First Baptist church at Roseburg.

Going to Medford—Mr. and Mrs. Al Shannon, who live at Medford, were at the Terminal last night, enroute to their home. Other Medford people at the Terminal were Mr. and Mrs. Macy Lind and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wahl.

Car Skidded—
Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wikher, coming from California, met with a slight accident yesterday evening south of town when their car skid-ded on the wet pavement. Mrs.
Wikher was thrown from the seat and suffered slight bruises. They stopped at the Douglas over night and went on north today.

Shipping From Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Savage and children, of Honolulu, who have been touring the coast this summer and fall, arrived here last night and registered at the Douglas. These people are returning to the islands, and left today for Seattle, where they will sail for Ho-lulu, shipping their car from there.

senting the Union Pacific system, was in town last night. He registered at the Umpqua.

Looking After Revenue—
George G. Hewitt, of Medford, was in the city last night and today in the interest of Uncle Sam's income tax business. He stopped at the Umpqua.

Peel Man in Town—Lafe Ingalls, pioneer resident of Peel, was hobnobbing with friends in this city last evening and checking up on the political situation and the ball games.

Going to Marshfield—Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Mansfield, of Portland, enroute to Marshfield, were guests in this city last night.
They left by auto for the coast this morning.

Headed Southward—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ferguson, of Bellingham, Washington, are going to California for an extended visit.
They stopped at the Douglas Hotel last night, leaving today for the southland.

and fruit grower, is in the city today visiting with friends and boosting for Coolidge. Mr. Best predicts some of the southern states will go republican this fall.

Drive to Marshfield—Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Baltimore, and daughter, who have been visiting in Roseburg and transacting business matters, returned to Marshfield by automobile today.

They formerly resided in this city, and while here sold their home at 111 McClellan street to Frank O. Wilson.

Fine Is Paid—J. W. Barker was fined $50 and costs in the local justice court today when he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of possessing venison unlawfully. Barker was apprehended by "Pat" Daily, Jackson county game warden, before the season opened, but the filing of the complaint was delayed.

Car Is Wrecked—
Deputy Sheriff Jess Hodges' car was badly wrecked last night when he went over the grade near the Winstan bridge. His vision was obscured by a heavy rain, and the car went into the bank, swerved across the road and into the ditch.
One wheel was broken, and the car quite badly damaged. Mr.
Hodges was not injured.

GRATEFUL TO TANLAC FOR PERFECT HEALTH

Seattle Lady Gives Tanlac Full Credit for Her Recovery.

"I would not be back in the condition I was before taking Tanlac for a million dollars," recently declared Mrs. N. E. Washburn, 4615 41st Ave., So., Seattle, Wash.

"Stomach trouble had taken away all my strength and brought me down to where I could not keep going from weakness and suffering. I was so nervous, restless and miserable that life was a burden. Only those afflicted with indigestion as I was can know what I endured.

"As stubborn as my case was, Tanlac has built me up 13 lbs. and there is not a trace of my old troubles left. In fact, I am now enjoying perfect health and I am just so grateful for my recovery that I want to praise Tanlac to everybody."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute.

YONCALLA HIGH SCHOOL 'WHISPERS'

Our high school enrollment has increased this week. Two new pupils have swelled our ranks and make the total enrollment 50 pupils. The new students are Bertha Sutherland, freshman, and Wayne Grogono, senior. Bertha, though formerly of Yoncalla, went to school in Tacoma last year and Wayne is from Eugene.

Erma Vroman, Harold Freeman, Gerald Freeman, Mable Parks, and Willette Miller are among the absent this week.

The boys held a meeting during the week and organized their basketball team. David Coons was elected captain and Tracy Applegate manager. Captain Coons says, "We have material for a fairly good basketball team this year."

The Girls' Glee club is progressing rapidly and all are en-thusiased over the big concert they are to give in a few months.

Yoncalla high school is going to send out four new teachers this year. The girls are training on the grade school in Yoncalla and on other districts nearby. The following are those enrolled in teachers' training, Evangeline Toelle of Elkhed; Ella Vroman, of Scott's Valley; Bernice Forbes of Yoncal-la.

The seniors have ordered their class rings but have decided to wait until later to order their announcement cards.

There was a slight but highly important mistake made in last week's "Whispers." Tracy Applegate is vice-president of the senior filed petitions as independent candidates at the coming election. Mrs. Church entering the political race for the office of county school superintendent and Mr. Epstein seeking the office of county surveyor. Petitions were circulated by both, and were filed in time to get the names of both on the class instead of David Coon, as stated.

May Gross of Yoncalla, is teaching the upper Scott's Valley, or the Fairview school east of town.
Miss Gross has four pupils and four grades.

The Lower Scott's Valley school has a new school house which was built during the past summer. The new building is very modern and contains two rooms. As there are only 16 pupils enrolled, one room is used for school purposes.
Mrs. Cleve Ambrose of Yoncalla, who taught the school last year is teaching again this year.

High school pupils from Hayhurst Valley tell us that Miss Ol-ford, one of the Hayhurst teachers is very well liked by everyone in the valley. Miss Olford is from Drain and she has 10 pupils.
