ROSEBURG, OREGON, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1924.

A UNITED STATES OF THE WORLD.

Some of our more advanced philosophers look forward hopefully to a time when wars will be done away by joining all nations into a union something like that existing between the states of our country.

Few people in this country other than physicians ever see a case of leprosy although it is estimated that between five hundred and one thousand lepers are still at large in the United States.

One of the most singular exhibitions of the ability of a small element to control a great people, of the tail to wag the dog, is now given in Russia, where a party of Communists which numbers 336,000 people, controls the whole of that vast empire.

Many people who in the spring felt considerable enthusiasm about beautifying their home grounds, seem to lose all interest as the season draws to its close.

NEW PRESIDENT MEXICO VISITOR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—A visit to the town of America's unknown white and tan, just at the White House were the political maneuverings today at General P. Elias Ciller, president-elect of Mexico, who is spending several days here as the guest of the United States government while en route to Mexico.

A rascally crowd was detailed to accompany General Ciller to the entrance of the national cemetery at Arlington, with Brigadier-General Rosenstock, commanding general of the District of Columbia, taking up the duties of host there in the ceremony of placing a wreath on the tomb as a token of homage from the Mexican people.

EXPECT GREAT GAME TODAY

University of Washington to Play Oregon at Eugene This Afternoon.

WASHINGTON LEADS Huskies Have Won Eight Games in Nineteen From Oregon—Three Have Been Ties.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) EUGENE, Nov. 1.—With the field drenched by the rainfall which has pounded down incessantly for the past seven days, and with the steady downpour continuing today, prospects are clearly for a slow game of football today when the University of Oregon faces the University of Washington.

The field, though fairly well drained, and sawdust covered, is a sea of mud. Washington is conceded a slight advantage, with the wet field and the Oregonians have turned their hope for a victory into a hope to hold the invading Huskies to as low a score as possible.

In spite of the indication of a slow game and of a deluge of rain during the contest, a big attendance is expected. It is the homecoming day for Oregon.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 1.—Oregon and Washington teams meet for the nineteenth time today in the big homecoming game on Hayward field. In the sixteen games played the two institutions, Washington has scored eight victories against seven for Oregon. Three games resulted in ties. Should Oregon win today's game, the count will be even, eight victories each.

In the sixteen games played Oregon has scored 188 points to 172 rolled up by the Huskies. Oregon took the first contest in 1900 by a 43 to 0 score, the largest ever registered against the Washingtonians. The two institutions did not meet in 1901 and 1902. In 1903 the Washington team scored a one-point victory, 5 to 4. Then followed a series of Oregon wins with the exception of a tie game in 1905. With Gilmore Doble as its coach, Washington won all games from 1908 to 1914.

Those who have followed football say the greatest game between the two state institutions was in 1916 when the teams battled on a muddy field to a 9 to 0 tie. That year Oregon went to Pasadena, Cal., for an inter-sectional game and triumphed over the great Pennsylvania eleven.

In 1918, 1919, and 1920 Oregon won from the Huskies. In 1922 the teams staged a hard battle in Seattle which resulted in a 3 to 3 tie. Last year the Huskies won, 24 to 7, in a hard contest. The Oregon team, shattered with injuries, put up a great fight.

At present the weather and the condition of the playing field in Eugene give the Washington eleven a decided advantage, due to the greater weight of the invaders. The field today is a sea of mud. A stubborn fight is all that will save Oregon from being scored on.

LA FOLLETTE NO CHANCE--DAVIS

Democratic Leader Issues Statement Forecasting Election Result. DEFENDS HIS COURSE Declares Nation Will Choose Progressive Congress; President Must Be in Accord.

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—In the fifth statement of the series being issued by John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president, for the purpose of summarizing campaign issues it was claimed today that the country will elect a congress pledged to progress and remedial liberal legislation.

The statement further declares that Senator La Follette has no chance of election and adds that "it is evident that President Coolidge has no chance of re-election."

"None of these things can be accomplished without honesty and courage in government and complete accord and cooperation between the president and congress. "There is no doubt that the country will elect a congress pledged to progress and remedial liberal legislation. It is admitted now that Senator La Follette has no chance of election. It is evident that President Coolidge has no chance of re-election, or do they want veto and obstruction and four years of deadlock between the president and congress?"

"From the many expressions which are coming in from all classes from every state and from the endorsements received from various organization committees of all parties I am convinced that the people want remedial legislation, that they do desire harmonious relations between congress and the president and they realize that they can assure things only by voting at this election for the state and national candidates of the democratic party."

Mr. Davis made the charge last night in a speech that the republican party was trying to buy the election. He read the letters of Joseph R. Grundy, who raised $50,000 in Pennsylvania and contended that he called the spirit of materialism which collected money from protected manufacturers with the spirit of idealism shown in a letter of a "gold star mother," who sent her dead son's insurance check to the democratic campaign fund.

"I have another letter enclosing a check," he said. "The check is from the treasurer of the United States paid through the veterans bureau. The check is a small one, especially when contrasted with the $650,000 collected by Mr. Grundy. It is for $57.50 and the sender makes no mention of sacrifices, such as Mr. Grundy in his letters said he and subscribers for his fund were making for the republican party."

