

FRUIT JARS

at a price you will not get again soon.

Pints	Quarts	2 Quarts
.95	$1.10	$1.48
.75	.85	1.25
$1.00	$1.20

Jell Glasses 40c and 45c per dozen.
Hurry or they will be gone.

Archill Hardware COMPANY

ALL OCTOBER 10, IF THE STOCK HOLDS OUT

STORE

WE OFFER you an almost inexhaustible assortment of silks, satins, crepes and taffetas for practically all purposes. You are cordially invited to inspect them at any time.

"Quality and Economy"
The Silk Store
Silks and Satins

Street, afternoon and evening uses

JACKSON STREET

STORE

Oysters and Clams

are at Their Best Now!

at Eastern Oysters and Coos Bay Clams Served as You Like Them at

DOUGLAS GRILL

delicacies of the season and a perfect Restaurant Service from 5:30 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Breakfast Specials, Waffles and Hot Cakes and the that can be made. Catering in all its branches.

W. R. WARNER, Prop.

EPOCHS OF LIFE!

epoch of your life was when you were
The second epoch of your life is when your own home.

side your first epoch right, why not make your second epoch and buy your doors, windows, finish, mouldings of us. Bought here means built here.

burg Lumber & Mfg. Co.

Quality and Service Right—Prices Reasonable

Super Values

Lowest Prices!

guaranteed Groceries here at real reduced prices prevail because we do a volume of business.

FRESH VEGETABLES AT OUR STORE ALWAYS

KENS BROTHERS

Phone 68

Point Week!

NEXT WEEK SPECIAL
October 6 to 11 inclusive

Hot Point Vacuum Cleaner for $33.75

Place Your Order Now
Watch Window for Bargains.

ER-FEE HARDWARE CO.

PHONE 25
311 NO. JACKSON

LOCAL NEWS

Shopping in Roseburg—

Mrs. C. O. Barry, well known lady of Canyonville, was a visitor in this city yesterday, and while here did some shopping.

Here From San Francisco—

Dubey Campbell, formerly of Roseburg, is visiting with relatives here for a few days. He will also visit in Portland before returning to San Francisco.

Back From Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Campbell, who reside just south of the city, who have been visiting in Portland for a few days, returned home this afternoon.

Ladies Aid Society to Meet—

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in the church parlors. An interesting meeting has been arranged.

Business Calls Commissioner—

Ed. Weaver, county commissioner from Myrtle Creek, was in the city today shaking hands with friends and looking after some business affairs.

Buys Chevrolet Roadster—

Chas. Wilson, stockman and farmer of the Reaton section, has purchased a Chevrolet roadster from the Ed Marsh Motor Co., which he finds most convenient in his business.

H. S. Lawn Beautiful—

The grounds surrounding the Roseburg high school are one of the show places of the city and with the well kept lawn and beautiful shrubbery the spot adds to the scenic beauty of Roseburg.

Home From Wisconsin—

S. J. Jones, who has been visiting old friends in Wisconsin for the past few weeks, returned home today. Mr. Jones states that wheat has yielded a bumper crop in the Dakotas and that the people are prosperous throughout the entire country where he visited.

In From Glide—

A. W. Ream of Glide was in Roseburg today attending to business matters. Mr. Ream is an old friend of the men who are owners of the racing horses to be at Oakland Saturday and Sunday.

Returns to Portland—

Mrs. C. W. Robinson has returned to Portland after visiting with her sister, Mrs. C. W. Horner. Mr. and Mrs. Horner and daughter accompanied her as far as Eugene. They made the trip by auto.

"Tip" Hill Home—

T. H. Hill, superintendent of the Rock Creek trout hatchery, has returned from Columbus, Ohio, and other points in that vicinity, where he has been spending the past six weeks visiting with friends and relatives. His return was made by way of New Orleans, over the southern route, and he reports a very enjoyable trip, and a pleasant visit at his old home.

Fine Window Display—

The "Duds for Men" window display attracted a great deal of attention today. It is a booster window for the Roseburg high school football team and in the center is a large photo of the team captain, "Rusty" Irwin, attired in his football togs. The high school colors, orange and black, predominate and sweaters are attractively displayed.

