LONG FUNERAL TODAY

The funeral of the late Robert W. Long, county commissioner of Douglas county, was held this afternoon from the farm home three miles south of Yoncalla. In spite of the inclement weather a large throng of the sorrowing friends and relatives gathered to pay tribute to the deceased official. Nearly all of the offices at the court house were closed this afternoon while employees attended the ceremonies.

COOLIDGE CONFIDENT

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—President Coolidge told friends today every indication seemed to point to the election of the republican national ticket and he is making all his plans accordingly.

While Mr. Coolidge said he had not decided finally to vote by mail, he is planning to do so rather than make a trip to Northampton, Mass., to cast his ballot.

ALL SHOULD VOTE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Chairman William Butler of the republican national committee has issued a statement urging all voters to go to the polls November 4. Mr. Butler said in part:

"In years past stay-home voters through negligence have decided elections. It is important this year more than ever before, that all the men and women of America who have the right to vote go to the polls and exercise that privilege."

MARKETS

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 28.—A two cent decline in the local butter market brought the price down to the 40-cent level this morning while the buying price of butterfat sagged to the 35-cent basis, f. o. b. shipper's track. The declines are expected to stimulate the movement of butter and help materially in improving the stagnant situation that has existed here for some time.

There is plenty of butter throughout the country and increased consumption is the only hope of preventing a downward trend in the market.

Cube prices were also posted lower on the local dairy exchange with extras now listed at 37 cents; standards 36 cents, prime firsts 35 cents and firsts 34 cents.

Other coast markets are in a weak condition with values gradually working lower.

Demand for country dressed meats is sluggish and limited to strictly fancy animals. Best veal calves are quoted at 11 to 12 cents and choice light hogs 13 to 14 cents. Weakness at yards reflected along street.

Poultry is steady and unchanged receipts gradually working out. Light turkeys live are hard to move. Only fancy stuff is wanted. Young white Pekin ducks are selling around 17 cents.

A two cent advance in pullets to 46 cents is the only change in the local egg market today. Supply and demand of fresh extras apparently well balanced. Strength in the San Francisco market is a factor here.

Apples are moving at a very sluggish rate in the local market. Offerings are plentiful but the demand for apple week has not yet started. There are plenty of popular priced stocks but high markets at shipping points compel dealers to ask around $2 to $2.50 a box for extra fancy large sized fruit.

There is a steady tone in the local potato market, with Washington Gems around $1.75; Oregon Burbanks No. 1 $1.65 to $1.75.

Onions are selling steady around $2 for Oregon Yellow Danvers. Butlers are bringing around $1.25.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—In view of the death of Secretary Wallace the investigation of agricultural conditions proposed by President Coolidge is now expected to be held up until he names a new secretary of agriculture.

Early action on the appointment of a successor to Mr. Wallace is looked for because of the importance the president attaches to the investigation and the proposed preliminary agricultural conference, but he does not plan to give much consideration to the problem of making a selection before tomorrow when burial services for the late secretary will be held in Des Moines, Iowa.

Among those mentioned for the office are Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois; John Leo Coulter, president of North Dakota agricultural college and who has been selected to serve on the proposed agriculture committee; and Samuel Adams, publisher and former president of the agricultural editors association.

DAWES SPECIAL TRAIN. En route to Chicago, Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Having concluded his eastern speaking tour, Charles G. Dawes, republican vice-presidential nominee turned again today to the middle west, which he in many of his speeches has termed "the great battleground in this campaign."

The republican nominee traveled westward today to attack the La Follette independent candidacy in speeches in Missouri and Indiana, before the end of the campaign Saturday night. His special train is due to reach Chicago this afternoon and Mr. Dawes will spend the night at his home in Evanston.

He will be on the move again tomorrow, however, for he will speak tomorrow night in St. Louis. Another Missouri address has been arranged for Thursday night in St. Joseph.

The eastern tour, which embraced Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Delaware, New Jersey, and New York, closed with an address last night at Rochester in the course of which Mr. Dawes assailed "cowardly politicians" and declared that the people should be thankful once in a while to vote for such a man as Calvin Coolidge.

DRY SPELL IN BEND IS ENDED

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

BEND, Ore., Oct. 28.—Breaking the longest dry spell in Bend since official records have been kept, rain fell yesterday and last night to the amount of ninety five hundredths of an inch, according to the local weather observer.

Only eighty one hundredths of an inch of rain fell in Bend during the more than seven months since April 1st until yesterday the records show.

The rain was reported to be general over central Oregon and extended up into the Cascades.

ELECTION WARM IN GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Today the last day of the election campaign, is being devoted to intensified canvasses and torrents of speeches by all parties. Political tempers have been growing steadily hotter and show no sign of cooling.

Several meetings last night were marked by violent disturbances and the police in some instances were called. The worst violence occurred outside a meeting hall in Battersea where a furious blow aimed at the conservative candidate, Viscount Curzon, missed him but felled a companion unconscious. Tires were torn from Lord Curzon's automobile and lamps smashed.

The Russian affair caused by the publication of the alleged Zinovieff letter to the British Communist party, has served to heighten the feeling, but there is nothing to show whether or not it will have the damaging effect on labor's chances.

ANCIENT DROPS OF WATER FOUND

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Drops of water more than 100,000,000 years old preserved in quartz since an age before life began to appear on earth, will be exhibited in the Field Museum here.

The water was obtained in South America by O. C. Farrington, head of the museum's department of geology who found it imprisoned in crystal quartz taken from rock formations at Ban Jesus Dos Meiras, Bahia, Brazil. The estimate of its age was based on the fact that the rock formations were of the archaic age, asserted by some scientists to have existed 550,000,000 years ago. The water is clear and sparkling. It will remain in its crystal container as removal might result in its evaporation.

PRIZE CATTLE COMING

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Thirty five of the Holstein prize-winning cattle of the national dairy show will invade the Pacific Northwest at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland, Nov. 1 to 4. It was announced today. They are from eleven of Wisconsin's foremost herds and include Madam Aris Wayne, Denver, grand champion cow at the national show and Johanna Dag Apple Palat, grand champion bull at the same exhibition.
