita and Bertha Kohlhagen and E. J. Porter will leave tomorrow morning for Tacoma, Wn., to join Mrs. Fred Porter and son Cyril, who are visiting friends there. They will then continue to Vancouver, B. C., returning by Victoria and Olympia, Wn., enjoying a ten day vacation.

Former Resident Here—
Art Davis, well known Roseburg boy, who was formerly employed at the Shell Oil plant here, was a visitor in Roseburg Saturday and Sunday from Eugene where he is stationed for two weeks. Mr. Davis is relief clerk for the Shell Oil company in the northwest. From Eugene he goes to Park Place to relieve Clifford Sherrill, another Roseburg boy, who will come to Roseburg with his wife for a two weeks vacation.

Marshfield People in City—
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Savage of Marshfield were registered at the Hotel Umpqua last night.

Visiting Sister—
Mrs. H. Little, of Oakland, is spending a few days visiting with her sister, Mrs. M. Fickle, of this city.

On Hunting Trip—
County Treasurer Sawyers and Sheriff Starmer are on a hunting trip above Tiller. They will return to Roseburg tonight.

Going to the Hills—
Mr. and Mrs. Tom New and family left this morning for the mountain district above Tiller where they will spend a week enjoying a hunting trip. The Neuses have a cabin above Tiller fully equipped.