LOCAL NEWS

Buys Ford Coupe—
Mrs. Fred Remmer, of Happy Valley, has purchased a new Ford coupe.

Returns From Portland—
Doe Mathews, of the Motor-X-Change, returned Saturday from a business trip to Portland.

Spent Saturday Here—J. R. Patterson and family, of Sutherlin, spent Saturday in this city, where Mr. Patterson held services in the West Roseburg Adventist church.

Throat Operation—Allena, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brown, was operated on for throat trouble by Dr. Seely.
She is at the local hospital, but will soon be about again.

Prof. Walter E. Hercher, of Dilland, was a business visitor in the city today, preparatory to leaving this week for Central Point, where he will again have the grade principals of the public schools.

Taking Vacation—Joe Blosser, house man at the Umpqua Hotel, is taking a month's vacation while his brother, a resident of Kansas, is visiting here.
They left this morning for Bandon to spend a short time at the beach.

Left Sunday For Portland—Bert G. Bates and his mother, Mrs. B. W. Bates, left Sunday by auto for Portland. The former will return early this week while Mrs. Bates expects to spend some time at the metropolis.

Miss Quackenbush Home—Miss Elsie Quackenbush, of the Terminal Beauty Shop, has returned from Portland, where she has been taking a course in paper cutting and the latest styles of marceling and hair dressing.

Return From Trip to Portland—Miss Beulah Jewett, of the News-Review force, who is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from her duties, returned Saturday from Portland where she spent a week visiting with relatives and friends.

Granges to Exhibit—Four granges have already entered exhibits in the Home Products Show to be held in this city Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.
Glade, Evergreen, Looking Glass and Melrose. It is expected that at least one more grange will participate in the exhibition.

Dr. DeLapp Home—Dr. S. L. DeLapp, wife and daughter, who have been on a tour of Washington state, have returned to their home in this city. Dr.
DeLapp attended the Kiwanis convention in Walla Walla, and they then went on a long tour to many points of interest in the state.

Assigned Territory—J. D. Welch, district manager of the Woodstock typewriter company, has been returned to the northwest district after being located in California for several years. Mr. Welch was in Roseburg today, and states that he is certainly glad to get back into Oregon and Washington. He will have his headquarters in Seattle and will make Roseburg regularly from now on.

Showing Pears—F. G. Ewens, of Sutherlin, has on exhibit at the Chamber of Commerce a plate of Golden Pears which are attracting a great deal of favorable attention. He states that thus far he has taken off 1925 orchard run apple boxes of them and expects about four car loads from the four and one-half acres of orchard. At the present prices Mr. Ewens will net a goodly sum from his investment.

Garden Truck Shown—H. B. Church has on display at the Chamber of Commerce some very fine samples of garden truck from his place on Commercial avenue. Mr. Church will have at least fifty varieties of Chrysanthemums within a month, as he has again specialized on this particular flower this year. Without a doubt Mr. Church has one of the finest gardens in the city, or for that matter, in the country.

Guests of Weavers—Ernest Drury, wife and son, Ernest Jr., spent last night in Roseburg at the guest of Manager and Mrs. W. J. Weaver, of the Umpqua Hotel. Mr. Drury is resident manager of the Hotel Whitcomb in San Francisco. Hotel Whitcomb is one of the Linnard chain, one of the biggest hotel concerns in the country. They are visiting today in Salem with Mrs. Drury's relatives, and will stop here tomorrow night to spend a couple of days on their way home.

W. D. Neely Here—W. D. Neely, whose home is at Tiller, spent the day in Roseburg.
He is employed at Myrtle Point in the Jennings Lumber camp, but is arranging now to move his furniture from Tiller to Eugene where his parents are living. His daughter Norma, who is living in Portland, will join her father here tonight on her way from Klamath Falls, where she has been spending her vacation, back to Portland.

Finish Prune Harvest—L. E. Thompson completed his prune harvest Sunday, and the crop is all dried and ready for market. Mr. Thompson, who has the old Emery ranch in Coles Valley, has about 5000 bushels of the dried fruit this for the first time and it was a great success, handling as many as five tons in a 24 hour shift. The yield this year was only fair. Mr. Thompson says, but the quality was excellent, despite an unusually dry summer and fall.

