ROSEBURG, OREGON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 1924.

GET NEXT TO THE POWER.

The reason why you or any of us, is not contented and happy in this life, is because you are not as successful as you would like to be.

There is the question that is ever confronting you, and which you are or should be, most anxious to solve.

Be sure there is a good and sufficient reason why you are not successful and, if you will, you may understand it.

It is because your ways are not Nature's ways. Instead of taking into account the eternal truth, accepting the laws of life, and pondering the great facts in Nature, and directing your life accordingly, you ignore the more important of these and assert your individual will against Nature and reason and fact.

As compared with these your will is as weak and puny as the reed that is swayed and bent by every passing wind.

The nearer the source of power the more efficient the machine, is a law of mechanics. It is more; it is one of the eternal laws governing force.

God, or Nature, if you prefer, is the source of all force, physical, mental and spiritual, and the nearer you get to this the more efficient you will be in any line of action you may choose.

In fact, as you may readily see and understand, when you are practically invincible, your will is supreme in your sphere, and you may command that which you desire.

Know yourself. That is most important. The man who doesn't know himself is apt to attempt that for which he is not fitted.

How to know yourself is not so very difficult. That which a man does well is that which he is best fitted to do. Note, therefore, the trend of your tastes, mark the things you find pleasure in doing, and seek to keep in the way of these.

Think it over carefully and determine definitely what it is that you desire to accomplish in life, and then get in line with the forces, and you will succeed, for you will then have all the forces of God, or Nature, on your side.

Orders have been issued by Attorney General Stone to United States attorneys at coast and border points to employ the Tariff Act of 1922 against liquor runners whenever possible. Under Section 593 of the Tariff Act, smugglers of goods, including whiskey, are liable to imprisonment in a federal penitentiary and a fine of $5,000, while under the prohibition laws the punishment of the smugglers is much less certain and the penalty lighter.

dropping down into the shaft like a plummet. The opening of the cavern is in New Mexico but the cave itself extends into Texas. The cave has not been fully explored and its dimensions are not known. It is believed to go down 800 feet below sea level. The ceilings in some places are so high that a person standing on the floor cannot see them even with strong torches.

At the entrance 700 feet below are three large rooms. The largest is called Shinarump. It is a chamber of a king of Navaho Indian mythology. The smallest is 150 feet long by 140 feet wide. The largest has not been measured. The three are decorated with stonework, and thousands of stalactites. Still another big room further on is more than a half mile in length. The stalactites here from the floor like great white monuments, and the glittering sides and ceiling resemble the banquet room of a mythological king.

TELEPHONE CO. EXTENDS LINES

Many Improvements Made During the Past Few Months.

NEW LINE TO COAST

Repeaters Installed in Local Exchange to Take Care of Traffic From Tributary Circuits

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company has made a number of very substantial improvements during the past few months, and is planning greater extensions and improvements for the future. Much of the improvement is in the way of added service, keeping ahead of the growth of Roseburg and Douglas county, particularly in the way of improving long distance service between Roseburg and the coast. Six hundred poles and cross arms were placed between Camas Valley and Remote on the Roseburg-Myrtle Point line, providing additional toll facilities. A complete new line was built, using 39 loop miles of copper wire, at a cost of $37,800. Between Remote and Myrtle Point, the company built 15.6 miles of new line, placing 615 poles and cross arms, 170 anchors and guys and 47 miles of copper wire, at an expenditure of $35,000.

On the main line the toll facilities have been improved by the installation of two high pass and four low pass filters. This improvement cost $2,000.

Between Roseburg and Camas Valley the company constructed a new line, with 580 poles 875 cross-arms and 705 miles of copper wire, the cost being about $32,300. In the local exchange a crew of Western Electric Company installers have completed the installation of one additional section of toll switchboard, costing approximately $2,900. Immediately following this they expect to install a portable cord circuit telephone repeater to handle traffic switched to distant points from tributary circuits and from circuits recently built by the Coos and Curry county exchange over the Marshfield route. This emergency repeater is being installed at this time at a cost of about $1,000 in order to provide the best possible grade of transmission from the time the Coos and Curry county circuits are completed and later in the year it is planned to add two additional cord circuit repeaters. At the time this latest improvement is made, a complete 120 volt power plant will be installed, the total cost of the project being $7,000.

At the present time, Frank Meyerden, engineer for the company, is obtaining an estimate on the cost of improving the Roseburg-Oakland circuit. It is planned to straighten and strengthen this line, and in some places give entirely new construction over a shorter route. The full details on this work have not yet been made.

RUMANIA'S CONTROL OF MINORITY SECTS IS UNDER INQUIRY

BUCHAREST, Aug. 29.—Considerable interest is being displayed in the present visit to Rumania of the Anglo-American delegation for the study of the condition of the minority churches of Transylvania. The delegation is composed of four members, and includes Dr. I. C. Cornish, of Boston, secretary of the American Unitarian Association; Dr. Charles Schaeffer, of Churches of the United States; Dr. Sylvester Beach, of Princeton of the Association of Presbyterian Churches; and the Rev. Dr. A. S. Horn, of Leicester, England of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association.

The members of the delegation, after such preparatory study as was possible in Bucharest, have traveled more than 1,000 miles in Transylvania, and held conferences in different parts of the province, going freely and unaccompanied from place to place in pursuit of their investigation, and sparing no effort to arrive at the true condition of affairs in respect to the attitude of the Rumanian government towards the so-called minority churches. In an address a few days ago, returning thanks to officials of the Rumanian government for their readiness in answering such data as the delegates asked for in order to give them an insight into the government's attitude and policies towards the religious minorities, Dr. Horn said: "We are of the opinion that our conditions have improved during the past two years. We understand the enormous difficulties of this problem, a problem complex of religion and race. I cannot say that we are fully satisfied with the conditions—as we found them—of the minority churches, but it seems to us that the Rumanian government wants to satisfy all reasonable and just demands." The commission has announced that it will prepare a joint and complete preliminary report of its investigations, in which will be set forth in detail all cases of alleged abuses that were brought to its attention. The government will then be given ample opportunity to refute or explain any charges that may be brought and, following this, the final report of the commission will be published in Great Britain and the United States. This report should be extremely valuable from two angles. It will probably lead or at least help in leading, to the redress of such abuses of power as may at present exist, and at the same time, provide the outside world with a complete and unbiased report on the condition of the minority races and religions in the province of Transylvania.

On a warrant sworn out by Canon, the Rev. Dr. William Chase, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, and pastor of the New York Civic League, Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine, has been arrested in New York on a charge of perjury.
