

Weekly Edition

NO. 9 OF ROAD

RECOMMENDS ROAD THROUGH AND CUT

an Examiner
Commerce
Originally. Su
Constru

Press Leased. W
TON, Oct. 22.
don that the
ree commission
ding of an exte om Bend to including a co Natron cut-off an, Ore., to a
the Natron cut
lay in a tentativ Kepsart, commi

don was found to be not just er present owner ng lines in We
g to probable
traffic and he re deration of the ching the Sou in Oregon from signing some o
the new projec

to require cons
ensions was bre
e service comm
The Oregon com
ported by va
and comm e throughout
public utilities
daho, the rail of California and
o and Oakland,
ers of comm
one of the few commission has ire railroads to lines against

action asked fo commission was e to be sub
ed that was ntially constr
and 1912, whe
ffe, Central Pa
acific were coo
e Harriman, re
rangements ex
the practicabil
lines were un aminer said.

stant railroads
struction of the
that under ex
e of railroad o trol in Western e traffic woul
produce revenue
ration and ma
tracks they m construct.

er held that th
upports the ce tral and eastern ly in need of eportation fac ed extension
y of Odell Junct
the examiner
e traffic prod
her forested or both, for pract istance.

affords every re
nce of prompts sustaining and s ult, he said. "H
the Union Pacifi
prepare plans fo
the interstate
ing the line wh advantageous h
that a conn
y made with th
for routing o
rough Klamath d through Eugene direction. He r
the Oregon trun llowed joint or he road from Be on as part

te between Call itory served by its allied lines.
e the constructi
and 150 mil
cost of approxi
for which fun
now obtainabl
markets at fav
rest, he reporte

ND, Oct. 22.—
ys of the Unio uthern Pacific Portland and systems rece
miner Kephart's
e disinclined to probable effect
provides the ra desired by the O e commission a
its through c
however, it is ad
by attorneys th
be filed again
report. This wi
the next mont
and thereafter t
mission will se al argument.

ision by the re commission.
ilding of railway
regon to connect Pacific, the
the Spokane.
attle systems
opinion voice