JUDGE BINGHAM DIES

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)
PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 6.—Circuit courts of Multnomah county adjourned at noon today for the afternoon in respect to the memory of George G. Bingham, circuit judge from Marion and Linn counties, who died here from heart disease Sunday afternoon.

Several members of the bench here and a number of local attorneys attended the funeral services held from St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Salem at 2:30 p. m. An escort of Knights Templar attended the services, which were conducted by the Rev. H. D. Chamber. The active pall bearers were elected from members of the Marion and Polk county bar association.

Judge Bingham is well known here as he served as trial judge in the Brumfield case.

CAN'T TELL VALUES IN DOLLARS & CENTS

Says Oregon Man in Praising Tanlac.

"Not in 20 years have I enjoyed better health or felt so well generally as I do since taking Tanlac," is the glowing tribute paid the famous treatment by O. J. Gregoire, a retired ranchman, 311 E. 50th St. Portland, Oregon.

"I had been in a weak, debilitated condition and getting worse for 6 or 7 years. My appetite had quit, often my stomach wouldn't take 'grub,' my nerves were upset, I had no strength or energy and, in fact, my whole system was in a bad way.

"The way my health and strength returned after I got hold of Tanlac filled me with gladness and gratitude words can't express. I was down to 115 lbs., but I now weigh 135, which is just right for me. To feel so well at my age, 74, is certainly something to be thankful for. I just can't estimate in dollars and cents what Tanlac has been worth to me."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills recommended by the manufacturers of Tanlac.

Here From Corvallis—

Miss Lolita Lough has arrived here from Corvallis where she has been residing. Miss Lough will visit with her relatives here for two weeks and then go east where she expects to reside permanently.

Back From Trip—

Attend Convention—

Mrs. E. A. Shuey, Mrs. L. C. Davis, and Mrs. Helen Ferguson are attending the W. C. T. U. state convention being held at Corvallis. Mrs. Shuey will be the guest of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Warrington.

Return to Oregon City—

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sherrill returned today to Oregon City after a two weeks vacation spent here visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sherrill and Mrs. Ella Lough. Mr. Sherrill is employed with the Shell Oil company at Park Place, near Oregon City.

Bagged Six Bear—

A party of seven men from Roseburg went into the mountains on the upper North Umpqua at the week end, after big game, and they came home last evening with six black bear and several deer. The camp was made near the falls in the North Umpqua, and from there the hunters circled out after game. They had a delightful time, and the trophies brought home were evidences of their success. The personnel of the party was Lloyd Crocker, Chris Hestness, Doc Adams, Trevis Dinsinger, Chas. Glavin, W. O. Clinger, and Ben Ryan.

INSANE MAN PICKED UP

Harry Graham, a transient, was picked up yesterday afternoon suffering from temporary insanity. Graham, it is said, is subject to spells of mental lapses, and his peculiarities in one of these spells attracted the attention of the residents in the south end of the city, who notified the police. Graham, picked up a hoe in a yard and walked out to the middle of the pavement, where after removing his shoes, he proceeded to hoe the weeds out of an imaginary garden. He also attempted to rearrange articles of furniture on the porch of a home. He was picked up by local officers and turned over to the county health department.