C. O. Garrett Home—

C. O. Garrett, of Glendale, who managed the state fair exhibit from Douglas county, has returned home. Mr. Garrett is well pleased with the success of Douglas county's exhibit, which took third place. Practically every exhibit which won prizes cost three or four times the amount expended by Douglas county, three and four thousand dollars being expended by some counties in arranging their state fair exhibits. Mr. Garrett was particularly pleased by the fact that Douglas county grains won the sweepstakes prize in competition with counties from eastern Oregon.

95 Pound Pumpkin—

J. M. and C. O. Cracroft, who own subdivisions at the Curry estate, were in town this morning, bringing with them a huge pumpkin of the Golden Mammoth variety that tipped the scale at exactly 95 pounds. This beautiful specimen was placed in the show window at the Chamber of Commerce office. This pumpkin was grown without any special attention, and several other specimens grow on the same vine. No artificial irrigation was used, and considering the unusually dry season, the pumpkin is a fine one.

Over From Coos—

A. J. Day, a resident of Myrtle Point, Coos county, registered at the Terminal hotel last night.

Californian in Town—

George R. Oppie, of Oakland, Cal., was looking after business interests here yesterday.

In Town From Corvallis—

Clayton Long, of Corvallis, was here yesterday on his way south to look after business matters.

Up From Ashland—

Mr. and Mrs. V. McDonald, well known Ashland people, were guests at the Hotel Umpqua yesterday.

On Way to Washington—

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Whitney, of Washington, stopped over in Roseburg, yesterday, enroute to their home.

Going to Klamath—

R. D. Butts, whose home is at Klamath Falls, spent last night in this city. He was registered at the Terminal hotel.

From Looking Glass—

Walter Vashaw, farmer and fruit grower from Looking Glass valley, was a business visitor in this city today.

Visiting Friends Today—

Mrs. Milton G. Heath, of Myrtle Creek, was a Roseburg visitor today and called upon a number of her friends here.

Over From Oakland—

Mr. and Mrs. Higgenbotham and daughter, of Oakland, were here today calling on friends and attending to shopping matters.

South Bound—

Frank Ward, of Los Angeles, who has been visiting in the northwest, passed the night here enroute south to Los Angeles.

Going to San Diego—

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lane, of San Diego, were visitors in this city yesterday. They were returning to the south after a tour in Oregon.

Returned to Astoria—

Miss Dora Laughlin, who has been visiting her uncle, W. A. Cummings, of the Terminal hotel, for several days, has returned to her home at Astoria.

From Lake Tahoe—

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Comstock and daughter, Miss V. Comstock, who have been touring this state, registered at the Douglas Hotel last night on their way back to California and their Lake Tahoe home.

Want to Locate—

B. S. Fairchild and P. T. London, recently from California, who have been looking over sections of Southern Oregon, arrived here from the coast today and are looking for a location where they can farm or go into the chicken business.

Klamath Falls People Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Grant H. Nelson, Mrs. Agnes Guest, and Mrs. T. S. Abbott, of Klamath Falls, made up a motor party which reached Roseburg today. After a visit here with friends for a few hours they continued on to Portland. They will return to Roseburg Saturday.

Community Supper at Green—

The regular community supper will be held at the Green school house on Friday, October 3rd, at which time the Glangay-Green W. C. T. U. and Sunday school, will jointly entertain the school teachers of the Winston, Roberts Creek, Happy Valley and Green districts, and friends from Roseburg. All people of the various communities are invited by these organizations to be present at the entertainment, bringing well filled baskets for the supper. Hot coffee will be served by the committee in charge. The supper is to be given promptly at 7 o'clock. Ladies are asked to bring home made candy to be sold for the benefit of the W. C. T. U.

To Mexico and Back—

Mrs. and Mrs. Sidney Hellwell, who left here a month ago for a trip into Mexico, returned last night, and are glad to get back to Roseburg, although they visited many places of historic interest and enjoyed the whole time immensely. Going south they went by way of the Roosevelt highway from Coquille and Bandon. They visited the wonders of the Oregon coast line, and the beauties of the ocean and towering cliffs. Mr. Hellwell says, are beyond description. The trip led south through the coast counties of California, and finally into Mexico. On the return "voyage" they took in the Southern California cities, including San Diego, Los Angeles, Fresno, Stockton, Sacramento and then the Pacific highway home.