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Another labor endorsement was given John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president here last night. It came from the New York City and state allied printing councils through an announcement made public by eastern democratic headquarters and followed that announced in a statement issued by members of the executive council of the central trades and labor council of greater New York. Officials at the democratic headquarters declared the action of the printing councils "to be typical of the action being or would be taken by organized labor bodies throughout the country."

idge has not been in and will not be in accord with the purposes of such a congress as it is said will be elected.

The statement said: "During the campaign I have attempted to discuss the issues before us with the greatest frankness and sincerity. I have done my utmost to make my position on all the questions of the day clear cut. I have pledged myself if elected to do everything within my power to open up the markets of the world for our products, as the business men of our country cannot hope for real and durable prosperity on any other basis. As manufacturers and merchants cannot prosper unless the farmers prosper, I have promised to exert my every effort to raise agriculture to a plane of equality with our other great industries. I have pledged myself to continue the democratic policy of strengthening the position of labor."

"None of these things can be accomplished without honesty and courage in government and complete accord and cooperation between the president and congress. "There is no doubt that the country will elect a congress pledged to progress and remedial liberal legislation. It is admitted now that Senator La Follette has no chance of election. It is evident that President Coolidge has no chance of re-election, or do they want veto and obstruction and four years of deadlock between the president and congress?"

tion thereof and any such violation or others, however lawfully discovered, will be duly prosecuted according to law.

"To afford opportunity for healthful recreation of the youth of the city I suggest that suitable playgrounds be acquired and equipped with modern devices and conveniences, when revenue permits.

"There are certain civic improvements which in the future must be undertaken. I allude to the extension of our drainage and sewer system to a point of discharge reasonably beyond the city limits. This improvement demands the careful study of each citizen interested in the health and growth of Roseburg.

"Pending actual construction of this project initial studies of the improvement should be made and an estimate of the cost secured. "If elected I will give my time and such ability as I may have, to the economic, social and moral upbuilding of Roseburg."

There are two candidates for the office of city recorder, R. L. Whipple and Harley J. Watson being the contenders. Mr. Whipple has been serving for a number of years as city recorder. He is a practicing attorney, and through his legal knowledge is able to administer the affairs of the office without legal complications. By long experience he is thoroughly familiar with every detail of the position, which is one which imposes a great deal of responsibility upon the official.

Mr. Watson, who is seeking the office, has been employed with the French Transfer company in recent years. He was a member of the Oregon National Guard at the time of the war and served in the artillery during the struggle. Upon his return he added in the reorganization of the guard, and now holds the rank of 1st lieutenant with the local company. Through his army experience and in his later employment he has received much clerical training.

W. F. Higgins is qualified for the office of city treasurer. Mr. Thomas has served very efficiently in this capacity in the past years and is thoroughly qualified in every particular for continuance in the office.

For confirmation there is a full ticket in the field. From Ward One the candidates are Frank P. Clements and Storey lies; from ward Two, Frank Lilburn, S. L. Kidder and M. C. Radnabaugh; from Ward Three, F. A. Riedel and Charles B. Wade; from Ward Four, Clair K. Allen and G. W. Young.

MANCHU GENERAL MOVES AGAINST CHRISTIAN FOE

(Associated Press Leased Wire.) MUKDEN, Nov. 1.—General Chang Tso-Lin, Manchurian leader whose armies have reported numerous advances against the disorganized forces of General Wu Pei-Fu deposed military head of the Peking government, attended a reception at the Japanese consulate here yesterday at which he was questioned regarding his victories.

General Chang said the success of his forces operating in the northern Chihli province had been so great that his principal problem now was arranging to feed and house more than 30,000 prisoners.

The Manchurian war lord announced at the reception that three brigades of his troops had reached Lintai, between Peking and Tien Tsin, to assist in fighting against the troops of General Wu, who is now occupied in an attempt to oust Feng Yu Hsiang, the Christian general, who is now in control of the central government at Peking.

The reported action of General Li Shen-Hua, military governor of Shensi province, in moving two brigades of his troops from Tung-kwang to Loyang, to prevent a retreat by General Wu through Shensi, was described by General Chang as a most serious blow to the hopes of General Wu.

A similar force, General Chang said, was reported stationed at Shihchuan, rendering a retreat of General Wu along the line of the Peking-Hankow railway almost impossible.

CANTON, Nov. 1.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen, head of the government of the Southern China, has taken up a residence at the colonial works since his return from Shih-chow, north of here, last Thursday.

His return was signaled when approaches to the railway station were blocked and doors and windows of homes in the vicinity were ordered closed as a precautionary measure when his train appeared.

Dr. Sun's return has caused much consternation here as the residents fear further excessive taxation and trouble. The original purpose of Dr. Sun's visit to Shihchow was to mobilize a fighting unit to render aid to General Lu Yung-Hsiang, who has since been deposed as military governor of Chekiang province and the Shanghai district.