Mrs. C. O. Reymers, 446 S. Jackson, Phone 215-N, is now agent for the Oregon Journal.

Talent Man in Town—J. W. Shattuck, of Talent, Oregon, spent yesterday in this city visiting with friends.

Yoncalla Lady Here—
Mrs. L. W. Wese of Yoncalla, spent the day in Roseburg shopping.

In From Melrose—Clara Anderson of Melrose was a visitor in Roseburg for a few hours today.

W. H. Lowrance of Dillard spent the day in the city looking after business affairs.

Drain Women Here—
Mrs. Joseph Cellars and Mrs. Ben Mattoon, of Drain, were in the city today shopping.

Here From Sutherlin—F. E. Warner, of Sutherlin, spent the day in Roseburg looking after business affairs.

Here From Reedsport—Pearl M. Pyritz of Reedsport is spending a few days in Roseburg.
She is registered at the Grand Hotel.

In Portland—
W. O. Jogard and wife left for Portland Saturday night, and will not be home before the middle of the week.

Down From Sutherlin—M. L. Squire, of Sutherlin, was in Roseburg today arranging to take a load of fruit by truck to Marshfield.

Off For Hunt—
C. Casper and Paul Oliver, ranchers from the North Umpqua district, left this afternoon for the Buck Fork country to get their quota of deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Chiene and son, of Marshfield, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Wood, of West Roseburg. Mr. Chiene is the office manager of the Coos Bay Water Company.

At Hospital Here—
M. R. Grant Levens, of Elkton, is a patient at the local hospital, where he underwent an operation for throat trouble. Dr. Seely is in attendance.

Here From Yoncalla—Dale Cowar, a garage and motor shop man from Yoncalla, spent a few hours in town today looking after business matters and hobnobing with friends.

In Hospital—Miss Doris Jackson, who has been employed at Wimberly's, is confined to Mercy Hospital with a threatened attack of appendicitis.

Home From Canada—
Fred Porter, of the Lockwood Motor Co. garage, who has been away for two weeks on his vacation, is home again. He visited British Columbia during his trip.

Visiting in Portland—Chester Endrup, of this city, is at Portland for a few days looking over the city and visiting with friends. Mr. Endrup is the window dresser for Harth's Toggery.

L. E. Newton, of Canyonville, was transacting business in Roseburg today. He has just sold his 28-acre ranch, a quarter of a mile east of Canyonville to Charles Walker, a Southern Pacific employee of Glendale, whose parents will reside on the place. The price paid was $1500. Mr. Newton has moved into Canyonville and may engage in business there.

Drives Car Down—
J. W. Michael, Chrysler-Maxwell agent for this territory, who went to Portland late in the week, arrived here last night with the very latest model in Maxwell touring cars. He had hard work to get over one machine out of the shipment that was received at Portland, as the demand was so great for these models.

Left For Los Angeles—
Mrs. Hazelton, her daughter, Miss Edna Hazelton, and Mr. Wilbert Hazelton, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
Rusho, of South Main Street, left this morning for Los Angeles.
These people are from Sprin-field, Missouri, and with exception of Miss Hazelton, who will return to Roseburg, are enroute east.

Surprised Mr. Goettel—Mr. and Mrs. Emil Mustback, accompanied by their daughter, of LeMar, Iowa, dropped in on their old friends, Mr. and Mrs.
Otto Goettel, of this city, recently, and it was a great surprise to Mr. Goettel. The two men were former partners in a grocery business at LeMar. The Iowans were enroute south, having motored from the east over the northern route. They will visit California before returning home.

Returns From Hunt—J. B. Saylor, of Canyonville, was in town today for a short time, and stated that he had just gotten back from a hunting expedition in the big game country between the North and South Umpqua rivers east of Tiller. Mr. Saylor piloted a party of Californians to that section, and they succeeded in getting several deer. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen, and Mrs. Mason, of Los Angeles, who have returned south, and Wm.
Mills and son, Harlan, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Delano, Cal. These latter people are still above Can-yonville in camp, and probably will come in tomorrow.
