DARROW WAGES A WET BATTLE

Defender of Leopold and Loeb Declares That 18th Amendment Will Die.

MAYOR TAKES ISSUE

Mayor Dever of Chicago Says He Is Trying to Rid Streets of the Foreign Bootlegging Gang.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Clarence Darrow, attorney for Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb in the trial for killing Robert Franks, declared in an address here last night that while the eighteenth amendment never will be repealed, "it will die because people of courage and independence will stand against it."

His declaration that all the presidents, mayors and public officials in the country can't enforce it, came after Mayor W. E. Dever, who preceded him, asserted he had no apologies to make for his campaign against liquor.

Mr. Darrow replied, "there never was a public official who enforced all the laws. If he did he would be given from office."

He referred to discrimination against negroes, which he said was in violation of the thirteenth amendment, and told of laws against profanity, gambling and Sunday laws, one of which forbade landing of passengers from boats.

"I believe the preservation of human liberty is one of the most sacred things for which men can fight," he added. "Those opposed to it never sleep, they make money out of it and would reduce us to slavery if they could."

Mr. Darrow, well known Sutherland lady, was visiting friends in Roseburg today and doing some shopping.

MAY INCREASE FREIGHT RATE

Carriers to Issue New Schedule on Fruit and Vegetable Shipments.

DAMAGE IS CLAIMED

Broccoli Industry Will Be Affected If New Rates Are Put Into Effect By Coast Roads.

An increase in freight charges on fresh fruit and vegetable shipments to the east is planned, according to information received from official source, and the new schedule will add approximately 20 per cent to the charges on shipment of broccoli, an industry which is seriously affected by the change.

The new rule particularly covers cases where fruit or vegetables are iced by placing a quantity of ice on top of the load. Broccoli shippers have found that by inverting the crates and covering the load with ice, the cold water running down over the vegetables keeps it in excellent shape.

H. Giddings, vice president and general manager of the Pacific Fruit Express company, claims that the Pacific Coast carriers are not raising their rates in an effort to injure the fruit or vegetable industry.

"The facts are," he said, "that prior to early in 1920, Pacific coast lines published rules in their tariffs prohibiting the placing of ice on top of the load in the body of the car, in an effort to secure uniformity. Interested lines arranged to publish a joint tariff in which practically all lines in the United States were participants, known as the National protective tariff, in which reference was made to tariffs of individual lines for rules permitting the placing of ice in the body of the car, on top of the load."

"Pacific coast rail carriers tariffs did not authorize the placing of ice in the body of refrigerator cars, but shortly after the publication of the National Tariff, the practice was started by shippers of putting ice on top of the load, in the body of the car, the melting of which resulted in very substantial injury to the vegetable and insulation of the car. In an effort to prevent the damage to their cars in the interest of the entire industry, the carrier undertook to establish a rule that would, in effect, discourage, if not prevent the placing of ice in the body of the car, on top of the load. Thus rule was suspended, but after exhaustive hearings at Los Angeles, interstate commerce commission rendered a decision to the effect that carriers could make a charge equivalent to 20 percent of standard refrigeration charge when ice was placed on the load in the body of the car, subject to a maximum of 5,000 lbs. of ice to the car. But that on any excess they might charge the freight rate. That decision was rendered early last summer, since which time representatives of carriers offered for consideration of shippers a rule which they believed conformed with the decision of the interstate commerce commission. On protest of representatives of vegetable shippers, publication of this rule was held up and conference was arranged at Chicago on September 23 to which representatives of vegetable shippers were invited. The facts presented were limited. The standard refrigeration charge or a charge of fifteen dollars to Chicago and sixteen dollars on a shipment to New York. The principal instances where more

WHEELER TO BE IN CITY WED.

'Shenandoah' Makes Epoch-Making Flight at Ten O'Clock Today.

TO PACIFIC COAST

LAKE HURST, N. J., Oct. 7.—The naval dirigible Shenandoah started her epoch-making round trip cruise to the Pacific coast at ten o'clock today taking the air from her moorings mast in perfect weather conditions.

With Rear-Admiral W. A. Moffet in charge of navy aeronautics, on board to make the entire trip, the navy's pride of the air fluttered the admiral's pennant from the stern, circled once about the flying field and headed south, with Wilmington, Del., as the first city on her route.

"I consider this the most severe test an airship has ever been called upon to make," were Admiral Moffett's parting words. "It will thoroughly demonstrate that an airship is practical for all purposes, in peace time as well as in war."

With her course laid for Wilmington, Baltimore, Washington, Greenboro, N. C., Atlanta and Birmingham, to Fort Worth, Tex., the big airship is expected to arrive at her mooring mast for the first stop there some time between midnight Wednesday and sunrise Thursday. Weather conditions along the route were reported today to be excellent as far as Fort Worth.

Commander Lansdowne is in charge of the aerial cruiser and its crew of 40 men. Fuel for 99 hours cruising was in the Shenandoah's tanks and food for 49 men for five days was aboard.