Visited Aunt Here—

Alfred L. Sedgwick, of Seattle, land appraiser for northwestern railway companies, was a visitor in Roseburg yesterday, at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Henry Goltz. Mr. Sedgwick has been to Chicago conferring with business associates, and returned via the southern route. Mrs. Sedgwick stopped off in California to visit relatives for a few weeks. The Seattle man was greatly pleased with the desert lands of the southwest and coming into this country where the hills are green and the vacant lots in towns and villages all show a luxuriant growth of grass, he expressed amazement that anyone should want to stay in a country dependent on irrigation for every spear of green they see.

Taste

— that's what convinced smokers the country over!

Chesterfield CIGARETTES

They Satisfy—millions!

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

NORMA TALMAGE in "SECRETS"

At Grand Today—
H. W. Hill, well known resident from the Hoaglin district, was in town today, registered at the Grand Hotel.

Home Again—
Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Bond, who have been at Los Angeles and other southern towns for several weeks, are at home again in this city.

is Given Promotion—
Dr. W. C. Belt, formerly a major in the officers' reserve corps, today received notification that he has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel. Dr. Belt had service overseas, and was with the troops in Siberia. He is now serving as director of the county health unit.

Men and Girls Held—
Two young men and two girls were picked up last night in a local rooming house, and are being held for investigation in the city court. They claim to be from California, and one of the men and one of the girls claim to be married, and the others say they are brother and sister. They are being kept in custody until they can be thoroughly examined, and it is possible that a white slave charge will result.

Suffers Broken Hip—
Mrs. Livingston, aged 82, mother of Mrs. Chas. Critser, of Melrose section, fell and broke her hip a few days ago, but the family were unaware of the seriousness of the accident until Dr. Houck was called yesterday. He found the home in one hip broken and gave such instructions as enabled these caring for the aged lady to make her comfortable. Mrs. Livingston entertained the belief that the fall resulted only in bruised muscles and ligaments, but failing to get better finally consented to have a surgeon called.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means of extending our sincere thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who assisted us during the illness and after the death of our loved one. We wish to thank them also for the many beautiful flowers.

MRS. ELLA L. SMALL,
Mr. and Mrs. FRED L. STRANG.

American wire gates and fence at Wharton Bros.

Former Resident Here—

G. L. Flint, traveling engineer for the S. P. Co., with headquarters at Portland, was registered at the Grand Hotel yesterday. Mr. Flint formerly lived here.

Hardie fruit ladders at Wharton Bros.

Over From Sutherlin—
J. C. Sauerman and two sons were in the city today looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hart and child, of Dallas, were registered at the Douglas Hotel last night. They are enroute home.

RELIABLE TAILOR

J. H. BERNIER
Upstairs Next Umpqua Hotel
Cleaning, Pressing, Alterations

We Make Your Clothes in Roseburg

BIG AUCTION SALE!

Carload of Horses and Mules
S. P. CO. STOCK YARDS
ROSEBURG, OREGON

Monday, October 6, 1924

I will sell at Public Auction without reserve and to the highest bidder:

24 head of well-broke Horses and Mules. Most of this stock have been working on railroad work all summer, have finished work, and must be sold. This car load of stock consists of heavy work teams, small farm teams and some single-broke farm horses, weight 1150 pounds to 1400 pounds. Also 5 head of good Saddle Horses, gentle and well-reined, weight 1000 to 1150 pounds.

Three teams of Mules, young and sound. This bunch of stock must be sold. One nice Pack Mule.

If you need a Horse of any kind don't fail to attend this sale. Don't forget the date, Monday, October 6. Sale starts 1 p. m. sharp.

NOTE: This stock is all serviceable and in fair order. Everybody invited to attend this sale.

SPECIAL PRICES ON

Ford Tires!

30x3 Fabric	$5.95
30x3 1-2 Fabric	$7.25
30x3 Cords	$7.00
30x3 1-2 Cords	$7.60
30x3 1-2 Good-year Fabric and tube	$8.50

C. A. Lockwood
MOTOR CO.
Ford Sales and Service
Roseburg, Ore.

J. K. GREER, Auctioneer
CHAS. TAYLOR, Owner